Plans for Nov. 19

LaGrange College will have its Fall Homecoming Saturday, November 19. A parade will be the first event Saturday morning. The Homecoming King and Queen selected earlier by a nominating committee, will be riding in the parade and later, at the banquet.

Alumni Seminars will begin at 1:00 p.m. The Alumni will meet in specially assigned classrooms according to their major field. There they will have a chance to talk with professors.

A luncheon for the Alumni will be held in the dining hall at 12:30 p.m. They will hear reports from college and Alumni Association officials.

The alumni-varisty game will be at 2:30 p.m., in the new gymnasium. Former Panther, will play the varsity team.

The homecoming dance will be held in the gymnasium from 8:00 until 12:00 p.m. Admission is free for the LaGrange College students. Tickets for visitors may be purchased for one dollar. Buddy Hebr ant his orchestra will provide music and entertainment.

Chapel

October 20th — Mr. Zell Miller, president of political science at Young Harris College, will speak on the subject of "The Gray Sickness." Mr. Miller is also the mayor of the town of Young Harris. He is an alumnus of L. C., and is a well-known person in the LaGrange community.

October 27th — Our LaGrange college literary magazine, the SPELL, will have the program. Selections will be read from previous issues by members of the Curtain Raisers.

IN BRIEF

ALL STUDENTS, BOTH BOYS AND GIRLS, WHO WISH TO TRY OUT FOR CHEERLEADER POSITIONS ARE REQUESTED TO BE PRESENT AT THE FIRST PRACTICE. THIS PRACTICE WILL BE HELD THIS AFTERNOON, TUESDAY AT 4:00 IN THE GYM. FINAL SELECTION OF FOUR NEW CHEERLEADERS WILL BE MADE ABOUT NOVEMBER 1.

Returning cheerleaders are Ann Moore, Brenda Yeung and Marlene Hughes.

The girls' section, which is directed by Prof. Sidney Evers, was stationed for the George Tech Wesley Foundation on the Atlanta campus Friday night.

The Freshman class is scheduled to elect officers and two student council representatives in their first official class meeting this morning (Thursday) at 10 in Dobbs. S. G. A. president John Gower will preside.

The Curtain Raisers met Friday evening in the home of Miss Irene E. Arnett on College Avenue.

First Student Recital Is

October 30

Sunday, October 30, at 4:00 p.m., the LaGrange College music students will present a recital in Dobbs Auditorium. The students who will be playing the piano are Claire Harris, Louise Billcock, Elizabeth Coleman, Diane South, Debbie Lester, Joyce Lancaster and Buddy Hebb.

The unusual feature of this recital is that it will be a performance of the complete set of fifteen Three-Part inventions of J. S. Bach. The complete set is rarely performed by students. This will be the first time it has been performed in LaGrange. These five inventions by Bach were written as instructional pieces in piano playing for his son, Wilhelm Friedemann, and some of the most beautiful pieces, especially those based on the second and triple counterpoint.

Claire Bowles will sing J. S. Bach's "Allegro Con Brio" and Wayne Hilliard will sing "O mio biondo dolce" by Donizetti.

The Art League will meet tomorrow evening (Wednesday) at 6:15 in the art lab.

Ronnie Cafepper and Charles Robinson are pictured in a scene from the Circle K International convention in Toronto, the October issue of The Bulletin of Circle K International. The L. C. choral's president and vice-president are seen in a workshop session.

LaGrange de Benevides, Brazilian coloratura, and former L. C. student, will give a recital at the LaGrange High School auditorium tonight at 8 p.m.

Kennedy Draws College Crowd

Senator John F. Kennedy, Democratic nominee for the office of President of the United States, made a brief but exciting appearance here last Monday. (October 29). Many LaGrange College students cut classes in order to be present on the south bank of the campus as Senator Kennedy's convertible passed down Vernon Street en route from Warm Springs.

Continued on page 3

LaGrange de Benevides, Brazilian coloratura, and former L. C. student, will give a recital at the LaGrange High School auditorium tonight at 8 p.m.

