JUNIOR-SENIOR DEBATE

To the strains of the procession, rendered by Miss Jerradine Brinson, the debaters, accompanied by marshals, entered the auditorium and took their places in order on the platform. They were followed by the students who filled each side of the auditorium, brightly decorated with the colors of both classes. The procession was beautifully closed with the invocation by Dr. Spencer Tunnel. The auditorium seemed to be filled with a spirit of seriousness, yet the students manifested much enthusiasm by their yells.

The subject, “Resolved, That the United States should cancel the debt of the European Allies,” was forcefully discussed by the Senior debaters, Misses Mabel White and Leila Cotton, and the negative by the Junior debaters, Misses Lois Brand and Emily Park. Each side of the question was well defended, and after these four debaters had concluded arguments, the audience was well convinced that there are two sides to every question.

The beautiful cup, given by Mr. Fuller E. Callaway, was awarded by Rev. W. B. Hay. He amusingly held the audience in a tense state until he made the final statement awarding the cup to the Juniors.

Those who acted as judges were Prof. M. A. Smith, Supt. Schools, Thomson; Prof. B. F. Pickett, Supt. Schools, Newnan; and Dr. T. D. Putman, LaGrange.

After the benediction by Dr. Bate-tman, the audience was invited to attend the formal reception given in the college parlors. The receiving line was composed of the members of the Forum club. Punch was served to the guests by the college girls.

The six o'clock dinner party given in the dining hall was a most attractive part of the evening. A large square table was arranged in the middle of the dining hall, at which was seated the members of the Forum.

DEATH OF MRS. M. E. MOSS

With a feeling of sincere grief we record the recent illness and death of Mrs. Minnie E. Moss. She was a matron at LaGrange college for seven years, and she was a sincere friend to all within its walls during that time.

Mrs. Moss, with her daughter, Miss Ruby, had spent the winter in Florida. Becoming seriously ill there, Mrs. Moss went to Kansas to be with another daughter during the time of an operation the doctors had found necessary. After this though still in a very serious condition, her friends had hoped for her complete recovery; and it came as a distant shock when the news of her death reached us.

Her early life was spent largely in North Georgia. Marrying quite young, she became a widow early in life, and was left the care of three young daughters. She became a matron at Piedmont college at Demorest, Georgia, remaining there eleven years. Then seven years were spent at LaGrange, and then, because of a daughter’s health, she went to New Mexico for a few years, returning but fall to Florida for the winter.

While at LaGrange college, besides her duties as matron, in which she showed unusual ability, Mrs. Moss was a genuine helper in many capacities. Whether looking after the making of Christian characters, or caring for the physical health of the students; whether caring for the housecleaning, or for the planting of flowers—Mrs. Moss was always the same sunshining Christian, with remarkable tact, energy and common sense. Those who knew her will be deeply grieved to learn of her death.

---------------------------

MOTHERS’ DAY SERVICE

The special Mothers’ Day service held by the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday evening, was one of the sweetest and most impressive services held during the year. Special music added to the beauty of the occasion, the opening number being an anthem by the choir. After a prayer, Miss Leila Brand sang a solo containing beautiful sentiments of mother. Selected poems on the sweet subject of mother were read by Miss Leila Cotton.

The talk given by Mrs. W. E. Thompson was one which brought tears to the eyes of the girls as it turned their thoughts back to home and mother love for them there. A sweeter talk has not been given us during the entire year. Being a mother herself, Mrs. Thompson better understood the breadth and depth of the love of a mother for her children. She reminded us of the fact that, though we can never pay the debt we owe our mothers, yet we can repay it to a large extent by fulfilling the dreams she has had for us and becoming an honor to our names and families.

The service was closed with a prayer, and everyone left with a quickened love in her heart for mother.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Monday, May the twenty-second was the golden wedding anniversary of our dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Truitt. Mr. Truitt is such a lover of the college and has done so much for the betterment of it that the college girls could not let the opportunity of showing their love to him go by. So on Monday night they all went down to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truitt to congratulate them. Miss Varina Dunbar extended congratulations to them in behalf of the student body. The girls then sang to them some of the old love songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Truitt would not let the girls say good-night until they had been served with delicious punch.
The SCROLL
Published monthly by the Quill Drivers' Club of LaGrange College.

