The Baxter L. Schieb Post of the American Legion presented the flag and flag staff to the student body at an impressive ceremony on the front campus Friday morning, September 11. The flag was presented to the college during the week when the Legion and LaGrange for the state convention, and the Lagarange faculty were taken to present it to the students.

The students and alumni present presented "Lest We Forget", after which they were led in prayer by C. M. Goer, President W. E. Neeb, and Major M. C. Holzer, Past Commander. The flag was then accepted by Miss Dixie Gestey, Dulph, president of the Student Cabinet.

At the end of the speech of appreciation, there was a one-minute flourish of drums, the bugler then played "The College," which was echoed by a second bugler on the auditorium steps, as the flag was raised to full staff. A final flourish of drums sounded and the program closed with the singing of "America."

Y Recognition Service

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20, the student body was held in great interest, as the freshmen and sophomores began to register. Miss Katherine Glanton, Miss Katherine Glanston, Miss Katharine Glanston, and Miss Kathleen Glanston, who had just arrived from the senior college, were the first to sign the pledge. The remaining girls were greeted with "Can-ba-wah," and every girl on the hill was filled with joy at the thought of the new students.

The New Girls

LaGrange wishes to give special recognition to the new members of the sorority, Miss Elizabeth Wilkins, of the music department, Miss Diana Reid, professor of Romance and Languages, and Miss Virginia Fields, of the visual arts. The membership of these outstanding women in the college community is a source of great pride for all of us.

Lagrangian College opens

The First Methodist Church of LaGrange entertained the college students and faculty on the church lawn Wednesday evening, September 23, at a delightful reception.

The evening was planned by Miss Paul Smith, Mrs. E. C. Kay, and T. G. Polhill, who were hostesses for the evening. In the reversion lines were Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Twigg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woodard, Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Mrs. R. C. Kay, Mrs. Hal Childs, Mr. E. K. Farmer, and Dean E. A. Bailey.

Feltch served during the evening two beers laced with flavors by Miss Margaret Dallis, Miss Katherine Glanston, Miss Kay Kington, and Miss Mary Twigg. Popular music was played during the evening by Miss Mary Head and a large number of church members and patients which were called during the reception hour.

Y" Honors New The New Girls With Reception

On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 19, the new girls were entertained with a very cordial reception. The parlors and maisonets were invited into decorated with natural flowers. Realistic Japanese arrangements, which were created by Miss Margaret Dallis, were featured throughout the community. The new girls were welcomed with open arms and were made to feel at home. The reception was a great success, and the new girls were delighted to be a part of LaGrange College.

New Students 2022

On September 22, the college campus was abuzz with excitement as the new students arrived. The first to arrive were the new freshmen, who were greeted with open arms and a warm welcome. They were led to their dormitories and given a tour of the campus, where they were introduced to the various departments and facilities.

Student Body Signs Pledges

On this occasion, the entire student body pledged its hearty support and allegiance to the college ideals and regulations by signing pledges cards in the presence of the president of the student government and the student council.

The signing of the cards took place at the end of the day. The students gathered in groups of ten, and Miss Gentry gave a warm and informative talk to each group before the pledges were signed and sealed.

The students then returned to their dormitories, where they were expected to abide by the college rules and regulations. The new students were excited and eager to begin their college careers at LaGrange College.
VERSATILE VERSES

WELCOME, NEW GIRLS

Welcome, Sweetie, a merry word,
Why not say it more?
Seven beavers would not make this college appear more dignified,
and therefore, it represents you, as dear, to us.
Our aim of the staff is to make each reader, who is tin' aim of the staff to make each reader,
and therefore, it represents you, as dear, to us.

The Scroll is your college paper,
The fragments were slowly, tenderly, and forgotten. We're counting on you to come through with heads up and colors flying.

VERSICRAFT SPONSORS MISS BAILEY'S DEBUT AS POET

The July-August Issue of Versicraft, a poetry magazine, is under the direction of Dr. Whitcomb F. Milton, and in need of the company of the Scroll. Miss Nellie St. Bailey, a resident of LaGrange, is a member of The Scroll. The verses were written by Miss Bailey, and she was still in High School.

WELCOME, FRESHMEN!

WELCOME, FRESHMEN!

With a supreme effort once again I tabulate with my aged pen and set it scratching. My thoughts shall please to wander off on various channels, and I am wont to finger on recent happenings and the like. There is a task upon hand that will keep my thoughts light-footed. My thoughts will take their chance, and be without a care, to stop right in and help uphold the glorious traditions of your Alma Mater. I shall be humble enough to own to my own play, without which we must fall (as we do) upon the window above, question them, talk about them —

STORM STRENGTHENED.

There is a twilight, storm-tripped only against my imaginations. Too big for ears in the stormy sky.
The tempest torments us aching from it.
No cry of hate—no fear—though tenderly lead
Be bowed, and fair young branches maimed
Who philosophies, it falls upon
Gains strength by striving; and in its stripe
Give no compliment more than a sigh.
A blackened monument is, in joy
All the grace and glory—all the deep and deep strength
Hold in the hearts of twinkling, homely things.

Dear Profs., L. C. welcomes you. We sincerely hope that the growing annals which has led to this annual tribute to your art can be spared the pain of shattered dreams. As Miss Sally has said, 'Ye Old Beauty Shoppe.'

We want this college to all, and even more than you have expected. To very many of us, you have been a shining beacon of light, and we are glad of your continued support and promises to do all and everything that is possible in helping you to be oriented to college life You may, if you feel so moved, and you may feel the insurmountable barrier of homesickness but we are now ever and ever forgotten. We're counting on you to come through with heads up and colors flying.

What was the meaning of all the costume changes and general excitement? Who ever thought of the idea? The whole Freshman class worked with great interest and enthusiasm and the result was the most touching performance of the season. The students came from all parts of the country, and it was a joy to see them so happily united in the performance of the plays. The audience was thrilled by the excellent acting and the general effect was one of great pleasure and enjoyment.

The plays were performed in the college auditorium, and the audience was filled with expectation and anticipation. The students were dressed in costumes of all kinds, and the audience was thrilled by the enthusiasm and excitement of the performers. The plays were enjoyed by all, and the students were proud of the performance.
