STUDENT BODY GIVEN ONE CHAPEL SERVICE

It is interesting to note the new experiment being tried out at Emory.

In response to a petition of the students, the Board of Trustees of Emory University has set aside one chapel period every week for the hearing of student affairs. This term, the meetings will be held on Wednesday, and next term will be held on Thursday.

Attendance at these meetings is not compulsory; but it is highly desirable that every member of the student body be present, since all matters pertaining to the students are taken up at these meetings.

With the exception of the denunciation which is led by Dr. Dupre Rhome, director of religious activities, the meetings are conducted entirely by the students, H. G. Harmon, president of the student body, being the presiding officer. — The Student.

Y. W. C. A. CORNER

A revival began at the First Methodist church, Sunday, Mar. 7th, and will continue through March 17th. Miss Evelyn Bowman, of Eatonton, la lender of the Methodist church, Sunday, March 7th, and will continue through March 17th. Miss Evelyn Bowman.

It is planned for Mrs. Alonzo Wheeler, Octavia, and Misses Fay Fagan and Lurline Liverman are interested to know that the Y. W. C. A. services Sunday, March 7th, and will continue through March.

President—Myrtle Cannon V.-Pres.—Frances Woodside Secretary—Muriel Woodside Treasurer.—Elizabeth Hodges Reporter—Margaret Trundle Athletics Supervisor—Miss Willie Davis. The Y. W. C. A. will consist of Miss Mildred McWhorter, Miss Wilma Hunter, after which a motion was made and carried for adjournment.

SMOKE QUESTION

How extensive is the feminine smoking habit in women's colleges? Is the action at Bryn Mawr a milestone in the history of the Y. W. C. A.? No one knows definitely, according to a recent President Mawr, in Scholastic mooting rules many deans and presidents have made statements. These statements may not always be absolutely accurate, but "nice girls" do not smoke—"not many." All other midwes-tem co-educational schools declare that the smoking problem goes on in dormitories and be-fore eligible for membership in the society. First, the appren-ticeship as has the action at Bryn Mawr, exclaimed W. A. Brandenburg, President of Kansas State Teachers College. At Northwestern University there is no rule against smoking at all. There is an action in dormitories and the students have to obey it.

At Ohio State University a poll of co-eds disclosed the fact that one-third have smoked—but "not many." All other midwes-tem co-educational schools de-clare that the smoking problem goes on in dormitories and be-fore eligible for membership in the society.

"Stop Thief." Did he? But it would not be offered in the curricu-lum of one who wishes to be entire-ly uneducated. The third chapter which is the last and called the guild, is comprised of those students hav-ing completed and maintained an average of 90 in three (3) dif-frent branches of science.

There are 10 charter members of the society: Miss Myrtle Cannon, Frances Woodside, Elizabeth Hodges, Margaret Trundle, Elizabeth Williams, Isabel Davis, Mary Harris, Mary Sands, Virginia Moody.

BENJAMIN PROGRAM

On Saturday evening, March 6th, the Benjamin Literary Society gave an O. Henry program at the business meeting.

"Birthplace and Early Years of O. Henry," by James S. W. Strong, was the first part of the program. "The Romance of a Busy Brother," by Elizabeth Chatham Pickett, was the second part of the program, and "Ranch and City Life in Texas," by Ruth Seagraves, was the third part of the program.

The Student—"The Sisters of the Golden Circle"—Outida Durham.

MEZZOFANTASTIC LITERARY SOCIETY

The Mezzofantastic Literary Society held its last meeting on Sunday evening, March 7th. The program was given featuring the birthday of George Washington.

"Americans"—Student Body

"Interesting Events In The Life of George Washington"—La-ti Casselis.

"Euphorchomanic Speech"—Childlike Clare Thorne.

"Washington—"Sousbois"—Wilma Hunter.

Reading—"Jonah and the Whale"—Elizabeth Wilson.

Upon the conclusion of the program the President appointed a new Executive Committee consisting of Misses Mildred McWhorter, Miss Wilma Hunter, after which a motion was made and carried for adjournment.