Application made for entry at Post-office at LaGrange, Ga., as second class mail matter Jan. 29, 1922, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription rate, fifty cents a semester.

Editorial Staff:
Lois Brand, '23  Editor-in-Chief
Velma Folds, '23  Ex. Ed.
Margaret Smith, '24  Proof Reader
Bennie Hale, '26  Advertising Mgr.
Mary Lane, '24  Joke Editor

Reporters:
Senior  Eloise Fullbright
Junior  Susie Ogletree
Sophomore  Margaret Smith
Freshman  Geneva Clarke
Sub-Freshman  Elizabeth Butter
Special  Mary Leggitt
Mezzofantian  Alice Turner
Irregular  Sara Cockett
Y. W. C. A.  Elizabeth Jones

To MY MOTHER

FOR ALL THE LOVE YOU'VE GIVEN ME,
FOR ALL THE PRAYERS YOU'VE PRAYED,
FOR ALL THE TEARS AND ALL THE CARES.
The sacrifice you've made,
For all I am or can become,
I want to thank you, mother mine,
And to the God who loves you—
Upon my knees I pray,
To send a wealth of happiness
To you, this Mother's Day.

COLLEGE DIRECTORY

Class Presidents:
Senior  Mabel White
Junior  Lois Brand
Sophomore  Sarah Brown
Freshman  Annie de Jarnette
Special  Mary Leggitt
Sub-Freshman  Elizabeth Cline

Organizations:
Mezzofantian  Alice Turner
Irregular  Lois Brand
Pres. Y. W. C. A.  Elizabeth Jones
Pres. Student-body  Varina Dunbar
Pres. Quill Drivers' Club  Mabel Cline
Pres. Athletic Ass'n.  Sarah Brown
Pres. Dramatic Club  May Dee Wilson
Pres. Glee Club  Mary Leggitt

"Good-bye" will soon be said and this school year will have come to a close. This has been a glorious year in many respects for L. C. Some of our dearest dreams have been realized and we have reached achievements that we have long hoped to reach. To us our greatest achievement has been the publication of the Scroll. We feel that we cannot give too much praise to our old Editorial Staff. They have worked diligently and faithfully and have made "The Scroll" a great success, thus far.

We, as the new Editorial staff take up our new duties with hands that are little "shaky" but with heads and hearts that are willing to do all in our power to make "The Scroll" for 1923, a booming success. We realize that the task is big and the opportunity great, but the future for LaGrange college is the greatest in its history and through the publication of "The Scroll" we intend to put this college on the map.

To those girls who are leaving us this year—we'll miss you more than we can ever tell, but we won't forget you and through "The Scroll" as a medium of exchange, we want to keep up with you and your work. Don't forget Alumnae section of the paper and remember that news from you at any time will be appreciated.

Together with hand, heart and brain, set us work for a greater Scroll and for a greater LaGrange.

OFFICERS ELECTED

On Saturday night, April 15th, the Mezzofantians held a business meeting and elected officers for the remainder of the year, who will hold the office for next year. The following girls were chosen for these posts:
President, Alice Turner; vice-president, Josephine Ward; secretary and treasurer, Nina May Knott; critic, Velma Folds; captain, Elizabeth Butler.

Next year these officers have determined to make a star year for the society and with the help of the faithful old girls and the new members this old hill will ring with the enthusiasm of good Mezzos, and, far and wide, from L. C. to the most distant town of an "old girl" the doings of the girls who still are carrying our standard will be known and with the cry will sing:

Long may our banner of black and gold,
Wave over Mezzo's true, whether young or old.

MOTHER

As years ago, we carried to your knee,
The tales of treasures of eventful days,
Knowing no deed too humble for your praise,
Nor any gift too trivial to please.
So still we bring with older smiles and tears,
What gifts we may, to claim the old dear right;
Your faith, beyond the silence of the years,
For all in me that's true,
And the God who loves you—
Upon my knees I pray,
To send a wealth of happiness
To you, this Mother's Day.—Katherine Narvis.