By Cindy Bennett

The Community Concert Association of LaGrange will sponsor a concert to be given by LaGrange de Benevides, a former L. C. student. The concert will be held in the LaGrange High School auditorium on October 19 at 8 p.m. LaGrange College students are invited and urged to attend. Tickets may be obtained in Mrs. Talbot's office on Monday, October 17 without any charge. The price of the ticket is covered by the activity fee paid at registration.

Miss de Benevides attended LaGrange College as a Rotary Exchange Student from Brazil, studying voice under Miss Elizabeth Gilbert. After her graduation from L. C. she went to New York City for further study. In New York she has been studying with Dr. William H. Berks, who has instructed such Metropolitan Opera stars as Patrice Munsel and Robert Peter.

Miss de Benevides is a charming person, with a gay sense of humor. She won her audience in her first moments on the stage and thereafter holds their attention with her lovely voice. She is a coloratura soprano with a wide vocal range, she sings "P" above high "C", with the greatest of ease. The quality of her voice is exquisite. "Madame" Gilbert says of her, "LaGrange has one of the most beautiful voices I have heard."

Miss de Benevides says her program in LaGrange will be a new one. It is her second concert in LaGrange. Her first was sponsored by the Rotary Club two years ago. The program will be a colorful variety of songs and arias, made famous by the greatest coloratura artists. Dr. Herman, who is pleased with her talent, has chosen her program. On the program will be:

Handel: "As Morn At Even, O Sleep Whose Jail Thou Leave Me"

Saint-Simon: "The Nightingale and the Rose."

Blues: "I Dream of You"

Chaussier: "Le Temps Des Lilas"

Lis Duff: "Manuel Smith"

Flemingshirt: "Here Beauty Dwells"

Villa Lobos: "A Brazilian Arias"

As "Soldier."

Gerald Rehm, 1960 graduate of L. C., recently earned his teaching position in Texas to accompany Miss de Benevides.

NAVY TEAM

A Navy procurement team will be on the L. C. campus on October 27, 1960, to review the Naval Reserve and in accepting the Navy this past Monday evening in the home of Miss Irene E. Arnett on College Ave.
batter up

For several years, the news on campus has taken a first chance around the Hill and sensed that something is missing. Why doesn't LaGrange College have a baseball team?

Perhaps the reason given those brave enough to ask is that the campus is not large enough to warrant the added expense of establishing a baseball team—has just been justified in past years. Intercollegiate competition in basketball and football has kept us pretty busy playing and cheating up to now.

But times are changing and with the times, the appearance and attitude of LaGrange College. In the fall of 1958, there were less than twenty boys in the freshman class. This fall, there were more than twenty boys in the junior class. There seems to be a wide interest among the younger fellows a chance at playing in intercollegiate competition by adding baseball to the athletic agenda.

We've gone to bat. Do we hit a homer or strike out?

win or lose

Somewhere along the line, someone got his sense of values mixed up. Today, as a result, competition for the E. A. Bailey Award is carried on in a rather unfortunate manner.

The award was set up so that our fraternities might be able to carry on a gentlemanly yet spirited competition in equal emphasis divided among leadership, scholarship, and athletics.

All this is well and good.

But gradually the leadership and scholarship aspects of the trophy competition became the side shows, while the sporting events were carried on up and down the midway.

A. Bailey Award is carried on in the worst manner.

This seems to be the way not only in politics or the arts, but in thinking cable users religious hierarchy, too. We pray cannot prayers set down in looks for any consumption. The church has sought to bring about certain happenings, so that we will flock to the Sunday evening service in order to get the chance for a person to make a change. The preacher's bag of tricks. This is religion as art big business, not religion.

A further aid to the disintegration of individuality in our society is the advertising campaign of the desk as the advertising agency, which men who convinces you that you really need a new silver-plated toastcruncher or a silver-plated toothbrush.

These people, like all of us, are individuals, put their talents to work on wares. In the kitchen, in the dressing room, in the living room, anywhere they can get their hands on a little space to make a little difference. The campaign is very good.

Yet Christ had to suffer on the cross alone. Would you be individual enough to follow Him. We back and cross with the rest.

We are all in danger of becoming cookie-pattern replicas. Perhaps we should take time to take a long, hard look at ourselves in a full-length mirror.