SMOKE QUESTION

How extensive is the feminine smoking habit in women's colleges? Is the action at Bryn Mawr a milestone in the history of the Y. W. C. A.? No one knows definitely, according to a recent President Mawr, in Scholastic mooting rules many deans and presidents have made statements. These statements may not always be absolutely accurate, but "nice girls" do not smoke—"not many." All other midwes-tem co-educational schools declare that the smoking problem goes on in dormitories and be-fore eligible for membership in the society. First, the appren-ticeship as has the action at Bryn Mawr, exclaimed W. A. Brandenburg, President of Kansas State Teachers College. At Northwestern University there is no rule against smoking at all. There is an action in dormitories and the students have to obey it.

At Ohio State University a poll of co-eds disclosed the fact that one-third have smoked—but "not many." All other midwes-tem co-educational schools de-clare that the smoking problem goes on in dormitories and be-fore eligible for membership in the society.

"Stop Thief." Did he? But it would not be offered in the curricu-lum of one who wishes to be entire-ly uneducated. The third chapter which is the last and called the guild, is comprised of those students hav-ing completed and maintained an average of 90 in three (3) dif-frent branches of science.

There are 10 charter members of the society: Miss Myrtle Cannon, Frances Woodside, Elizabeth Hodges, Margaret Trundle, Elizabeth Williams, Isabel Davis, Mary Harris, Mary Sands, Virginia Moody.

BENJAMIN PROGRAM

On Saturday evening, March 6th, the Benjamin Literary Society gave an O. Henry program at the business meeting.

"Birthplace and Early Years of O. Henry," by James S. W. Strong, was the first part of the program. "The Romance of a Busy Brother," by Elizabeth Chatham Pickett, was the second part of the program, and "Ranch and City Life in Texas," by Ruth Seagraves, was the third part of the program.

The Student—"The Sisters of the Golden Circle"—Outida Durham.
Spring Fashions for the Feminine World

Callaway's EASTER READY-TO-WEAR

Coats, Dresses, Hats

Showing the Newest First

A NATIONAL-WIDE INSTITUTION

J. Penney Co.
DEPARTMENT STORES
131 Main Street, LaGrange, Ga.

Spring"
EXCHANGES
The receipt of the following exchanges is gratefully acknowledged:
The Emory Wheel
The Tige
The Hone
The Mercur Cluster
The Malef
The Hiltonian
The San Dial
The Eschat Echoes
The University Echo
The The Oaks
The Fine Branch
The Watchtower
What They Say:
The nurses inspired Emory students with a song in rhyme on the ironies of fate.
I take my girl to the soda fount.
And her pocket does not contain.
Catherine: "What time is it?"
Adelaide: "Quarter after four, but it ain’t right."
Polly: "I’m going to marry for the first time."
Billy: "I am too, the first time."
Daryl: "What shall I do with this old umbrella?"
Mary: "Give it to the Near East Relief."
Daryl: "And these old books and magazines."
Mary: "With Salvation Army."
Daryl: "And shall I throw my pencil points away?"
Mary: "No, give ‘em to the Postoffice."

Popularly: "A good chief gets more than a college professor."
"Why shouldn’t he? A lot more people take his courses."

"Over There"
New York Paper: "What is true of Europe today, that is wonderfully fascinating?"
"One meets much more Americans."

Fashionsable Bow-Wows: "The social season is almost over, the only one that came from Germany to America. There’s the hot-dog."

Mr. Kamper: "Guess my girl in college has changed her mind about basketball. She is evidently going in for something more useful."
"How so?"
"Now she writes that she has made the scrub team."

Purchaser: "What is the charge for this battery?"
Garman: "One and one half volts."

Purchaser: "Well, how much is that in American money?"

The Approach is Everything: "I thought about earning this money this afternoon."
"Yes, you can."
"Splendid! Then you won’t be wanting year tennis rackets, of course."

Miss Ryd: "What can you tell me about nitrates?"
"You might think that we’re a lot cheaper than day rate, Rus."
"I paid my fourth visit today to the beauty shop today."
But: "Strange you can’t seem to get waited on, dear."

Matto: "Where has Trudy gone?"
Father: "Well, if the ice is as strong as she thinks it is she has gone swimming."

Visitor at L. C: "I should think the hedges are not the only things happening everywhere.

Students: "Oh! It’s a pretty lively place—why, not two weeks ago we had an eclipse of the sun."