LAGRANGE HARDWARE CO.
"Say it with Hardware"
"If it's Hardware, we have it"

Expert Watch Repairing
C. W. SUTHERLIN
Watchmaker and Jeweler
With LaGrange Jew-lry & Arms Co.
with any domestic science or art be told that commencement is near she has trained some excellent cooks...and laces! Not only does Miss Bason send out designers of a rare sort, but...reminds one of being in a modiste shop on Fifth avenue. Such frills...tic art department, the dresses are receiving their finishing touches. Even now, to go into the exhibit room receiving their finishing touches. We fondly think our exhibit ranks with the Souvre in Paris, and we hope that all the artists of the surrounding country will come and view our work of the year.

This department under the direction of Miss Black has grown very extensively during the past year, and the students show more interest and enthusiasm than has been shown in several years. Even those who never dreamed of taking art before have succumbed to the fascination of the pallet and brush, and are turning out some very splendid work. Altogether, the special class has lived up to its name, and has a most successful year to look back upon.

SENIOR BANQUET

President and Mrs. W. E. Thompson entertained the senior class and their sponsors at a delightful dinner at the Charles hotel in West Point or Saturday evening. The party enjoyed the truck ride to West Point very much.
The table was beautifully decorated with large quantities of sweet peas and roses in silver baskets. In the center was a great mound of the flowers and others in baskets artistically arranged. Beautiful hand painted place cards with the senior flower, and an Oxford cap, marked the plans. Under her napkin each girl found her future prophesied in rhyme, and the reading of these caused much amusement.

During the evening toasts and songs were enjoyed. Miss Mabel White gave a toast to Pres. Thompson. Miss Mary Leggett to Mrs. Thompson, Miss Lura Frances Johnson to the Alma Mater. Others were proposed to Miss Christine Broome and Mrs. Abbott, senior sponsors to the "old maid school teachers" and to the entire class.

A ride to school in the moonlight completed the evening which was enjoyed by all present, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson entertained Misses Eloise Kellogg bright, Margaret McDonald, Mabel Cline, Mabel White, Lois C. Olin, Lura Frances Johnson, Ethel Pike, Beva McMillin, Alice Sutton, Mary Leggett, Jerry Brinson, Annie Loisa Nelson, Mattie McGhee, Christine Broome and Mrs. J. J. Childs and Mrs. O. W. Abbott.

THE LAST OF US AS JUNIORS

Oh, girls, girls! Do you realize that we have only a few more days in which to bear the name of Juniors; and do you realize that when we see this hill again that we shall be the Senior class of 1922-23, to which every one shall look to break the records?

We have been seeing the Seniors of this year have a good time. But our motto is, "Every dog has his day," and ours is next year.

Since this is the last article we shall put in "The Scroll" as Juniors, we deem it our privilege to publish our will to the incoming Junior class.

We, the Junior class of 1921-22, do hereby, in our perfect right and sane mind, will and bequeath the incoming Junior class all of your privileges and dignities; privileges, such as going to the picture show twice a month at night; the privilege of leading the line to church recitals, and elsewhere; the privilege of having among their number the vice-presidents of the student government; the privilege of having dates on Sunday nights, and all other privileges which we, as Juniors, have enjoyed, and we do sincerely wish that many others may be added. We do also will and bequeath such dignities as we have procured on many and various occasions, and any others which they may deem necessary to add.

Thus we, the outgoing Juniors, do will and bequeath the privilege and duty to R. A. Teasley, of keeping perfect quiet and order in the Hawkes building. I, Lois Brand, do will and bequeath to Margaret Smith, the privilege of being a Junior debater, (hoping that she may not win because the Seniors must win). I, Emily Park, do will and bequeath to Lillian Clark, the privilege of being the other Junior debater, and do also repeat Lois Brand's wish. I, Myrtle Cline, do will and bequeath to Grace Hale, the privilege of rooming with the president of the student body, and of being a perfect model for other girls. I, Mary Hodnett, do will and bequeath to Mary Lane, my art of champion Junior swimmer.

