By RICHARD CARLTON

The Visiting Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools was on the LaGrange College campus in October and has rendered a confidential report of LaGrange College. It is for the reference of the administration and faculty.

The committee used as standards for appraisal the purposes of the college as set forth in the college catalog. The extent of what is declared, is awareness of its aims and purposes. That was disclosed through conversations and conferences with students, faculty, administration, and trustees.

"The committee believes that the administrative organization is, for the most part, sound and designed to help the institution fulfill its purpose. Harmony and mutual respect, as well as dedication, seem to prevail in staff and faculty relationships."

"There is no question as to the financial soundness of LaGrange College... The business and accounting operations of the college are conducted in a highly sufficient manner." The committee recommended the adoption of a type of report rendered in reference to parentage in grade distribution, for the fall quarter of two years.

Student Body

Residence Student Body

By LARRY GREEN

A resolution passed by the student body and approved during the fall quarter of 1961 brought formal response from at least three of Georgia’s state leaders. The resolution opposed the present law providing tuition grants to students attending private schools.

Andy Owen, president of the Student Government Association, received letters from Claude Purcell, State Superintendent of Schools; Carl E. Sanders, State Senator; and George L. Smith, Speaker of the Georgia House of Representatives.

"The contents of both Messrs. Sanders' and Smith's letters can be summed up in a question which could be asked in variation from either letter: "Education and education will be given every possible consideration."

Mr. Purcell's letter was more informative. According to the Superintendent, the Georgia Senate is preparing a bill which would "reject the present Education Grants Act and substitute another law which should be somewhat easier to administer." Mr. Purcell also stressed that the use of the library was pleased to learn of plans for the development of the library and was pleased to learn of plans for the development of the library. "Expenditure for the library are in excess of requirements by the Southern Association," the report stated.

"The limitations of the inferiority of the inferiority were recognized and correction were recommended. The plans for the Student Center to occupy the... (Continued on Page 4)

CURRENT EVENTS QUIZ

State, National, And International Happenings

1. Was the segregationist attempt to repeal Georgia's compulsory school attendance law successful?
2. What historic hemisphere conference began Monday in Uruguay? What will the conference deal with?
3. Who will be America's first man-in-orbit?
4. In his economic message delivered to Congress, President Kennedy urged the adoption of a three-part program for sustained prosperity. What was this program?
5. What are the chances for the approval of the tax cut of about $500 million for the electric gas, and communications industries?

News Tips

- It appears that events in the Congo have turned a crucial corner
- The judge for this show was the Hon. John A. McCone's nomination to head the Central Intelligence Agency was approved by the Senate Armed Services Committee and was sent to the Senate for a confirmation vote.
- Bishop Fred Pierce Corson Here for Religious Emphasis Week

By BISHOP FRED PIERCE CORSON

LaGrange College will be held Wednesday, February 8 through 10.

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of Philadelphia will be guest speaker for the services which will be held twice a day at 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Student attendance will be required at all six services.

Bishop Corson is presently serving as president of the World Service Council, which affects the life of the Protestant Church of the world this year. Bishop Corson, who appeals to a variety of groups, is famous for his lectures delivered both at home and abroad. He is particularly in demand by college and university groups. He was at one time president of Dickinson College in Pennsylvania.

Activities other than the daily services are being planned during Bishop Corson's visit. There will be a forthcoming announcement concerning times Bishop Corson will meet with groups interested in further discussions or conferences. Those discussions will be open to all students.

On Wednesday evening, February 9, Bishop Corson will be guest speaker at the Christian Vocations Banquet which will be held in the Simpson Room. The banquet is being held in association with the LaGrange District of the Methodist Church. All students interested in Christian vocations are strongly invited to attend. The meal, which will be served at 6:30 o'clock, will cost $5.00. Those interested in reservations may contact Sylvia Sajem, David Haygood, or Mr. Toombs Kay.

Prof. Ezra Sellers Wins First Place At Wesleyan Annual Arts Festival: Mr. Jarrell Hethcox Takes Second

By BISHOP FRED PIERCE CORSON HERE FOR RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

The Second Juried Show of the Middle Georgia. Media used for works entered included water-color, canvas, enamal, encaustic, oils or mixed media. A purchase price of first prize of $400, a second prize of $50, and honorable mentions were awarded.