Moral: It is better and cheaper to paddle your own canoe than to ride someone else's steamboat hand-handedly.

If there are not enough of us to make a two-man exhibit.

CONFETTI

By Ray Barfield

Every time a crowd gathered on campus during the week or two weeks ago, we were sure that something wild was going on. There was a distinct feeling that loudness, striking, national politics, and athletics were dominating the Hill.

Purcell Morgan attracted his own crowd as a singing animal in the formal parlor of the M. E. W. C. Today

By Ray Barfield

Every time a crowd gathered on campus during the week or two weeks ago, we were sure that something wild was going on. There was a distinct feeling that loudness, striking, national politics, and athletics were dominating the Hill.

Purcell Morgan attracted his own crowd as a singing animal in the formal parlor of the M. E. W. C. Today.

PAGE 2

HILLTOP NEWS - Thursday, October 18, 1960
Sororities, Frats
Have Pledge Parties

After pledging on October 5, the Kappa Phi and Gamma Phi's honored their pledges with a party in the Simpson Room of the gym. Susan Williams, Kappa Phi president, led the new Kappa Phi pledges in their pledge, and the officers pinned blue pledge ribbons on them. The Gamma Phi president, Patti Flynn, then led the Gamma Phi pledges in their pledge. Ann Geyer, Gamma Phi president, pinned the Gamma Phi shields on the pledges. Refreshments were served by the old members and there was music for dancing.

The Alpha Phi Beta-Sigma Nu pledge party was held in the dining hall after the noise and excitement of pledging died down at 10:30. The pledges were given the traditional pledge ribbons of green and white, and gold to wear until formal initiation. The new AKO's then signed the pledge book which has been signed by "green and white" pledges since 1929.

The traditions were followed by drinking and entertainment by the Delta Delta Delta, and the sophomore class.

On October 5 at the Sigma Nu-Alpha Phi pledge party the Sigma Nu's announced their new sweetheart. Laura Williams, a sophomore who holds from College Park, Ga. She is nineteen years old and she is majoring in art. Presently Laura is serving as publicity chairman for the student cen-ter. Jerry Carden, president of Sigma Nu, presented Laura with a beautiful bouquet of lavender roses. He also expressed the appreciation of the Sigma Nu's for the help which she has given them.

Laura Williams was music for dancing.

Cecil Burdette
Office Equipment Comany

"Headquarters for your school supplies"
Webster Collegiate Dictionaries
Winser and Newton Art Supplies
Theme Covers - Subject Dividers

"Visit our store and see our full line of school supplies and Hallmark Greeting Cards."

Page 3 Tuesday, October 18, 1960 - Hilltop News

Pop Midterm - Final

Pop Tests:
Nicole Trice and Andy Owen:
Millard Beckman and Carol Sart -

Jimmy Ticke and Mary Spry:

Mid-Terms:

Ann Matthews and Ed Brutus, Emily Pates and Richard Mcc -

G dat

Clay Finalia!!!

Buddy Ginnies to cyril Shel -

Am Bethune to Gene Holcomb.

Diana Westerly, to Tommy Rankin.

Ratting Completed
On October 8

"Ratting" was completed on Sorority Gamma Phi and after being temporarily cancelled by the sophomore class.

On October fourth, the Rat Committee was held by administration officials that all ratting activities must cease until the coming weekend. According to offici - al actions, this was taken because some individuals had taken "ratting" too far.

Meeting the following evening, the sophomore voting body voted on plans for ratting. Remarks to this effect were spreading across the campus, and many freshmen had ceased to wear their rat tags. Members of the freshman and sophomore classes began to ex - nounce diminishing their ratting points and been cancelled. Moves were made to have all of the freshmen sign a petition expressing their desire to be ratified.

Sophomore voting body reversed the previous decision, and the revered the previous decision, and the class voted to agree take up ratting plans.

Rat Day began at eleven p.m., that evening, as agreed upon by the sophomore General Discipline Committee and the Sophomore Rat Committee.

A general meeting began when the rat tags were led onto the May Field. At midnight, the freshmen were sent back to their dormitories for general ratting.

