Dean E. A. Bailey

"My life is mine to live..." and Dean Bailey lived his in the finest way possible. His death brought a profound shock to all of us who admired, respected, and loved him.

The Dean's last day was spent tending to the duties of his office with his usual thoughtful consideration. This day he finally checked off all that was due and met his 5 p.m. math class, happily announcing that "today we finish the course." About 6:30, Dean Bailey passed Turner Hall on his way home, waving to those who sat rocking on the dorm porch. At 7:20, he heard the bell once more, this time to attract a meeting of the Newspaper Advisory Board, but had to turn back because of feeling ill.

The staff of The Hill-Top News met in quiet grief or spoke to each other in a whispered manner, knowing that a great gentleman was no longer with them. Many had identified this great gentleman with fathers and grandfathers who were no longer living. It took many a long time to go to sleep that night. Some wondered how he would be missed.

Dean Bailey was a scholar of the first order. He had a firmly-based religious faith and was a worthy follower of the way of life to which he had dedicated himself. His kindness and understanding toward those he knew are excellent examples. Words of honor and praise seemed, for the first time, inadequate.

While some of those on the quadrangle sat alone in quiet grief or spoke to each other in a whispered reverence, newspaper staff heads tried to adequately express their sorrow in writing. Words of honor and praise seemed, for the first time, inadequate. "Things like this make me believe all the more in God and in a hereafter," the editor remarked as she began the work of revising the proofs of the paper.

A Pattern For Living

Because of many requests, we are pleased to print the Memorial Services of Dean E. A. Bailey's funeral by Rev. George L. Henry, Jr., May 7, 1959.

We are in a world of reality, and reality is action, motion, energy, and life. Life is as real and time and motion and energy. And this world of things is conserved, it disappears. But it differs in that it is actually indestructible—indestructible in force and enduring in all things of the universe.

We should never appreciate this fact more clearly than when we come to use a new shade of color, or to pay our respects and honor to one like Ernest Aubrey Bailey. We do not classify him as a great man for the majority, sometimes not even to the very act we breathe it deeply.

Happy Birthday

Happy Birthday to all those who have lived the life of a saint. He was genuinely sympathetic, again for the same reason. All his life, he lived the life of a simple, humble man dedicated to the cause of doing good.

We who knew him shall miss him. I Dr. Waights G. Henry, Jr., May 19—Jackie Dennis.

We stand alone. I have known others who have gone to the house of a hostess where the dull greens and reds were the colors of gold and silver of kindness, under-
Bowling 'em Over

By FREDDIE BOWLES

LC has lost a great sport as well as a great leader with the passing of our beloved Dean. This professor and administrator who so exemplified the LaGrange College spirit was one of the most loyal supporters of the Panthers since they came into being.

Dean Bailey was also a great booster of intramural sports. His example of sportsmanship and his loyal support of campus wide athletics led to the establishment of the E. A. Bailey Award in 1954. This award is given each year to the outstanding fraternity and the "hillies" in intramural sports (softball, volleyball, and field day events) Dean Bailey was always there urging each individual to his best effort. Dean Bailey always attended the Panthers' basketball games, enjoying the competition regardless of the outcome. Dean Bailey made it a point to compliment each player on his performance after each game. Perhaps Dean Bailey didn't holler loud if the Panthers won but he was always behind them if they lost. Could this be said of us that continue to walk where Dean Bailey once walked?

Jerry Binns, LC's No. 1 singles representative, is the only undefeated netman of the season. He has won seven consecutive tennis matches and is the only No. 1 player in the conference that is undefeated. Jerry won the singles and doubles in the LaGrange City-Wide Tennis Tournament last summer. He was also invited to play in the Crackerland Tennis Tournament in Athens, Georgia but had to withdraw because of a sprained ankle. Jerry will be seeded high in both national tournaments this summer.

Joe Copeland, newly appointed coach of the Panthers, has his work here at LC all cut out for him. While Copeland played for the Panthers under Mr. Hiram Reeves, each season was better than the previous season. He will face the toughest schedule in the history of the Panthers in 1959-60.

Panthers Best Shorter 3-2 in Wet Net Set

LaGrange College's netters, under the leadership of senior Jerry Binns, whipped Shorter College, 3-2, in a rain-splattered tennis meet yesterday at Rome. Binns pulled into contention for second place in Georgia Intercollegiate Conference competition. Binns, who lives less than a stone's throw from "the hill", served in the No. 1 match, 61 and 6-4. Binns is the only undefeated player in the league, having won all six matches.

Rain halted court play in the first doubles match with Binns and John Horton ahead, having won the first set, 6-0.

SINGLES

Jerry Binns (LaGrange) defeated Ed Demoney, 64, 64.
Wayne Copeland (LaGrange) defeated Marvin Taylor, 6-2, 2-6, 9-7.
John Horton (LaGrange) defeated Jim Harris, 6-4, 6-3.
Carlton Keith (Shorter) defeated Andy Owen, 6-1, 8-6.
Dan Jones (Shorter) defeated Henri von Kraus, 6-2, 6-1.

Pi Delta Diamond Champions, Swim Meet Wednesday

Pi Delta Kappa fraternity girded valuable toward the E. A. Bailey Award by winning the softball tournament last week. They are 190 points ahead of their nearest rival.

Pi Delta defeated Sigma Nu 9-7 last week, 13 to 7, and captured first place in the softball tournament. Horton was the winning pitcher but had to receive help from Larry Boswell in the final frame.

Bennie Cuttoper of Pi Delta and Jimmy Johnson of Sigma Nu were outstanding in the outfield for teams. Each robbed hitter of home runs.

Horton, Griffiths, and Boswell were leading hitters for the winners. Presolona, J. Johnson, and R. Johnson led the losers in their attack.

The fraternity swimming meet will be held tonight at Peppervil Mill Swimming Pool on the Atlanta highway. This will be the final sporting event of the year.

The Inter-Fraternity Council will probably present the E. A. Bailey Award Thursday in chapel if the time permits.