Thus we, the outgoing Juniors, have disposed of all our privileges, dignities and duties as Juniors to the incoming Junior, and we do hope and trust that they shall endeavor to keep the standards and honor as Juniors of LaGrange College.
Bank of LaGrange
1883-1922
We are proud of our 40 years of service, and are today WILLING, READY and ABLE to finance anything in line with sound and prudent banking.
Will be very glad to discuss with you your business problems.

R. L. RENDER, President
HOWARD P. PARK, Vice President
L. D. MITCHELL, Vice President
P. L. HAMMETT, Asst. Cashier
EULAH M. RENDER, Asst. Cashier

JOKES
Because a girl stands in front of her mirror a great deal is not necessarily an indication that she reflects a great deal.

It doesn't do to work too hard, So soon we hear the final call; When I stop to meditate, It doesn't do to work at all.

Myrtle Cline—(in chemistry lab. reads.) “Experiment 130—Recall or Perform Borax Bead Test. “I believe I'll recall it.”

“What have you been doing, Mary?”
“Nothing.”
“What have you been doing Margaret?”
“Visiting Mary.”

Leila—“Do you know what course Jennie Lu is planning to take at Emory this summer?”
Mabel Cline—“Yes, she's planning to take a campus course leading to no Mrs. degree.”

Mary Lane (in Biology)—“Miss Daugherty, do idiots have wisdom teeth?”
Miss Daugherty—“You should know that better than any one else, Miss Lane.”

Miss Boozer—(in Freshman English)—“Elizabeth, who was George Cable?”
Elizabeth—“After a moment’s thought)—“Oh, he was the man who invented the Cable Piano.”

Velma (eying a passing male)—“Notice that man’s gait, Sarah.”
Sarah—“Huh, that isn’t his gait, that’s his swing.”

He—(at open house) “Who was that who passed us there?”
She—“Why, that’s Miss Saxon, the Infirmarian.”
He—“In-fur-marrying? Can’t she get anybody to have her?”

Mrs. Youngblood—“Varina, I saw a beautiful piece of organzle at LaGrange Grocery Co. Come up to my room and I’ll show you a sample.”

Miss Saxon—“Do you know why Miss Daugherty is the jolliest teacher in college?”
Lois—“No, why?”
Miss Saxon—“Because she’s from Merryland.

Some Girl
She looks
Kinder cheezy;
She dresses
Kinder frezy;
She smiles
Kinder brezzy;
She walks
Kinder neatzy;
She talks
Kinder wheezy;
She paints
Kinder grezzy;
She kisses
Kinder easy.

Student—“When I get scared my mind becomes a perfect blank.”
Professor—“How badly you must be frightened.”

FRESHMEN VICTORIOUS OVER SOPHOMORES
On the night of Friday, May 5th, the freshmen met the sophomores in a most interesting debate. The subject being, Resolved, That the British government is more democratic than that of the United States.
The freshmen, who represented the affirmative side, chose for their speakers Miss Annie de Jamette, Miss Alice Turner, and Miss Gladys Spruell as captain. The negative speakers were Miss Lillian Clark, Miss Margaret Smith and Miss Varina Dunbar as captain.
There were well written speeches on both sides, and the delivery was very good.
The debaters, in their pretty spring frocks, appealed to the eyes as well as to the ears of the audience.

Naturally as this is written from a freshman point of view, we consider our girls the star debaters of the evening. The judges, Mr. L. B. Wyatt, Dr. Rembert Smith and Mr. Sullivan, evidently formed the same decision, for they awarded the beautiful ten cent zinc cup to the freshmen. Decorating it in pink and green, we joyfully bore it to the college parlors.

There was much enthusiasm on both sides, but the freshmen almost tore the roof off with their yelling.

After the debate, the students enjoyed an evening of open-house.

TEEN TOURNAMENT
The tennis tournament between the different classes was held on Friday and Saturday, May 19th and 20th.
The college letters were awarded to those winning in singles and doubles.
Those girls winning the letters were: Misses Emily Park, Bonnie Hale, Grace Hale and Ethel Edwards.

