LaGrange College, LaGrange, December, 1932.

NUMBER 2.

SORORITIES SEND BIDS

The mail on the last Monday in October has a peculiar significance to the moment when Sorority Bids go out. The Freshmen boxes are filled to the brim. Here is the last, the only bid, of them, talking in undertones, “Which one should I take?” “I think we ought to go in the major one.” The upper classes don’t succeed in and out each other’s’ rooms with woolen confessions on the floor. The Post Office is the most popular place of the day. The girls continually go in and out looking for replies in the “Euphonia.”

At last all the suspense is over as the going sounds six. The Sororities are happy to announce the following new members:

Alpha Kappa Theta: Sara White, Minnie J. Tucker, Mary Scott, Mary Tanner, Elizabeth Hendren, Inez Wilby, Virginia Franklin.

Alpha Phi Beta, T. A. Fowler, President: Inez Wilby, ElizabethHouston, Elizabeth Yarbrough, Evelyn Varnes.

Psi Sigma Theta, Rebecca Hart, Pres., Pledges: Margaret King, Francis Ward.

Mr. Rowe Speaks At Vesper

Mr. C. F. Rowe, superintendent of LaGrange Public Schools, spoke at Vesper’s Sunday night, November 11, just preceding Mr. Rowe’s talk, a vocal duet was rendered by Miss Ruth Campbell and Miss Elizabeth Finkle.

The subject which Mr. Rowe chose for his talk was illuminating the meaning of the word etiquette, he related the story told by Dr. W. H. Morgan of the garden of the old man went to the King and begged the flowers underfoot. At last, the king tended more carefully.

LaGrange College is very proud of her 9280 volumes. In order that the library may grow from year to year the week is set aside as book week, in which everyone who wishes to donate books, may do so. Book Week, which began November 14th, was quite successful. Many volumes were added to the library, monographs we find:

This Freedom—Huthinson
The Ethics of Jesus—F. W. Boram
Entrapulas of a Young Social Progress—Gardner
The Life of Christ—Rev. Wilson
The Blacksmith of Besseque Lane—A. L. A. O. E.

Deb’s Mobber’s
Poems of Robert Brownlow
The Laws of Friendship by Henry C. King.

Shackled Youth, Evelyn Varner.

Besides a number of novels, many text books were given.

LaGrange thanks to those who have contributed books to the library.

—oo—

Chapel Programs

Vary at L. C.

L. C. has a variety of interesting chapel programs during the month of November. They are always full of interest, entertaining and helpful talks by members of the faculty and visiting clergy, there have been health lectures given by physicians, interesting and helpful talks by members of the faculty and visiting clergy in the afternoon. They are always full of interest.

Amos Eno, the well known.instructor at Vassar, at the invitation of the committee which planned and directed the program, illustrated the meaning of the word etiquette.

The members of the glee club are: Mary Hammond, Katherine King, Emmeline Goulet, Edythe Springter, Frances Baker, Virginia Wooten, Mary Darby, Carole Finley, Gertrude, Linn, Marion Norman, Ruth Campbell, Jane Leverette, Elizabeth Tucker, Nan Bell, Sue Hutton, Mildred Johnston, Sara Lane, Eleanor Wallace, Helen Copeland, Rose Cole, Elizabeth Dixon, Rebecca Hart, Mollie Nell, Louise Pharr, Mildred Johnston, Miller, Inez Hill, Chadisa Twigg, Caroline Sue Traylor, Josephine Alford, Caroline Sue Traylor, Elizabeth Finley, Sue Hutcheson, Rebecca Hart, Louise Pharr, Virginia McMichael, Lucile Adams, Martha Jolley, Nell Burvert, accompanying, Mary Johnson.

—oo—

Sororities

Members of the visiting clergy, there have been health lectures given by physicians, interesting and helpful talks by members of the faculty and visiting clergy in the afternoon. They are always full of interest.

Whose Who

In the Who’s Who contest held November 19th, the following girls were chosen:

Most Representative—Mary Johnson.

Most Attractive—Mary Hammond.

Most Popular—Thelma Dunbar.

Outstanding in Athletics—Sara Lee Payne.

Most Representative Freshman—L. C. Elliot.