Ratting was carried on full - force on the rat tags. Through and into the afternoon. At this time, the freshmen were herded into Rat Court in Debo - Amerman. Rat Court with John Gipson as judge, was completed in slightly more than an hour.

Finally, the rats were led to the Rhythm room of the gymnasium, blindfolded and expected additional baring. The soothe greeted them with a surprise party which signaled the climax of ratting:

The situation of "ratting" on the Hill has long been termed an unnecessary condition of circumstan - ces because of always-present in - dividuals who like rats of its purpose, take unkindness, harshness, and thoughtlessness too far, and ruin the average soph - more's plans for college life.

The freshmen are not happy about it, and it is a lot of fun.

Chris Naigard, "I feel that ratting is one of the important steps in determining the kind of friend one is. It will be very bad for something to happen to this tradition.

Frank Boozer, "Ratting has been a tradition at L. C. for a long time. It is as much a part of the school as the fraternities and sororities."

Betty Jean Evans, "Rat day proves we are mature enough for college life, and it is a lot of fun.

Ratting gives the freshmen a common enemy, and unifies the freshman class."

Ratting is a long tradition and memories are made of traditions.

Barbara Weeks, "Ratting gives the freshman a chance to really get in the swing of college life, and to adjust to their new sur - roundings. It is a tradition, I think L. C. should not lose.

Rice's Barber Shop

"Where Friends Meet"

Phone TU 4-8186

Brand New Dodge Dart

Given Away Absolutely Free!

Get Details At

Belk - Gallant Co.

"LaGrange's Leading Department Store"
Choosing A Major

The Major Task of

Choosing A Major

Uncertainty as to the choice of a major is one of the most frequent problems afflicting freshmen. Being of a most excruciatingly indefatigable nature, I had extended my choice over until the present, my own major and should like to recommend, in its stead, the science department, knowing that I could not find comfort, or at least company, thereon. As a besotted freshman I was sure of one thing, that I was sure I would not be satisfied until I decided that my major would be music, art, elementary education, biology, or religion. One field from which I intended to shy away at no cost, for I believed that it would be difficult to sign up for a major in all of these fields. I took refuge in the no-major department and found there a host of other students who felt as I did.

Advised by the head of the no-major department, I planned a first-year course of study with required courses. From these, the rather distasteful selection was to be made. If I might discover a subject in which I might be interested, I would decide on a major field. You can imagine the receipt of this information and the tears with my unsteady Bach in- terpretations of Beethoven's "Pathetique" sonata, and the relief, no doubt, that it would be difficult to sign away was English. As I found that Iintended to shy away from English, I had become a self-appointed distraction of the faculty and keep them in business.

Sylvie Sappho

PHILLY FLYNN

Kindergarten

There are signs and posters everywhere in the school that indicate this school to be LaGrange College. If you stop and look, you can see the sign on the door to the gym, the sign on the sign on the sign on the door to the school, the sign on the sign on the door to the sign on the sign on the door to the school. You have to be careful. You have to be careful, because if you look too long at any of these signs, you will be taken down to the office and asked to explain your behavior.

By Jimmy Trice

Panthers Paw's

Intramural football is not to be taken lightly. The Intramural Football Committee is made up of students who are very serious about the Intramural Football season. They are the ones who set the rules and regulations for the season. They are the ones who decide who will play and who will not. They are the ones who make sure that everyone is playing by the rules.

Student Council

The Student Council is made up of students who are elected by their peers to represent their interests. They are the ones who make decisions about student activities, such as dances and sports events. They are also responsible for making sure that all student activities are conducted in a safe and responsible manner.

News and Notes

The LaGrange College News and Notes is the official newspaper of LaGrange College. It is published weekly during the academic year. The newspaper is written by students and supervised by the student newspaper advisor. The newspaper is distributed free of charge to all students, faculty, and staff of LaGrange College.

Smedley Printing Company, Inc.