PICTURE FRAMING
20 per cent. reduction on frames to order.
25 per cent. reduction on stretching canvas.
Don't be deceived with low prices—compare quality.

L. E. JENKINS
(At Harris’s Furniture Store)

DAVIS’ PHARMACY
Successors to
DOZIER’S PHARMACY
Phones 262 and 263
Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Annie Belle Hutchison, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hutchinson, of Senoia, and Mr. Henry E. Draper, of Lake Wales, Florida, which was solemnized on Tuesday, April the eighteenth, at five o'clock in the afternoon, at the Methodist church in Senoia, the Rev. Sanford B. Stout officiating.

The altar was a mass of Easter lilies, smilax and cathedral candles, above it rose an arch of smilax and lilies, beneath which the ceremony was performed. Just before the bridal party entered Mrs. Sanford B. Stout sang, "I Love You," accompanied by Mrs. Walter Baggarly, who also rendered the wedding march.

The little marchers, Misses Mary Freeman and Wilhelna Noland in frocks of white organdy and Jennie Hayden Williams and Connie Dean Stout in green organdy opened the floral gates at the foot of the aisles. The ushers were Messrs. J. R. Hutcheson, brother of the bride, and Harry Hardy, of Senoia; Roy Hutchinson, of Atlanta, and Roy Hardnett, of West Point. The groomsmen was Mr. Jack Aycock, of Carrollton.

Miss Mary Lee Hutchinson, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Mrs. J. Carmichael Greer, as matron of honor, were becoming frocks of white organdy with picture hats of the same bearing touches of pink. They carried arm bouquets of sweetheart roses. The flower girl, little Miss Ruth Curtis, was of green organdy, scattered rose petals from her dainty basket; while little Miss Ruth Robeson in a fluffy frock of white organdy, carried the ring in the heart of a lily which was tied with pink.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white satin crepe, Spanish lace and hand-made roses made on train, while her veil of illusion was caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley. The groom was attended by Alex Arnette, of Deland, Florida, as best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Draper left for an extended trip to Jacksonville, St. Petersburg and other points in Florida. After May the first they will be at home at Lake Wales, Florida.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were several L. C. alumnae: Miss Sara Render, of Greenville; Miss Essie Halcumbe, of Atlanta; Mrs. Jack Aycock, formerly Miss Emma Lee Kyle, of Carrollton; and Mrs. Edward J. Robeson, Jr., and little daughter, Ruth Curtis, of Newport News, Virginia.

Draper-Hutchinson

ALUMNAE DAY MAY 27, 1922

The LaGrange chapter of the Alumnae is planning for a full day of entertainment for the visiting Alumnae.

The business meeting will begin at eleven o'clock Saturday morning. At this time the general business of the Alumnae will be transacted, and a report made from each local chapter. Three local chapters will tell of the meetings held, its membership, dues collected, subscriptions taken for the Scroll, and the personal work done for the College.

A report of each class will be given by one of its members. These reports will be very interesting and inspiring, for our students are serving in almost every capacity of life.

At one o'clock a picnic luncheon will be served on the campus. We hope that all the space between the Smith building and auditorium will be crowded with visiting Alumnae.

At two o'clock, each local chapter will put on a stunt which we know will be full of life and fun, a fitting close for a happy day.

STELLA BRADFIELD

LAGRANGE GROCERY CO.

WHOLESALE

GROCERIES, CIGARS AND TOBACCO

A SURPRISE SHOWER FOR MISS BODMAN

The faculty of LaGrange college united in giving Miss Margaret Bodman a most lovely surprise shower on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 22d, in the college parlor. Many useful gifts were received by the bride-elect, and the affair was a most pleasant one.

Hal Thompson presented the gifts, contained in a large white beribboned box. The shower consisted of kitchen articles, and the collection was as ample as it was useful.

Miss Pauline Boozer read a short romantic sketch, Miss Berkley playing the accompaniment. Later on in the afternoon cake and cream were served.