—oo—

L. C. Celebrates Thanksgiving

LaGrange College girls will celebrate Thanksgiving day with a formal dinner at six o’clock. For once there will be no lack of guest in the college dining hall half of the girls will be dressed no boys, and urging us to prepare ourselves to do the work which awaits us. Roy, Yarbrough, brought us a basket of parables of garden. When we cultivate a garden, he said, for the purpose of killing weeds, but so that we may value useful and beautiful plants, in cultivating habits, we should give our attention to useful and beautiful characteristics, and the faults will die as challenge to live up to these names.

Through the efforts of the American Legion, LaGrange Physicidians are giving a series of health talks in every school and college. These talks will be held in every school and college. These talks will be held in every school and college. These talks will be held in every school and college.

Being in the state of ignorance concerning the art of blushing—Mary Barlow.

Calling unappeased curiosity and successful noun—“intention”

VOL. XIV
LaGrange College, LaGrange, December, 1932.

“Y” BAZAAR IS HELD

The annual “Y” Bazaar was held on the campus of the university, Friday afternoon, December 2nd. The “Y” market was a table of Japanese novelties, among them were, paper weights, canisters, jewelry, jewel cases, and stationery. Above the table were a mat and some Japanese prints. Besides the “Y” three of the classes had booths. The Junior Class booth consisted of “Southtown Dick”, the Washington Bicentennial, with Sara Bond taking the part of George Washington, and Alice Lovern that of Martha Washington.

Miss Mary—Jesse Lovette; Beside a number of novels, many text books were given.

Gertrude Lynn was the chairman of the committee which planned and directed the program, illustrated the meaning of the word etiquette.

The Seniors Class was awarded first prize for their that Indian Shop, Mildred Johnson, the woman, cart, set cross-legged on a mat, peacefully “smoking” the hookah.

The Belgian for Little Riding Hood, Frances Fleeth) and her grandmother—the hero of the play, ladies and gentlemen.

The Sophomore booth, which would dance as boys, his slave, Thelma Harden and Mr. Smith to dance for him, Miss Rosa Bond, as maidservant, amongst a ridiculous looking character, Emerald Crandall, the bogey, approached all who entered with pleas for alms. Inez Hill was manager of the sophomore booth.

This is the third time in their four years at L. C. that the present senior class has been awarded first prize for the best booth in the “Y” bazaar.

—oo—

LaGrange College

Faculty at Home

The members of the glee club are: Virginia Wooten, Ruth Estes, Jane Leverette, Sue Hutcheson, Rebecca Hart, Louise Pharr, Virginia McMichael, Lucile Adams, Martha Jolley, Nell Burvert, accompanying, Mary Johnson.

Dr. Phillips

Mr. Scott Candler, Mayor of Decatur, and State Legislature

—oo—

Stunt Night

What a night! What a night! Did you ever laugh as much as you did at “Stunt Night” at LaGrange College, Friday, November 11th. Never did I tell you “Radio world” the Sophomore class broadcasting from station L. C. S. C. certainly was worth tuning in for. O boy! That was the most enjoyable version of “Little Riding Hood” I’ve ever listened to—yet—announced through the school hop, with so much business and a good deal of minor details, the bound, approached all who entered with pleas for alms. Inez Hill was manager of the sophomore booth.

This is the third time in their four years at L. C. that the present senior class has been awarded first prize for the best booth in the “Y” bazaar.

—oo—

LaGrange College

Faculty at Home

The members of the glee club are: Virginia Wooten, Ruth Estes, Jane Leverette, Sue Hutcheson, Rebecca Hart, Louise Pharr, Virginia McMichael, Lucile Adams, Martha Jolley, Nell Burvert, accompanying, Mary Johnson.

Dr. Phillips

Mr. Scott Candler, Mayor of Decatur, and State Legislature

—oo—

Stunt Night

What a night! What a night! Did you ever laugh as much as you did at “Stunt Night” at LaGrange College, Friday, November 11th. Never did I tell you “Radio world” the Sophomore class broadcasting from station L. C. S. C. certainly was worth tuning in for. O boy! That was the most enjoyable version of “Little Riding Hood” I’ve ever listened to—yet—announced through the school hop, with so much business and a good deal of minor details, the bound, approached all who entered with pleas for alms. Inez Hill was manager of the sophomore booth.

This is the third time in their four years at L. C. that the present senior class has been awarded first prize for the best booth in the “Y” bazaar.
December, 1932.