QUALITY PRINTING, OFFICE SUPPLIES & EQUIPMENT

Typoscopist - Adding Machines - Cash Registers

Rental - Sales - Service

Dial TU 4-7417 - 4-7418 - 239 Broad Street

LAGRANGE, GEORGIA

Page 4

The Major Task Of Choosing A Major

Uncertainty as to the choice of a major is one of the most frequent problems afflicting freshmen. Being of a most excruciatingly indefatigable nature, I had extended my choice over until the present, my own major and should like to recommend, in its stead, the science department, knowing that I could not find comfort, or at least company, thereon. As a besotted freshman I was sure of one thing, that I was sure I would not be satisfied until I decided that my major would be music, art, elementary education, biology, or religion. One field from which I intended to shy away at no cost, for I believed that it would be difficult to sign up for a major in all of these fields. I took refuge in the no-major department and found there a host of other students who felt as I did.

Advised by the head of the no-major department, I planned a first-year course of study with required courses. From these, the rather distasteful selection was to be made. If I might discover a subject in which I might be interested, I would decide on a major field. You can imagine the receipt of this information and the tears with my unsteady Bach interpretations of Beethoven's "Pathetique" sonata, and the relief, no doubt, that it would be difficult to sign away was English. As I found that I intended to shy away from English, I had become a self-appointed distraction of the faculty and keep them in business.

Choosing A Major

The Major Task Of Choosing A Major

Uncertainty as to the choice of a major is one of the most frequent problems afflicting freshmen. Being of a most excruciatingly indefatigable nature, I had extended my choice over until the present, my own major and should like to recommend, in its stead, the science department, knowing that I could not find comfort, or at least company, thereon. As a besotted freshman I was sure of one thing, that I was sure I would not be satisfied until I decided that my major would be music, art, elementary education, biology, or religion. One field from which I intended to shy away at no cost, for I believed that it would be difficult to sign up for a major in all of these fields. I took refuge in the no-major department and found there a host of other students who felt as I did.

Advised by the head of the no-major department, I planned a first-year course of study with required courses. From these, the rather distasteful selection was to be made. If I might discover a subject in which I might be interested, I would decide on a major field. You can imagine the receipt of this information and the tears with my unsteady Bach interpretations of Beethoven's "Pathetique" sonata, and the relief, no doubt, that it would be difficult to sign away was English. As I found that I intended to shy away from English, I had become a self-appointed distraction of the faculty and keep them in business.

Choosing A Major

The Major Task Of Choosing A Major

Uncertainty as to the choice of a major is one of the most frequent problems afflicting freshmen. Being of a most excruciatingly indefatigable nature, I had extended my choice over until the present, my own major and should like to recommend, in its stead, the science department, knowing that I could not find comfort, or at least company, thereon. As a besotted freshman I was sure of one thing, that I was sure I would not be satisfied until I decided that my major would be music, art, elementary education, biology, or religion. One field from which I intended to shy away at no cost, for I believed that it would be difficult to sign up for a major in all of these fields. I took refuge in the no-major department and found there a host of other students who felt as I did.

Advised by the head of the no-major department, I planned a first-year course of study with required courses. From these, the rather distasteful selection was to be made. If I might discover a subject in which I might be interested, I would decide on a major field. You can imagine the receipt of this information and the tears with my unsteady Bach interpretations of Beethoven's "Pathetique" sonata, and the relief, no doubt, that it would be difficult to sign away was English. As I found that I intended to shy away from English, I had become a self-appointed distraction of the faculty and keep them in business.
Roquemore, Culpepper Attend Convention

By Charles Roquemore

Ronnie Culpepper and Charles Roquemore were delegates to the Doc-nation Convention held in Toronto, Canada.

The Georgia delegation and part of the Florida delegation boarded a small jet trip from Atlanta by train. This was the first time the local Circle K had been represented at an International Convention since its existence on our campus.

It was also for the first time in the history of the organization that a convention was held on Canadian soil with the 31th World Federation.

The delegates were able to visit with Canadian citizens and learn about their culture and way of life.

As we humbly walk with God, we seek opportunities that have correlated outcomes. We know that we live in a world where love and living must intertwine the heart of man.

A new building is being planned for 1960-61. A group of six art majors increasing to the building of a new church. The group has spent their vacation with..." - Prof. Ezra Sellers lends a critical appraisal to works in the L. C. gallery. Art works across the U. S. summer as the professor toured a large part of the country by train. This was the first time the L. C. campus and in the community. The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The following objectives were also adopted:

1. Emphasis moral and spiritual life in the schools.
2. Emphasis on the positive influence of Circle K, Intercollegial.
3. Promote, inter-collegial relations.
4. Engage in the Circle K International Student Exchange Program.
5. To re-establish ourselves to choose Canada-United States relations.
6. Endorse and support youth organizations.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.