Miss Bodman is one of the most popular members of the LaGrange College faculty, and the recent announcement of her approaching marriage to Mr. George Forrester, of this city, was of great interest to both students and teachers.

MISS COTTON'S ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The thought of graduation seemed not to be exciting enough for one of our seniors, so she is to add to her joy by being married only a few weeks after commencement. This senior is Miss Leila Cotton, who is to be married to Rev. Eugene Rutland on June the twentieth.

Miss Cotton is a very popular member of the student body, and all the students and faculty extend to her their heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Misses Emmie Batson and Annie Lula Nelson were the week-end guests of Miss Batson's parents in West Point.
SENIOR RECITAL IS INTERESTING FEATURE OF COMMENCEMENT

The recital of the music and expression diploma students, which is to be given Saturday night of commencement, is being looked forward to with eager expectation by the students and faculty.

We are proud of our senior specials, and indeed we have a right to be.

Misses Alice Sutton and Laura Frances Johnson, both expression seniors, will give readings. Miss Sutton, Miss Mary Leggitt and Miss Jerradine Brinson will all give vocal numbers. Miss Brinson, who is also a senior in piano, as well as voice, will give a piano and organ solo.

PERSONALS

There has been great excitement on the hill over the announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Bodman to Mr. George Forrester, of this city. Miss Bodman is one of the most popular members of our faculty, and will be greatly missed by both faculty and student body. We heartily congratulate Mr. Forrester and wish for them great happiness.

Miss Leila Cotton spent the weekend with her parents in Whitesville.

Miss Emily Cotton spent the weekend at the college, as the guest of her cousin, Miss Ruth Cotton.

Misses Annie and Jessie de Jarrette, spent Saturday and Sunday in Carrollton.

Misses Amanda Glenn, Inez McKeen, and Mabel White, spent the weekend in Chipley at Miss Glenn's home.

Mrs. Culpepper, of Greenville, a former L. C. student, spent Monday at the college with Mrs. Pettis.

Mr. W. L. Folds and Miss Mildred Folds, of Carrollton, spent Sunday in LaGrange with Miss Velma Folds.

Miss Georgia Haley, a former L. C. student, and now professor of history at Young Harris college, spent several days at the college last week.

Miss Elizabeth Butler was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Dunell, of Franklin.

Miss Susie Ogletree spent the weekend at her home in Durand.

Miss Jennie Lu Lumpkin spent the weekend with her parents in Franklin.

CLASS ENTERTAINED

Miss Stella Bradfield entertained at a beautiful party on Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Hill street, complimenting the members of the Senior class at LaGrange College.

The rooms where the guests were received were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and Dorothy Perkins roses.

An interesting contest afforded much enjoyment, after which a most tempting salad course was served.

The young ladies enjoying Miss Bradfield's hospitality were Misses Beva McMillin, Miss Mabel White, Misses Lula Nelson, Miss Mary Leggett, Miss Jerradine Brinson, Miss Ethel Pike, Miss Alice Sutton, Miss Mabel White, and Misses Betty, Mabel and Beulah LeGrand.

The doors were open wide and all were welcomed by the cheery greetings of the hostess and her charming guests.

During the evening, the room was filled with music, and the guests were entertained by a piano and organ solo by Misses Anna, Jessie and Miss Jerradine Brinson.

ART AND DOMESTIC ART EXHIBITS

Just one peep into the art or domestic art rooms—and my, what beauties we behold!

In the art room there is a regular ocean of Reliefs and dresses that would do for a queen. And to think that all these lovely, dainty frocks were made by the nimble fingers of L. C. lasses. Too much credit cannot be given to Miss Bason and her crew of domestic art girls for their beautiful and efficient work.

In the art room one is perfectly astounded by the exquisite beauties which are there. The walls are full of the most beautiful paintings imaginable, and the tables are heavy with gorgeous sets of hand-painted china. The beauty of it all cannot be described. All one can do is, stand and look with her mouth open and send forth exclamations of "ahs" and "ohs!"

Miss Black and her pupils have done excellent work. We feel sure that if Rembrandt and Carot were living they would surely find some close rivals.