THE SCROLL

Published monthly by the Quill Drivers’ Club of LaGrange College. Entered as second class matter at LaGrange, Ga., as second class mail matter. January 23, 1932, under act of March 3, 1879.

Subcription rate, 50 cents a semester.

EDITORIAL STAFF
Nellie Sue Bailey - Editor-in-Chief
Olive Linch - Artistic-Ed.
Emmey Gouldby - Business Mgr.
Francis Fleen – Advertising Mgr.
Virginia Wooten - Circulation Mgr.
Marlon Wilson - Club & Feature Editor
Kathleen Gilson - Sports Editor
Lucille Miller - Exchange Editor
Evelyn Vaughan - Proof Reader
Sara Lee Payne - Reporter

Reproducers
Kathleen Gilson, Sara Lane, Ines Hill, Mabel Caudle, Nell Barrett, L. M. Hall.

COLLEGE DIRECTORY
Class Presidents
Sophomore - Sara Lee Payne
Junior - Sue Hutcheson
Senior - Rollie H. Hill, Sara Whitaker, Mable Caudle

Organizations
W. Y. C. A. -1st Avenue
Good Students Gov’t - Thelma Dunbar
Junior Class - Nellie Sue Bailey
Sophomore Class - Ruth Campbell
Junior Class - Martha Ellis
Senior Class - Mary Johnson

Change in Scroll Staff

Members of the Scroll Staff were sorry indeed to receive the resignation of Ruth Campbell, assistant advertising manager, Ruth has been a faithful and cheerful worker. We have enjoyed having her on our staff, and are sorry her other duties take her out of it; but we know that wherever she works, she will be giving her talent and energies in service to her school and people.

To our newly elected assistant advertising manager, Virginia Wooten, we extend a welcome. It will be no easy task to live up to the standard set by her predecessor; yet many of our members are expecting great things of her.

At Penn College committees, students and faculty are cooperating in presenting a pageant which will portray scenes from the birth of the great Messiah in their "Penn Day" celebration.

All women do not suffer from an inferiority complex. If they have sense, they know that they are not equal with men; they are far superior in the better things, and have no desire to compete with men in the worst.

Lucille: "Do you like promiscuous kissing?"
Clothilde: "I never had a date with him."

According to a study of mortality tables of a certain eastern university a Ph.B. lived an average of 3 years more than a "Major Letter" man.

On Christmas, there was a great celebration of the Scroll for the extra amount of space allowed for it each month.

The faculty has kindly consented to let the "Y" have charge of the chapel once a month. The committee, tee chairman, or anyone that they may ask, conduct the programs. So far two such programs have been held. Ruth Campbell, chairman of the Recreation Committee, conducted the first; Ammie Ross Bond, chairman of the Music Department, conducted the second. The third at this writing is in the form of outline.

The Scroll's publication.

The "Y" bulletin board for the month of November has been quoad for interesting and attractive. The committee chairman who have had charge this time are: Evelyn Vacca, Mary Johnson—De- votional, and M. M. Hall, Re- gistrar.

The annual Christmas bazaar, sponsored by the "Y" and Mr. King, will be held in the gym on Friday, Dec. 2nd. The "Y" booth will consist of pie. The "Y" is a place to spend the night. It was the very funniest animal. The "Y" of the "Y" that those programs will be beneficial as well as interesting to the student body.

Dr. Jefferson

Can't let his knees
To make her sneeze.
Then, send to the poem—please!

THE SUNSET

Twilight falls with peaceful slumber.
As the sun's last rays are flung Out across a blue horizon.
And the evening sky is sung.

Who can paint so great a picture A work of art, a love song? And can pen describe that hush?
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.

Life was great the great summer At the close of each short day, Except His glory never fades—
When the lights begin to fade
No mortal's brush can paint that scene,
No tongue can tell the soul's response

To that touch of master-brush.
Even The Fresher's Rate

Freshmen's Rate

"We've got one now! And have we kept it hot! But we worked for it, and well do we deserve it. Not only the upper classroom rate on this old hill of learning. Long have we evaded Lucille, Olive, Marion, Louis Dobbs, and T. A., but now, the tables are turned and we're sitting on top of the world. Each Fresher reluctantly gave up her quarter with the secret hope that this was not spending her money in vain. Now folks, it's up to—give us a call, for we have a telephone!"