The LaGrange Art Department was well represented. Mr. Ezra Sellers, head of the department, took first place with his oil painting, "Chirchville, which will be hung permanently in the Wesleyan Gallery. Mr. Jarrell Hethcox, who is ahead on a Fulbright Fellowship this year, took second place with his oil, the Ornament. Four student artists from LaGrange College also had entries accepted for the Wesleyan exhibition. They were Dick Ausnough of Dunedin, Florida with "Blue Horizon," Martin Griffin of Sparta with "Unemployed," Sara Maclay of Atlanta with "Church, Home, and Tom Powers of Newnan with Study in Red No. 7."

The judge for this show was Mr. George Buell, a full-time teacher and professor of drawing at the School of Architecture, Georgia Institute of Technology, and is also associated with the Atlanta Art Institute.

Prof. Ezra Sellers Wins First Place At Wesleyan Annual Arts Festival: Mr. Jarrell Hethcox Takes Second

By BARRABAR LUPO

The Second Juried Show of the Middle Georgia. Media used for works entered included water-color, canvas, enamal, encaustic, oils or mixed media. A purchase price of first prize of $400, a second prize of $50, and honorable mentions were awarded.

The LaGrange Art Department was well represented. Mr. Ezra Sellers, head of the department, took first place with his oil painting, "Chirchville, which will be hung permanently in the Wesleyan Gallery. Mr. Jarrell Hethcox, who is ahead on a Fulbright Fellowship this year, took second place with his oil, the Ornament. Four student artists from LaGrange College also had entries accepted for the Wesleyan exhibition. They were Dick Ausnough of Dunedin, Florida with "Blue Horizon," Martin Griffin of Sparta with "Unemployed," Sara Maclay of Atlanta with "Church, Home, and Tom Powers of Newnan with Study in Red No. 7."

The judge for this show was Mr. George Buell, a full-time teacher and professor of drawing at the School of Architecture, Georgia Institute of Technology, and is also associated with the Atlanta Art Institute.
GOTTA' MINUTE?

A Little Work Makes A Difference

This is the darkness —
Sunward, O, sunward!
Rough is the highway —
O, onward, still onward!
Dawn harbors surely
East of the shadows,
Facing as somewhere
Swept the sweet meadows.
Upward and forward:
Light is above us,
Best is before us.

— William Henley

A young man makes his way on to the football field for the first time.
His nerves are tight; his mouth is dry. “Will I make the team?”
The question pounds in his ears. He listens at the coach makes some preliminary remarks to the men who have come out for the team. He hears the voice of experience talking about the work that will be necessary of the team to be a good one.

In the days that follow, the body and mind are subjected to what appears to be inhuman torture. More than once a voice cries from within, “Give up! You can’t take it — it’s too hard. Quit now while you’re still in one piece!” But this is just part of the game. The young man puts aside these vain words as he sees an opponent approaching.

A young man makes his way on to the football field for the first time. His nerves are tight; his mouth is dry. “Will I make the team?”

Correction:
The article on page one of the last issue headed “Dr. W. G. Henry Travels to Ohio” was written by Cecile Adams instead of Richard Carlton.

* *(This space is for your opinion—whatever it is, on any topic which affects the whole student body or a group of students. We also want your criticism of the Hilltop News; we would like to know what features you like and what you don’t. In making the Hilltop News a useful and interesting newspaper the editor needs to know what regular features you read and what you don’t, and what you would like to see in the paper.

We can fill this space with news and features but we want to put in what you want. So send in your opinions and suggestions to the Editor, The Hilltop News, Campus — it doesn’t take any postage that way. Remember, letters have to be signed or we cannot print them; however, the writer’s name will not be printed if he or she requests it. The Hilltop News is for you, the students, so write those letters now.

We hope you faculty members find the Hilltop News useful and interesting, also.)

IN BRIEF

Lou Gys recently enjoyed a swim in the heart of LaGrange pool, but, as Paul says, “Love endures all things.”

Bryan Dobbs has gained a new respect for the muscular profession and its modern methods. It is reported that he has the largest collection of Han-son’s paper bags on campus. Keep those fingers working, Bryan.

Mr. Lanier has again shown his consideration for his students by directing the parallel in Russian History to only 69,000 pages. While on the subject of our considerate history professor, I would like to argue with his pet theory. If he continues to give tests like before, the next major war will not be between China and the United States but will be between Mr. Lanier and his students.