PERSONALS

Misses Ada and Ethel Pike entertained for the seniors at their home on Park Ave. Thursday, from seven till eight. Miss Dillard will entertain her Modern Drama class at Miss Mattie Mcgee's home on Park Ave.

Friday evening the Quill Drivers' banquet will take place in the Domestic Science dining room.

On Thursday afternoon, the sophomores will entertain for the seniors in the college parlors.

All of these events are being looked forward to with a great deal of interest and pleasure.
NEW ORGANIZATIONS ON THE HILL

The hightop has been the scene of much organizing during the past month, two new clubs being sprung into life practically overnight. The Forum Club has selected for its members the best debaters the college affords, while the star athletes of the hill comprise the Juster Club.
These new organizations are worthy of their arising, and, from present tendencies, seem to be not only arising, but rising.

Belonging to the Forum Club are Misses Elizabeth Clark, Mabel White,
Lelia Colson, Emily Park, Lois
Brand, Lillian Clark, Annie Dunbar,
Margaret Smith, Alice Turner, and Annie de Jarnette. These young ladies are able debaters, and have already given two most instructive debates. The first of these, representing the junior and senior classes, was given the night of May 5. A large audience attended, and the speeches on the subject, "Resolved, That the United States Should Cancel Their European War Debt," were listened to with great interest.

A delicious four-course dinner was doubled in the dining room immediately preceding the affair, the Forum Club being the honor guests of the evening. After the awarding of the Fuller E. Callaway senior loving cup to the juniors, the audience was invited to the college parlors to meet the debaters.

On the night of May 12, the freshman class met the sophomore class on the question, "Resolved, That the British Government is More Demoocratic Than the American Government.

Again the favors went to the lower classmen, the freshmen winning the handsome tin drinking cup, kindly donated by someone for the occasion.
Be it as it may, the freshmen have deeded their tin cup with the class colors of pink and green, and it now proudly occupies a place of honor beside the beautiful silver one won by the juniors.

When one comes in contact with a few "Juster Maidens" musicals, there arises no doubt of the fact that despite its youth, the Juster Club is the "strongest" organization on the hill. Each member has proven herself a super-athlete, and has won laurels, as well as letters, on the athletic field. The original members of the Juster Club were Misses

Gladys Spruell, Varina Dunbar, Jen-nee Lu Lumpkin, Sara Brown, Lucie Dahman, and Mrs. John H. Jones.
On the night of Saturday, May 6, Miss Orta Dornmeyer, who won the highest number of individual points on Field Day, was publicly initiated into the organization.

A tournament was held in the college gymnasium, and each member,
acting as a knight, brought his lady to the Justers' match. The scene was a very pretty one, each of the knights vieing with the other in the contest to crown his lady-fair among the May. "Sir" Dunbar, distinguing himself—or rather himself—by his knightly skill, proudly placed the wreath of daisies upon the head of Miss Mary Moore Johnson, and the two headed the Virginia crew.

The other ladies whose knights participated in the contest were Misses Mary Leggitt, Susie Ogletree, Sara Watkins, Jerradine Brinson, and Mrs. Pyron Connally.

At the conclusion of the tournament, the Justers served the spectators with delicious cones of ice cream accompanied by Aunt Sophronia with her guitar, Clearlily Easter with her mandolin, and Preserine May with her ukelele, and Preserine May with her
mandolin.

Snowball is to be a most entertaining negro girl who makes a joke out
of every word uttered, thereby keeping the student body in an uproar
during the entire program.

Here's to the Irenians,
The society that always entertains
With original and clever programs.

SENIORS GIVEN PICNIC

On Saturday evening, May the twentieth, the Freshmen, Juniors and Specials gave a picnic at Young's Mill in honor of the Seniors. The entire party went in trucks in regular picnic fashion, and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

IRENIAN SOCIETY

The new program committee of the Irenian Literary Society, made up of Misses B. A. Teasley, Sarah Wat-kines, and Mildred Cobb, have planned for next Saturday evening a most interesting program.