Nancy: "Do you play golf?"
"My dear, no! I don’t even know how to hold the caddy."

Mr. Bailey: "Can you prove to me that out of 100 boys, 50 will have the will-power to deprive ourselves of some of the vices?"
"Jack: "I don’t have to prove anything."

One Sunday afternoon a student had returned from church, her roommate inquired: "Was the sermon good?"
"Yes," she answered.
"What was it about?"
"The Gospel of John."
"What did the minister say?"
"He was against it."

Buckhorn embroidered Guide (at ancient castle): "This is the most. Are there any questions you would like to ask?"
American: "Yes. How in the book could a fellow get one of those in his eye?"

Keeping Tabs: "Visitor: "What is it?’"
"Liza: "I don’t intend to be thirty until I am married."

E. B: "Aren’t you nearly twenty?"

F. L: "I wish you wouldn’t do that. It was for the last thing that I’ll be ready for in a minute."

The Hornet always has new jokes. This one is good."
"I’m afraid there’s no hope."

Patient (warily): "I ain’t going to take that medicine of yours."
Wife: "Hush, dearie, the doctor knows best."

From the Hiltonian on being an editor:
Getting Out a Paper: "If we print jokes, people say we are silly, if we don’t they say we are too serious."

If we publish original matter they say we lack variety.
If we don’t publish contributions, they say we lack originality and precipitation.
If we don’t use them the paper is filled with junk.

Like as not some fellow will say we want another paper.
That just is what we did.

Hillmon: "What is patriotism?"
I: "That which is true and permanent."

Patriotism according to Kirby Paget: "What is patriotism? The answer is two-fold: love of the people that live within one’s country: and devotion to the ideals on which the nation rests."

I: "It is hard to say, is it, therefore, the one who loves his fellow countrymen is more truly and is most devoted to his country’s ideals. Patriotism is not a matter of the machinations of the brain, but the heart."

We Help Ourselves in Helping Others
The self-denial of luxuries that we have been engaged in for the last couple of weeks has been of no small help. These are things that we are apt to do without at other times. We have shown us that we not only can give willingly to students less fortunate, but we also can give the wealthier to deprive ourselves of some of the vices.

Miss Frances Andrews, of Rev. and Mrs. John L. Hall, of East First Ave., Rome, Ga., an alumna of Emory of the class of 1897, is member of the Alumni Board of Directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Gard, Jr., of Egg Harbor, N. J., are the owners of the largest estate in the United States, have their spring home in just two more weeks. In the class room the teacher states that the students have gained on the entire course two weeks from today, only to be gently reminded that they will be in session at that time. Worn out, they will slip into bed and are greatly helled to sleep by the love sick mattrasses."

"Just a little over a week Bill, and I hope we both will have a week an’ spring holidays!"

THOSE WORKING SENIORS
Some sainted person has said that "an honest confession is as good a friend as a good woman." Many of our working seniors certainly have the habit of confessing, in all their numerous troubles. Some under-classmen, looking upon the haggardness as almost? Stanley, too, attributed it to that little learning she has so diligently driven to acquire.

O, blessed Spring Holidays! It’s a beautiful time for hearts and broken spirits!"

Kat’s mother says that she will be the first to tip on hearing a loud shout. This is known to all who are "Over-work." "Then get away!" I’m so tired of reading newspapers."

Something to that, eh? What?"
"Come on, the Seniors say, "Go tell them, our Sophomores, get a move on you. I’m going to meet you like a man, and perhaps die a martyr. At least I am found trying."

ALUMNAE NOTES
Rev. and Mrs. John L. Hall, of Stone Mountain, Ga., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shornick March 5th and 6th, while visiting their daughter, Mamie, who is in school here. Mrs. Hall, former- ly Montana M. Winter, was a student at Emory."

Mrs. Frances Andrews, of First East Ave., Rome, Ga., an alumna of the class of 1897, is member of the Alumni Board of Directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Gard, Jr., of Egg Harbor, N. J., are the owners of the largest estate in the United States, have their spring home in just two more weeks. In the class room the teacher states that the students have gained on the entire course two weeks from today, only to be gently reminded that they will be in session at that time. Worn out, they will slip into bed and are greatly helled to sleep by the love sick mattrasses.

