Cats, Cats, Cats, Why not? Cats can be your answer to the problem of loneliness. A cat can be a companion, a friend, and a source of comfort. They are easy to care for and can provide endless hours of entertainment.

The Y. W. C. A. experienced unusually inspirational services during the week of January 30th. Miss Elizabeth A. Halsey, former pastor of the First Methodist church, gave a series of lectures on the Holy Spirit, including such topics as “Thoughts of The Holy Spirit Revealed in the New Testament Times,” “The Holy Spirit and Jesus Christ,” and “The Individual’s Recognition of The Holy Spirit” which proved of both a theoretical and practical value.

Dr. Jack Visit LaGrange Jan. 25

Dr. Theodore H. Jack, dean of the Graduate School and Professor of History at Emory University, was a white paper to speak at the Emory Alumni banquet at which Dr. Jack made the address of the occasion of this Saint.

It was a beautiful moonlight evening; just such as to make us feel hopeful.

AMONG MY SOUVENIRS

I’ve heard “Among my Souvenir’s” played and sung about and I do be the fact that I would count them all myself. They’re down way down my street. The next time I find my treasure volumes. I’ve enjoyed them a lot—long and now, the stack was a big one.

I was a big ones and little ones, red ones and while ones, a He thought, but if you were to look at them, plain, fancy, comic, in fact all kinds.

The next one had it on the picture of a little boy fishing and written below was, “I’m fishing for your heart.” On the back were the initials “A. C.” Who in this world loses red, violet, sugar is sweet, and so are you.” My! But the thrill that one didn’t.

Of course, I can’t mention them all and wouldn’t if I could, but I think of how many times my mind wanders to Valentine’s Day and it is still made happy when I find a note away among my souvenirs.”

SOCIETAS MINERVAE

The Societas Minervae held its regular meeting in the history room on Tuesday afternoon, January 2, at 4:30 o’clock. The City of Icems, a pageant, directed by Wilmer Gossard and Gertrude Wilcox was presented and discussed.

The Most Important Customer in Our Store

There’s an old story about a tiny vendor of plum tarts. He worked in a small corner of the city, barely making a living. One day, a successful businessman visited the city. The vendor offered him a tart, but the businessman politely declined. The vendor proceeded to wrap the tart in a fine piece of paper, tie it with a ribbon, and present it to the businessman. The businessman accepted it and said, “Thank you. I will eat it later.”

Some time after, the businessman was back at the vendor’s stand. He said, “I want to express my thanks to you. I learned from you the importance of presentation.”

The story highlights the value of good presentation, even in small things like a plum tart. It teaches us that we should always strive to present our work, ideas, and personal interactions in the best possible way.

Alumnae Notes

Miss Sara Swanson, a member of last year's graduating class, spent the week-end on the Hill. Miss Jewel Dunn of the class of 26 also paid us a visit last Sunday.

We are all sorry to hear that Miss Clara Arwood, also a member of last year's class, has been forced to give up her place as a teacher on account of a nervous breakdown. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Corrine Martin has given up her position, and will be at home in Woodbury for the rest of the year.

Miss Mary Alex Carmichael recently married Mr. Money, an instructor at Riverside Institute, and a former student of the University of Georgia.