The program is to be an interptation of negro life down on the old plantation, giving scenes of the cabin and its household at night. The characters will be:

The negro mammy—Aunt Sophronia
—Miss Mary Moore Johnson.
Uncle Semerson—Miss Alice Sutton.

The Six Little Pickaninnies:
Clearlily Easter—Miss Jerry Brinson.
Preserine May—Miss Sarah Brown.
Snowball—Miss Mildred Cobb.
Hotta—Miss Lois Brand.
Noisy Rackett—Miss Geneva Clarke.
Josh—Miss Elizabeth Jones.

With the program there will be negro melodies sung by the cast and accompanied by Aunt Sophronia with
her guitar, Clearlily Easter with her
ukelele, and Preserine May with her
mandolin.

Snowball is to be a most entertaining negro girl who makes a joke out
of every word uttered, thereby keeping the student body in an uproar
during the entire program.

Here's to the Irenians,
The society that always entertains
With original and clever programs.

Emory Park, M.D.
LaGrange, Georgia

Miss Maldee—"Now, who was sorry that the prodigal son had returned?"

Foy Beck—"The fatted calf."
THE LOST DEED

“I’ve learned my lesson,” said one of our depositors. “You people have been urging me to get a Safe Deposit Box for some time, but I never did. Recently I had occasion to look for a deed to some small property. I couldn’t find it. “By the time I got the new deed I had spent the equivalent of five years Safe Deposit Rental.

The LaGrange Banking & Trust Company
MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
Capital, Surplus and Profits - $1,000,000.00

TO THE SENIORS

We wonder if you can know, Seniors, how much we all love you? You’ve been good sports, seniors, Always loyal, kind and true, We hope in the years to come, seniors, That you will dream of old L. C., For we will think of you, seniors, And pleasant thoughts they will be.

The college will never lose seniors More high minded than you, You have never shirked your duty Nor changed the old for the new. The old college walls will resound, seniors, With your voices though you go, For your memory will remain, seniors, Our love you can never know.

She Asked Him

“Can you tell me John,” asked the fair young teacher, “when shingles wore first used?”

“You’re,” answered modest Johnny, “but I’d rather not, ma’am.”

Gladys Spruell—“I had to walk home from an automobile trip. How can I avoid this?”

Geneva Clarke—“Bring a bicycle with you next time.”

Some Good Advice

Emmie Batson—“What kind of husband would you advise me to look out for?”

Annie de Narcette—“You let husbands alone, my dear—it’s asking for trouble—you get a single man.”

Dr. G. W. Eason
DENTIST
LaGrange, Georgia

H. A. NOONER
JEWELER
East Side Court Square

SEVENTY - SEVENTH COMMENCEMENT

LaGrange College is closing one of the most successful years in the history of the institution, and the coming commencement marks the seventy-seventh milestone in the history of the college, at which an interesting program will be rendered.

Alumnae Day will be observed Saturday, May 27th, when all former graduates are expected to meet at a grand reunion.

At 6 o’clock the students graduating from the expression, voice and piano classes will give a recital.

Sunday morning at eleven o’clock, Bishop Ainsworth will preach the commencement sermon. At 5:30 p.m., the Y. W. C. A. will hold regular vesper services.

Monday at 11 a.m., class day exercises will take place, at which time a most interesting program will be carried out.

Monday evening at 8 o’clock, graduating exercises will be held. Dr. S. R. Belk will deliver the baccalaureate address, after which diplomas and certificates will be presented to the deserving young women.

VISITORS! VISITORS!

“Who is that girl, pray tell me? What is she doing here? Is she going to stay? That’s great!”

These are some of the numerous questions that the girls, who have been here only one year, ask of the former students who are visiting the college during commencement. One could tell these new-comers were former students when they mounted the front steps, because old friends came bounding down the steps to greet them. It really seems like the opening of school again with old friends greeting old friends and meeting new students. Still more friendships will be reunited as the commencement program comes to a close.

We, as present students of the college, are endeavoring to make the alumnae experience again their former school days.

Milam Drug Co.
The firm that appreciates your patronage