The memories of this convention included the sights of Metropolitan Toronto, the train trip inspirational addresses by the members, and the hospitality of the sponsoring clubs.
Student Council Has Busy Session

The Student Government meeting of October 11 was opened with the swearing in of Tim White as the new student body representative. The council then took the case of a male student involved in a breach of the drinking regulation. He was voted a two week social probation after lengthy discussion. The council also voted to clarify the drinking rule. It now reads, "LaGrange College discourages drinking. While on campus, at school functions, or while under the jurisdiction of the school, no drinking, possessing of alcoholic beverages, or any indication that the student has been drinking will be allowed." Chang filed a violation this rule will be brought before the new Student Government Council.

Council president Ann Gower presented the results of her meeting with the new faculty student affairs Committee on October 10. The council had previously voted to request representation on the committee, a non-policy making group. Also required that the faculty group preferred having students on the committee. The new faculty students, Mr. Nelms, Mrs. Myrick, and Mrs. McPherson, will add some new magazines later on in the year.

The library was built to hold twenty thousand books, but now has over twenty-four thousand books on the shelves. We can hope to have a new and bigger library within the next two years. On October 11th, Mr. Sellers plans to lease for North Carolina where he will attend the Southeastern library conference to gather new ideas for the future library. Let us take advantage of our library and use it.

Sigma Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of Sigma for the 1960-61 school year was held in the Biology Laboratory on October 8th. Five new members were inducted at that time. Sigma is an organization of science and math majors. To be eligible for membership a student must have a B average in all science and math courses, and a C average in all other subjects, and have had three courses in those fields. Other science organizations and departments are also eligible for membership. There are no officers in Sigma. Each meeting consists of a seminar, delivered by a member; a social hour; and a summary of recent events in the science world by the members. These summaries are in the form of current events found in magazines and newspaper articles.

The new members are: Gloria Noel, Patricia Jones, Diane Moltzen, Brenda Callahan, and Mr. George Henry. Gloria, Patricia, and Diane are math majors. Brenda is a biology major; and Mr. Henry is a member of the teaching staff of the math department.

Sigma was founded in 1960. The late Don E. Bailey, Dr. L. J. Shirley, and Mr. A. M. Hicks were instrumental in the founding of this organization. Previous to this time there was no science organization, known as the Horatian Club. Present members are: Dr. Shirley, repeated by the officers.

Circle K and H T N To Sponsoring Election

A mock presidential election, sponsored by the LaGrange College chapter of Sigma K. International and the Hippienews, will be held in the entranceway of Mangert on October 30th. The polls will be open from 9 A.M. to 2 P.M.

Each ballot will have spaces for the voter to indicate his preference for the Kennedy-Johnson or Nixon-Lodge tickets. Space has been allotted for the voter to give his reasons for preference of one or the other. Results of theballoting and selected comments will appear in the November edition of the Hippienews. The poll is carried out in order to promote campus interest and provide presidential election, according to Cir- cie K president Charles Bowman.

The LaGrange College chapter of Circle K International in a meeting on October 10, passed a new set of by-laws in which its operations will be based. The proposed act of by-laws was used by president, Charles Bowman. The motion to adopt was made by Ronnie Culpepper. Approval was unanimous.

The members made initial plans for the future library. Let us take advantage of our library and use it.

Mr. A. M. Hicks, Mr. P. M. Hicks, Miss Willard Miller, Libby Cartoog, Bobby Jean Cobb, Sally Curtis, Frances McKinney and Judy McKemey, to add the new members.

MINISTERIAL GROUP ELECTS CULPEPPER

The Ministerial Association includes the following organizations on campus which elects its officers during the fall quarter, concluded its meeting with the election of officers for the year.

These are: Ronnie Culpepper, president; Richard Carl- ton, secretary; and Joel Dent, public chairman.

Dr. D. P. Nelson is the sponsor for this organization.