Mr. Dobbs: “What a girl didn’t really want to date me?”

Buddy Cowan: “Old or New Testament?”

Whose last. ‘Tis me and nobody else, who is you?

HINES
Ladies’ Apparel
106 Main Street

Holmes
Pharmacy
1½ Price Sale
Tussy Weather & Wind Lotion
Desert Flower Deodorant
Extra Special
Boxes Montag’s Stationery
For Only $1.59
We Appreciate Your Business
Holmes
Rexall Drug Store

Candid Campi
By PORTER MORGAN
Managing Editor

As this quarter progresses, we find our students engaged in all sorts of new activities. Wall climbing has replaced hunkering as the favorite sport of Turner Hall, while the girls in Pitts are climbing for the very different reasons. Don’t worry, girls. Dr. Cupill says that you will find a boy someday. Basketball this season has really been interesting. We are indeed fortunate having such a chance to have such a varied sports program, and as usual the students are giving their full support. For those who have nothing to do some night, I highly recommend a Panther game. Nothing could be more interesting and enjoyable than watching the freshmen with which Terry Stephens and Donald Ross roll down the court. However, if you are the rugged type that doesn’t faint at the sight of blood then fraternity ball is for you.

HILLTOP NEWS
PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF LAGRANGE COLLEGE

EDITOR: PAUL KENDALL
Manager, Editor: Porter Morgan
News Editor: Julia Maussey, Virginia Howard
Sports Editor: Staddy Gilston
Society Editor: Jennifer Glass
Religion Editor: Larry Green
Feature Editor: Ollie Sue Ganious
Reporters: Mary Lilian Cagle, Pat Lanham, Mickey Johnson, Gerald Smith, Cecile Adams
Cartoonist: George Timmons
BUSINESS MANAGER: AL PINSON
Advertising Manager: Morton Horn
Advertising Staff: Dianne Alford, Pat Wyche, Jean Burgers, Sandra Turner, Nancy Sigler, Beth Couch
Circulation Manager: Kelsey Herman
Faculty Advisor: Alan Thomas

LaGrange’s Only Drive-In Laundry
Ideal Cleaners & Laundry
224 Greenville St.

TASTY COFFEE SHOP
375 COURT SQUARE
Your Eating Place — It’s LaGrange’s Best

Smedley Printing Company, Inc.
Quality Printing, Office Supplies, Equipment
Royal Typewriters — Victor Adding Machines
Cash Registers — Calculators
School and Art Supplies
Dial T 4-7517 — 4-7518 — 205 Broad Street
LaGRANGE, GEORGIA

LaGrange Printing Company, Inc.
Quality Printing, Office Supplies, Equipment

Rexall Drug Store

Published By Students of LaGrange College

We Appreciate Your Business
Holmes

Tuesday, January 30, 1962

The Hilltop News — LaGrange College
Society Editor's Corner

BY JENNIFER GLASS
Society Editor

Since we are well under way with winter quarter, society is at a lag. This is the usual pace that LaGrange follows at this time of year, but people are not to worry, because there are brighter days ahead!

Kappa Phi's plan party:
The Kappa Phi Delta Sorority will sponsor a school-wide dance for winter quarter, with the tentative date set for February 3. Some students will remember the Li'l Abner party given by the Kappa Phi two years ago. This party will prove to be just as great, if not better. It was suggested that the new members be in charge of the party, with June Brennan as general chairman. More information of this affair will come at a later date.

Reinhardt students visit campus:
Students from Reinhardt were issued an invitation to visit the LaGrange College campus January 26-28 for the possibility of making it their home away from home next year. On both Friday and Saturday nights, the LaGrange College Curtain Raisers presented "The Mousetrap", a well-known mystery that the visiting students can see talent in action on the LC stage.

 Sigma Nu Pi's plan sweetheart dance:
The Sigma Nu Pi Fraternity plans to have its annual sweetheart dance on February 23. At present, Miss Beth Oliver is looking for the people out for Winter Rush. As usual, each sorority and fraternity was out to get the best! Each Greek letter organization gathered at a specified place and awaited its new pledges.

Winter Rush closes:
On Monday, January 22, 1962, Miss Beth Oliver is present, according to Charlie Knight, Sigma Nu president.