---

Societas Minervae

The Societas Minervae met Wednesday afternoon, November 2, in the social room. The president, Annie Rosa Bond, called the meeting to order after which the minutes were read and approved. "Dido and the Arnold" was the theme of the program. The program was as follows:

1. Story of Dido—Emeline Goulbys
2. Dido in Literature, Annie Rosa Bond
3. Dido in Art, Anna Bond
4. Initiation of new members, Menta L. Hall and Jessie Ruth Burns
5. A scene from "The Aeneid" by W. S. A.

---

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class was indeed a treat to the eyes of all those students who were present. The meeting was held in the judges' room and was well attended by all. The program was a real treat and was well received by all.

---

Science Club

The Science Club met Tuesday afternoon, November 1, at the French Club. The meeting was well attended and the program was very interesting. The guests were welcomed and the business of the club was discussed. The program was concluded with a vote of thanks to the French Club for their hospitality.

---

Valway Pansy

AND

Suntone Rugs

GUARANTEED NOT TO FADE

Are Ideal for Your Room at School or Home.

---

COLLEGE STYLES

for

COLLEGE GIRLS

DARDEN BROS. SHOE STORE

---

Compliments of

J. C. PENNEY CO.
DEPARTMENT STORE

---

The Scroll

CLUBS AND CLASSES

Preacher's Daughters

HOLD MEETING

On Saturday night, Nov. 5th by 7:30 o'clock, everyone began to think that something was going to happen. It did!—The Preacher's Daughters Club had a party. Story had it lived up to the old saying, "Preacher's children are the worst." Well, we don't argue about that, but we know that "it's good time when had by all," at least it seems so. From all we heard, the program was a success.

---

International Relations

The International Relations Club held its first meeting in LaGrange College, held its regular monthly meeting in the social room of the College on November 9th. Miss Martha Smith, president of the club, called the meeting to order and after a short business-meeting she turned the program over to Miss Ethel F. Barlow. Miss Barlow gave a very interesting discussion on "Heredit." The Sophomore-Senior teams of baseball, football, and basketball will play against each other before Thanksgiving day. Here's to you, team, we hope you'll win!

---

Trunk Brigade

At the first meeting of the Trunk Brigade, three new members were initiated. They were Misses Louise Dobbs and Inez Wiley, and Miss Blanche Boyd. The meeting was held in the social room of the College on November 9th. The officers are: President, Miss Louisa Dobbs; vice-president, Ruth Dempsey; secretary, Ruth Thompson; treasurer; Annie Rosa Bond; and reporter. At the end of several hours of fun, the guests left, leaving laughter and happiness in their wake. They took home with them, too.

---

French Club

A meeting of all art students was called Wednesday, November 15th, 1933. The officers of the club were: President—Katharine Glass; V-President—Ruth Campbell; Secretary—Jane Prather; Treasurer—Thelma Dunbar. A good start was made, and Ruth Campbell gave the program. The club sang French songs until it adjourned for a social hour of French games and refreshments.

---

Miss Epps: "Name eleven of Shakespeare's plays."

Pete: (thoughtfully): "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room and Hamlet."

---

Weonder

Who the A. C.'s are. Who Winfred spoke to so many boys Sunday afternoon. Why the House President on the third floor stayed in her room one Tuesday night.

---

I hear a boy down town say: "I'm including myself in whatever the Hindu philosopher was who said that 'I am so this, and this' is not the whole story, not by any means not to be used but only to be loved. There's little else they're good for."

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,

---

Valway Pansy

AND

Suntone Rugs

GUARANTEED NOT TO FADE

Are Ideal for Your Room at School or Home.

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,

---

The Scroll

LaGrange College

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

(Continued from page 19)

that it will be the exceptional child who does have these diseases.

Dr. Callaway spoke on kidney tuberculosis, telling how its presence is detected, and giving methods of prevention. The topic for this fall is a program of rest, fresh air and pro.

Dr. Rusland spoke on rural health and sanitation, showing the importance of vaccination in prevention of disease.

L. C. is not depending altogether on the public schools, but is rather providing for the most interesting and helpful speeches these are those that students produce. Miss Epps spoke on the teachers work of planning the pupil to see and appreciate truth. Miss Wilkins, in a talk on "People, Attractive and unattractive," listed and briefly dis,
Dear Santa:

We like the freshmen so much that we aren't asking anything for ourselves, but will you please bring:

...a "snow flume"...

and some friends to rave about at all times and places.

