Peace Corps Sends LC Alumna To Sierra Leone, West Africa

A LaGrange College graduate, Miss Rosedell Clifton, has been named one of the adult children to be sent overseas by the Peace Corps. Miss Clifton, a member of the class of 1966, reported for duty in Sierra Leone, West Africa, on January 1st.

Miss Clifton’s trip to the dark continent was the climax of intensive study in the United States and Puerto Rico. The Peace Corps prospects were first sent to the Peace Corps Field Training Center in Arecibo, Puerto Rico, for observation and training. Following a rigorous four weeks in the wild, they returned to Columbia Teachers’ College for orientation in the historical, social, economic, and political background of Sierra Leone.

Bochelle’s secondary education was taken at Statesboro High School in Statesboro, Georgia, and Newnann High School in Newtonville, Mass.

While a student at LaGrange, Rosedell was associate editor of the Hilltop News, a cheerleader for the football team, and a member of the Scroll staff. She taught at Holden Junior High School in Thomasville, Georgia, did graduate work in Asian studies at Boston University, and taught at Holden Junior High School in Holmen, Mass.

Her permanent home is presently at Newtonville, Mass.

Miss LaGrange Pageant Open To College Girls

This may be the year that a LaGrange College coed will again reign as “Miss LaGrange” — the first girl of every college’s pageant of the title of “Miss America.”

Officially the local Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees), sponsors of the Miss LaGrange Pageant, have again invited all girls at LaGrange College to participate in the annual event.

The date for the local pageant in Callaway Auditorium will be Friday, March 30. Each contestant will again participate in talent, swim suit and evening gown competition.

In the talent division, the following are included: singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument, dramatic reading, display of art, dress designing, etc. Oh a contestant may give a three-minute talk on the career she wishes to pursue.

In last year’s “Miss LaGrange” contest, 10 of the 17 candidates were LaGrange College students. Two of the girls were from the college.

All who are interested in being Miss LaGrange, and interested in more information have been asked to contact Mr. Alan Thomas in the news-alumni office in Smith Hall, Mr. Thomas is a member of the Jaycees’ entertainment committee.

SGA Pres. Andy Owen Tells Of Proposed Constitutional Changes

By MICKEY JOHNSON

In the next few weeks, Andy Owen, president of the student body, will present a proposal to the student body for a vote. This proposal, as suggested by the Student Council, is for a complete revamping of the present student government system. It would require a new constitution and the

Nineteen Participate In First Student Art Exhibit And Sale

The LaGrange College Art League sponsored the first Student Art Exhibit and Sale January 26 and 27.

Sixteen LC art students and the art faculty, Mr. Ezra Sellers, Mr. Curtis Shippman, and Mr. Jarrell Helcog, who is on leave on a Fulbright Scholarship at the University of Paris, contributed work to the exhibit. Work entered included oils, water colors, pastels, pencil, pen and ink, sculpture, pottery, jewelry, and serigraphs. Drawings ranged in price from $2.50 to $40.00. Paintings ranged from $7.50 to $100.00 and pottery and jewelry ranged from $2.50 to $17.50.

The exhibit was turned a success in every way. The Art League hopes to have more such exhibits. They are planning a Christmas sale for next year.

An added attraction was two dozen pies. The first prize was an Ezra Sellers oil painting, won by George Redmond, and the second was Laura Williams’ pastel drawing, won by W. W. Lamb of Cherokee Road in LaGrange.

Campus Poll:

What Do You Expect From Religious Emphasis Week?

There are varying opinions on the series of lectures that will be presented by Bishop Corson in chapel next week.

Some students have heard Bishop Corson speak before and are really looking forward to hearing him again. Those who have not heard him before seem to agree that “he must be outstanding since he appeals to college groups”, or “I’ve heard that he’s a good speaker and should offer a challenge to the students.”

When asked the pointed question, “What do you expect to get out of Religious Emphasis Week?”, most deep-thinking students regard the series in which attendance will be compulsory as an opportunity to have their own thinking stimulated. One junior girl said, “I think a person could gain a lot if he put himself into it instead of thinking of it as compulsory.”

The “it’s better not say anything I’m taking Bible this quarter,” or “I’ll tell you after the first lecture,” or even “I don’t know,” or still more “Have you got this in the paper? Then I’m not saying!”