THE SEEKER
"For Each Of Us A Different Path To God"
"What profiteth it a man to gain the whole world if he lose his own soul?"
The Game
Getting, grasping, gnawing, crazed
with the scent of blood or sight of finest frame—
These were the beasts of the game.
The crown of leaves, the mob's applause, or simply peace in which to rule (or some such worthy goal)—
These, the longings for which uniform, breath, impatient, grew old.
The lifting of the iron grate or whistle of the arrow, swift and sure, received in shocked surprise—
Just reward for the beast who spent his all with no reprize.
Those about to die—now killed.
The victor soon is vanquished
by a greater foe,
Seeking, grasping, getting, possessing—
This, the game
The players? The beasts, the dea-

"Loveliest On The Hill"

Editor's Note: This begins a new series in the Hilltop News designed to bring added enjoyment to our readers. Every issue a different girl will be selected by the editors and be presented as the "Loveliest on the Hill."

Sue Goethe has the honor of being our first "Loveliest on the Hill." Sue comes to our campus from Buford, Georgia, on Lake Lanier, but her Yankee accent was developed long ago in Michigan. Since coming to LaGrange College as a freshman last year, Sue has found herself to be one of the busiest girls on the campus. She is captain of the Cheerleading Team and a member of the Letter Club. Her pep and enthusiasm have done much to boost school spirit here on the Hill, and her looks and personality have added to the appearance of our campus.

Sue is a member of Kappa Phi Delta Sorority and takes an active part in the activities of her social organization. However, Sue finds most of her time spent in the art lab, where she takes her talent for painting seriously.

Along with art, Sue enjoys dancing, swimming, and meeting people. Our "Loveliest on the Hill" hasn't got a steady boy friend and enjoys dating different boys. Her pet peeve is people who try to play the role.

Congratulations, Sue, on being our first selection for "Loveliest on the Hill."

LaGRANGE PHARMACY
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS
134 Bull St.
LaGrange, Ga.
Phone TU 4-5614

Active people go for Coke!
Enjoy Coca-Cola right now!

Bottled under authority of The Coca-Cola Company by LaGrange Coca-Cola Bottling Company

Bobbie Brooks
$17.98

The knock-out knit costume... has the fashion world floored. Sleeveless sheath elasticized waist. Striped jacket with three-color punch. In champion combinations. Sizes 5 to 15.
PANTHER TRACKS....
Let's Pep Up The School Spirit

By STEDDY GLISSON
Sports Editor

The next four out of five basketball games are scheduled to be played here at the LC gymnasium, and we need everyone's support to help the Panthers towards a winning season. The attendance at the first two basketball games has been real good, but our school spirit has not reached up to par. The cheerleaders practice hard during the week so they can get cheers ready for the next game, and when this time rolls around they are ready to cheer, but only a few of the spectators cheer.

School spirit plays a part in any sport, and if the team hears the fans cheering for them they will go out and play a good game.

WHAG Broadcasts

Monday night, for the first time in the history of Panther basketball, a college game was broadcast over a LaGrange radio station—and present plans call for at least three more broadcasts this season.

Radio Station WHAG is broadcasting the games, which will include the return game with Valdosta State, Friday, Feb. 3, from Valdosta (delayed, except for FM); the home game with Shorter, Saturday, Feb. 18, and the return game with West Georgia, Saturday, Feb. 17, from Carrollton.

Four local business and industrial concerns are sponsoring the broadcasts, but instead of advertising themselves at game breaks, they have asked that the time be used to present interesting information about the college. The sponsors are First Federal Savings and Loan Assn., International Latex Corp., Pepperell Manufacturing Co. (Dunson Division), West Point Manufacturing Co. (Dixie Mill Division).

Bill Conover, already acclaimed as "The Voice of the Panthers," is the announcer for the game broadcasts.

PEP BAND PREMIERS

The Pep Band premiered last night at the College of Charleston vs. LaGrange College basketball game. Playing lovely songs added to the grand spirit of the team and spectators alike.

The band is under the direction of Dr. Anderson and has 12 members who are Pat Jackson, Frank Joiner, Mickey Johnson, Noel Jolley, Judy Brown, and Pat Jones.

The Pep Band is planning to broadcast remaining home games of the Panthers.