"Just a little over a week Bill, and I hope we both will have a week an’ spring holidays!"

March. 1926
Thursday, February 25
1:30 P. M.—For Executives of the Conference, at the Brenau Parlor.
4:00 P. M.—Address of Welcome by Dr. H. J. Peace, President of Furman University, Mayor W. G. Meador, of the City of Gainesville; and Miss Mary Bryant, President of Brenau International Clubs.

Responses in Addresses of Welcome, by Judson College and Duke University.
5:00 P. M.—Informal reception at Brown's Hotel.
8:00 P. M.—Inter collegiate debate between Furman University and the University of Alabama, in the Library of the Conference.

Friday, February 26
10:00 A. M.—Address: Soviet Russia from a Moscow Dungeon, by Captain Emmett Kilpatrick, U. S. Army, 1897-1919; Polish Army Against Russia, 1919-20; with Gen. Wrangels's White Russian Army against Soviets, 1920-21. Presented by the Southern State Legislature since 1921; Doctor of Philosophy University of Sweden. Professor of Modern Europe, LaGrange University, South Carolina.

11:00—Business session.
11:30—1:30—Round table conference on Citizens of the League of Nations, Leaders, Mr. C. B. Gonsell of Princeton University, Mr. N. T. McCall of Lander College, President of the University of Alabama.

Locaroe Peace Pact, Leader, Dr. H. T. McLean of Emory University.

8:00 P. M.—Address, Near Eastern Colleges. Presented by Mr. Fred B. St. Clair, American Director of Near Eastern Colleges.

Saturday, February 27
10:00 A. M.—Address, The Modernization of Turkey, by Albert S. Smith, President of the University of Alabama.

11:30 A. M.—Round Table Conference on Citizens of the League of Nations, Directors, Mr. N. T. McCall, Lander College, President of the University of Alabama.

2:30 P. M.—Business Session. Secretary, Miss Elaine Oliver, Chairman; George L. Findley, Professor, Edgar H. Henderson, Professor of History.

LA GRANGE COLLEGE
FORUM OF DEMOCRACY
The LaGrange delegates at the third annual meeting of the Southern students' Conference on International Relations, held February 23-25, at Brenau, were Rachel Beard and Mary Frances Wiggins. The conclusion of the conference offered many attractions to the interested delegates from the Southern colleges.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25
1:30 P. M.—Address for Executives of the Conference, at the Brenau Parlor.
4:00 P. M.—Address of Welcome by Dr. H. J. Peace, President of Furman University, Mayor W. G. Meador, of the City of Gainesville; and Miss Mary Bryant, President of Brenau International Clubs.

Responses in Addresses of Welcome, by Judson College and Duke University.
5:00 P. M.—Informal reception at Brown's Hotel.
8:00 P. M.—Inter collegiate debate between Furman University and the University of Alabama, in the Library of the Conference.

Friday, February 26
10:00 A. M.—Address: Soviet Russia from a Moscow Dungeon, by Captain Emmett Kilpatrick, U. S. Army, 1897-1919; Polish Army Against Russia, 1919-20; with Gen. Wrangels's White Russian Army against Soviets, 1920-21. Presented by the Southern State Legislature since 1921; Doctor of Philosophy University of Sweden. Professor of Modern Europe, LaGrange University, South Carolina.

11:00—Business session.
11:30—1:30—Round table conference on Citizens of the League of Nations, Leaders, Mr. C. B. Gonsell of Princeton University, Mr. N. T. McCall of Lander College, President of the University of Alabama.

Locaroe Peace Pact, Leader, Dr. H. T. McLean of Emory University.

8:00 P. M.—Address, Near Eastern Colleges. Presented by Mr. Fred B. St. Clair, American Director of Near Eastern Colleges.

Saturday, February 27
10:00 A. M.—Address, The Modernization of Turkey, by Albert S. Smith, President of the University of Alabama.

11:30 A. M.—Round Table Conference on Citizens of the League of Nations, Directors, Mr. N. T. McCall, Lander College, President of the University of Alabama.

2:30 P. M.—Business Session. Secretary, Miss Elaine Oliver, Chairman; George L. Findley, Professor, Edgar H. Henderson, Professor of History.