LEGALIZATION

The legislature would consist of two parts — men and women. Each would consist of the men’s and women’s vice-president, three representatives from each class, and a representative of the dean of students for each legislature. It would meet twice a year, first in the Spring Quarter and, first of Fall Quarter. It would pass rules and regulations, approve appointments, and budget money. It can be called up by the president and, if necessary, can meet jointly.

Judicial Council

The third section, the Judicial Council, would be made up of seven members appointed by the president, the Dean of Students, the Associate Dean, president of the student body. The two vice-presidents, and the secretary. It would try all cases of infractions of regulations and pass a penalty. A five-sevenths majority would be necessary for determining penalties.

Andy stressed that this was not a definite thing yet, and that he was anxious to have suggestions from students, faculty, and administration.

Speaking of the change-over, Andy said, “We (the present council) are trying to devise a more functional system of Student Government whereby the students have more responsibility placed on them.”
Thank You, Sammy Clark

Rev. Sammy Clark is one of the best chapel speakers who has been at LaGrange College this year. His honesty and plain talk got under the skin; he showed that he understood us and seemed to talk directly to the problems of many of us. Sammy’s one hour meant more to the student body than Dr. Ricour’s five.

SGA Council Proposal Means More Responsibility On Students

Andy Owen told this editor about the SGA Council proposal last week. According to Andy, the proposal is still in the idea stage and it has to be worked out; this will be done in meetings with officers of the student organizations and in later SGA Council meetings.

This proposal would give the SGA Council more responsibility; the student body would have the responsibility of electing the most capable and responsible officers.

Think about this idea and then talk with your SGA Council representative or to the head of your organization.

We’re going to sit right down and write ourselves a letter if we don’t hear from you.

Alpha Kappa Theta’s Have Meeting

The Alpha Kappa Thetas have set up a regular meeting time and revised their constitution, as reported by Florence Clemons, president. The complete revision will be presented to the sorority at a special meeting, to be held at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 23, for the purpose of electing the Alpha Kappa Theta of the month. At present, Sharon Dorman is in this position.

The Alpha Kappa Thetas will sponsor the social after the basketball game when the Pi Deltas have their fraternity night. Plans for this are being worked out by Mary Ann Pavell and Lou Guys. As usual, a charge of 25¢ will be made for the dance, but Cokes will be served, so those attending will get their money’s worth!

Sigma Nu’s Dance Coming Up

The annual Sigma Nu Sweetheart Dance will be held on February 23, from 8 to 1:30 p.m. at the LaGrange Elks Club. The admission price has been set at $2.00. The music will be furnished by the Cavaliers, a well-known band. Beth Oliver, present Sigma Nu Pi Sweetheart, will crown the new sweetheart during intermission, with Charlie Knight, president, acting as master of ceremonies. Those who wish to purchase tickets before the dance should contact Charlie Knight.

Kappa Phi Delta Has Service Project

A meeting of the Kappa Phi Delta Sorority was held, on the first week after the beginning of Spring Quater. This will be on Saturday night of the first weekend of Saturday classes.

Panthers Tied With Shorter For 2nd With 6 Wins And 3 Losses In GIC

By STEDDY GLISSON
Sports Editor

Charleston Defeats LC 77 - 71

In a non-conference game on January 29, the College of Charleston handed LC its third straight defeat on its own home court. LC took an early lead and it remained this way throughout the entire first half. This was due to the excellent shooting of Tuggle and Howard and the superb rebounding of Stephens and Massey. LC managed to hold on to their lead and at intermission time they led by the score of 42-29.

The second half was as exciting as the first half, with the game nip and tuck right down to the last minute. The lead switched back and forth many times and in the last four minutes of the ball game Charleston took over the lead and came out on top by the score of 77-71.

Leading scorers for LC were Jones (22), Massey (14), Tuggle (15), Stephenson (10), and Howell (11).

LC Defeats W. Ga. 60 - 49

On January 31, LC won its first home game by defeating the West Georgia Braves by a score of 60 to 49. LC took an early lead and never lost it throughout the entire game. The first half was a defensive battle between both teams. The score at half-time was 29-23 in favor of the Panthers.

The second half was a little slower, with both teams picking up their own pace. LC held on to its lead and won by the score of 60 to 49.