WHAG broadcasts LC Home Games

Top spot in the conference. The Panthers were undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC with the help of a few foul shots less than two minutes to play, but this soon was relinquished. Valdosta led at intermission time by 13 to 4. Bob Tuggle and freezing the ball, Valdosta was able to come out on top and remain undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC by the score of 40-37.

On January 18, LC traveled to Valdosta, Ga., to play the Piedmont Lions of Piedmont College. LaGrange had to come from behind from the very first of the ball game in order to win. The Panthers were up against a team of older and more experienced players but they did not let this bother them at all.

The game consisted of a scoring battle between the captains of both teams, with Jones outscoring Bruce Stroud 30 to 27. The first half was a nip and tuck battle, with each team trying to outscore each other. Piedmont led at intermission, leading by a slim margin of three points. The score at the end of the first half was 37-34.

LC came back in the second half with the determination to play their hearts out whether they won or not. The game was real close for the next two quarters, with the lead being swapped back and forth between both teams. The regulation game ended with the score tied at 59 all. This meant that the game had to go into overtime to determine the winner. This meant that the game had to be played for five more minutes on the end of the first overtime the game was tied up at 59-59. In the second overtime the Panthers outscored the Lions by a score of 15 to 4. Bob Tuggle came through at the right time game if they wanted to pull an upset.

The second half was just as exciting as the first half, with both teams playing a defensive game right down to the last wire. Half way through the third quarter, the Rebels were ahead by as much as three points, but this soon dwindled down due to the expert shooting of Winters and Anderson. LC once again regained the lead with less than two minutes to play, but with the help of a few foul shots and freezing the ball, Valdosta was able to come out on top and remain undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC by the score of 40-37.

Three Fraternities Present Activities

Each of the three campus fraternities will be especially recognized on its own "night" at forthcoming home basketball games of the Panthers.

On the fraternities' respective "nights", each group has been invited to arrange various pre-game and halftime activities and discounts.

(Continued from Page 1)

PEP BAND PREMIERS

The Pep Band premiered last night at the College of Charleston vs. LaGrange College basketball game. Playing lovely songs added to the grand spirit of the team and spectators alike.

The band is under the direction of Dr. Anderson and has 12 members who are Pat Jackson, Frank Joiner, Mickey Johnson, Noel Jolley, Judy Brown, and Pat Jones.

The Pep Band is planning to broadcast remaining home games of the Panthers.

WHAG broadcasts LC Home Games

Top spot in the conference. The Panthers were undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC with the help of a few foul shots less than two minutes to play, but this soon was relinquished. Valdosta led at intermission time by 13 to 4. Bob Tuggle and freezing the ball, Valdosta was able to come out on top and remain undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC by the score of 40-37.

On January 18, LC traveled to Valdosta, Ga., to play the Piedmont Lions of Piedmont College. LaGrange had to come from behind from the very first of the ball game in order to win. The Panthers were up against a team of older and more experienced players but they did not let this bother them at all.

The game consisted of a scoring battle between the captains of both teams, with Jones outscoring Bruce Stroud 30 to 27. The first half was a nip and tuck battle, with each team trying to outscore each other. Piedmont led at intermission, leading by a slim margin of three points. The score at the end of the first half was 37-34.

LC came back in the second half with the determination to play their hearts out whether they won or not. The game was real close for the next two quarters, with the lead being swapped back and forth between both teams. The regulation game ended with the score tied at 59 all. This meant that the game had to go into overtime to determine the winner. This meant that the game had to be played for five more minutes on the end of the first overtime the game was tied up at 59-59. In the second overtime the Panthers outscored the Lions by a score of 15 to 4. Bob Tuggle came through at the right time game if they wanted to pull an upset.

The second half was just as exciting as the first half, with both teams playing a defensive game right down to the last wire. Half way through the third quarter, the Rebels were ahead by as much as three points, but this soon dwindled down due to the expert shooting of Winters and Anderson. LC once again regained the lead with less than two minutes to play, but with the help of a few foul shots and freezing the ball, Valdosta was able to come out on top and remain undefeated in conference play, and score a victory over LC by the score of 40-37.

Three Fraternities Present Activities

Each of the three campus fraternities will be especially recognized on its own "night" at forthcoming home basketball games of the Panthers.

On the fraternities' respective "nights", each group has been invited to arrange various pre-game and halftime activities and discounts.

(Continued from Page 1)