Ruth Estes, a cable to hang her trousers on...

Virginia Franklin, a red hair ribbon and a new pair of socks.

You to bring us a new photographer?

...a "traffic jam"...

First, would it be impossible for you to bring a new photographer?
The one this year had too much "traffic" on the subject. Then, we would like some hot water on cold days, and some cold water on hot days.

We haven't been smart enough to put an elevator at the foot of the stairs in Hawkes Building. Just think how much it would cheer us to take a "joy" ride without a "peril." We wouldn't be asking too much for you to bring us a new photographer. The one this year had too much "traffic" on the subject. Then, we would like some hot water on cold days, and some cold water on hot days.

Santa, we haven't been smart enough to put an elevator at the foot of the stairs in Hawkes Building. Just think how much it would cheer us to take a "joy" ride without a "peril."

--Savvy Sophas.

SANTA'S MAIL BOX

Dear Santa Claus:

I want only a few things because I know the depression is on, but most of all I want you to bring me a husked and a quart of "it." I think you must have a big supply of that.

In addition to this I want a dainty mood ring, an Austin, a baby doll, six new brunettes "boy friends," a new house with a black bath room, braid curly hair, five new evening dresses, a dozen pair of slippers and a tooth brush.

Faithfully yours,

Bewitching Hazel Eyes.

P. S.: Give Mrs. Santa Claus my love—and hurry down here.

Dec. 1, 1932.

Dear Santa:

I couldn't give you any less.

--Mr. Murray.

December, 1932.

THE SCROLL

Quoted and Requested

What is the grammatical construction of a kiss?

A kiss is a pronoun because she stands for it.

It is masculine and feminine.

It is plural because it calls for another.

It is singular because there is nothing else like it.

It is in apposition with its antecedent. At any rate it is sure to decline.

It has been conjugated, but never declined.

However, it is not an adverb because it is unaccented, but it is a phrase expressing feeling.

LET US GIVE HUMBLY THAT WE HAVE an, and even though she might have realized the greatness of the Son she was to have, she could only do her best. She was not ashamed of the love that she had to give him.

(Continued from page 2)

From that day people have been giving gifts on Christmas day. Many like the wise man who came and gave rich gifts of gold, frankincense and Myrrh; however, many can not give such gifts in remembrance of the birth of our Lord. But we must remember that before these wise men were able to give these gifts, they saw a star, which told them of the birth of Jesus. Then they had to follow this star before they were able to find the Saviour. They told all that they had and laid it at the feet of the Christ.

One is only great when he recognizes the form of humility. If we give what we have, we are doing our best. It is a wonderful thing to give at Christmas time. There is nothing that is more thrilling than to have one remember you with a gift of some kind; however, it is not the gift that we appreciate, but the giver. We do not want people to give us things that we know they are not able to give. It is the remembrance that counts. The wise men were able to give. They were probably very rich men. They may have been kings; although the Bible does not tell us. However, there were others who worshipped our Saviour. Shepherds saw a light in the heavens and they went and bowed themselves at the feet of the new born babe. These were poor men. They had been out all night watching their flocks and had no gifts, but they came offering themselves and their services.

And so this Christmas if we have n't all the money we would like to spend on our friends, we still may have the spirit of giving in our hearts. Let us not think of gifts so much as material things. There are many things worth far more than money can buy. Let us, as the wise men, be humble enough to see the star or the light of Jesus and follow it. As we follow, our eyes still on the star, we may scatter some of the bright dust we have thought of before.

McELLAN'S 5¢ to $1 STORE

LAGRANGE, GA.

COMPLIMENTS

WHEELER'S PHARMACY

HOTEL DELIVERY

LEAVE YOUR PACKAGES AT OUR STORE—WE WILL DELIVER THEM FOR YOU AT NO COST.

Telephone 78 & 79. Motorcycle Delivery

"We Appreciate Your Patronage"

S. H. KRESS and Co.

LAGRANGE, GA.

COMPLIMENTS

ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

LAGRANGE, GA.

COMPLIMENTS

Drink

IN BOTTLES

"The Pause That Refreshes."