Tillison, Shaffer Nominated For SGA Executive Post

Ten Students Slated by Committee
To Contest Student Government Offices

Lowery Tillison and Vincent Shaffer have been named by the Student Government Association Nominating Committee as candidates for SGA president.

The Nominating Committee named the candidates for each of the five positions on the Executive Council. In addition to Shaffer, says Tillison High. Carol and Ted Hitchcock were nominated for the men's vice-president and Millard Edmond and Jane Johnson, were named candidates for women's vice-president.

In Chapel Wed.

Joseph S. Dukas, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of LaGrange, will be the speaker in this week's chapel program. Chapel dean, Dr. Terence Kay, said that there have been a number of students requests for Mr. Dukas.

The Music Educators National Conference will furnish the music for Dr. Kay's program. The students are invited to sing along with the choir as the program for the rest of the quarter.

This week Sandra Smith will sing the anthem.

LOOSE FLAP FLIPS BARE BOX

"Box" is disappointed by his (her? its?) failure to enroll in the University of California at Berkeley, says THE DAILY CALIFORNIAN. Nevertheless, Box appeared at 3 p.m. yesterday on the steps of Dwayne Hall to address the students on "The Salutary Effects of Social Nudity."

He appeared with all 45 square feet of his light brown epidermis exposed to the stares of a crowd of several hundred.

Unblushing, he divulged a large scroll reading: "I myself am a nudist . . . I doubt that I arouse emotion of a sexual nature."

Box added: "My nudism is of a healthy sort. I am not associated with such."

"Were I, however, to don suggestive garments such as stretch pants, short skirts or tight sweaters, I have no doubt that I would not be able to walk among you without arousing your emotions, perhaps even inviting you to some grave iniquity."

He concluded his address by advising his admirers to walk in the nude. "I guarantee you will attract as little attention but failed. One girl in the crowd said she would have gone out with Box if only his nudism were perfect. "But the signs, perhaps even inviting you to some grave iniquity."

Caution Called In
SGA Elections

Nominations have been made of candidates for Student Government offices for the remainder of this year and the year to come.

During the term of the present SGA cabinet, strides have been made toward greater Student Government responsibility. As any governing body gains more responsibility it is important that those represented examine closely the structure of the governing organization, the duties and powers delegated to that organization, and the individuals who will carry through the duties and responsibilities of that organization.

We feel that strong student government is a continuing and growing process; that government strengthens itself through fulfilling the needs of the governed; and that as responsible students, faculty, and administration alike, we should be willing and eager to accept the responsibilities of self-government.

As the governing body grows in power and responsibility, it is unquestionable that more and still more caution should be exercised by the governed in choosing their leaders. The responsibilities shall be fulfilled, the power rightfully used, and the growth of self-government be continued.

During the time preceding the forthcoming elections, let us examine carefully the qualifications of the candidates, add to their number if this seems advisable, and culminate our preparation with a selection of leaders who will carry on with strength and character the strides which have been made thus far.

Amendment Points
To Better Government

Final passage by the Legislative Council of an amendment to the Student Government Association Constitution, giving the SGA responsibility for coordinating student activities, is scheduled for passage this week.

The amendment then travels to the Student Affairs and Faculty Advisory Committee for their approval, after which it will be presented to the student body in its final form for their approval . . . or disapproval.

In some quarters the amendment has met opposition. There are those who feel that power is being wrongly delegated. In support of the amendment we would interject these points:

At present there is no means of coordination for student activities. There is a need for coordination, to strengthen each organization and their interaction.

This need has been recognized by students, faculty, and administration alike. If no steps are taken, continued ineffectiveness will result.

If steps are to be taken, it is to the advantage of students in all organizations that the task be performed by student representatives.

Opposition to the amendment is opposition to the continued growth of responsibility in student government. Yet, the cry remains that students are capable of assuming the responsibility for their own affairs . . .

A paradox exists.

THE SPIRIT MOVES

The LaGrange College Panthers face a do-or-die fight tonight as they play host to the GIAA Gucky College here.

The Panthers are in second place, a half game behind Shorter, West Georgia, and Valdosta State, who are all tied 5-3 for the number one spot.

In recent games the rise and fall of the Panther tide has been in almost direct proportion to the rise and fall of the "LC Spirit."

Come to the game and bring a supporter with you.

Adopts Service Award

College Alumni Council to be presented annually to outstanding individuals in the alumni. The award will be presented in the form of a certificate at the graduation each year. The honoree’s name will be placed in the alumni section of the college catalog and also placed on a plaque to be displayed on the campus, which will be added to each year.

This award will be made by a member of the alumni but nominations for the award may be made by anyone. Nominations must be given to the alumni director, LaGrange College, on or before January 1 each year.

The alumni office will provide Absence Committee Gives Interpretation Of Attendance Rule

Official interpretation of the new attendance regulations has been given by the Alumni Committee and the Academic Advisory Council at the request of Dr. C. Lee Harwell, academic dean.

Harwell asked that the two faculty committees specifically interpret points in the new regulations in order to clarify any misconceptions which might occur.

According to the new regulations: “Students academically classified as freshmen and sophomores who are absent from class (one in which he has received a warning regarding excessive absence) as well as students absent two additional times following such warning, will thereafter be dropped from the class.” The same rule is applicable to juniors and seniors who are absent three additional times.

According to the committee’s interpretations, expulsion will occur as a result of a seventh class cut in the case of freshmen or sophomores, and an eighth cut on the part of juniors and seniors.

Harwell said of the rulings, “both groups feel that this is the proper interpretation.”

Quality points lost before passage of the new attendance regulations are not being restored, but will be deducted from the record of those students suffering such losses at the end of winter quarter.

Dr. Harwell stated that restoration of quality points lost under the old regulation would be eradicating penalties which were the result of offenses.

Harwell went on to state that in the cases of great quality point losses, action would be taken so the student would be either expelled or have the privilege of being allowed to work on this program are to be earned. Ten hours of credit are given merely for participating. This work is approved and accepted, one will graduate with honors.

As for her future plans, Miss Harwell is planning to be married in August. Afterwards she will do graduate study at the University of Georgia.

Honor Student Probes 28 Al Smith Election

By JERRY BEASLY

Mary Ann Harwell, senior at LaGrange College, is participating in the Honors Program, this quarter. She is a resident of LaGrange and the daughter of Dean C. L. Harwell. This is her fourth year at LaGrange College and no major is history.

The Honors Program is for highly qualified students only, as the standards which must be met are difficult. In order to participate one must be a senior and have an overall academic average of at least 3.5. A student is required to apply and be approved by the Academic Advisory Council and the research work is in the field on one’s major.

Miss Harwell’s project is in the field of politics. She is doing research on what effect the Methodist and Baptist churches had on the 1928 election of the Catholic candidate for the Presidency of the United States, Al Smith.

WAA PRESIDENT SETS ELECTION DATE; MAY COURT SELECTIONS TO BE NAMED

Election of representatives to the 1964 May Court will be held Thursday, February 20, in the student center between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

The student-wide election of May King and Queen and Maid of Honor, sponsored by the Women’s Athletic Association, will be made from members of the senior class. Students will vote for only one boy and one girl. The girl with the greatest number of votes will be named May Queen and her runner-up will be named Maid of Honor.

Completing the May Court will be two female representatives of each of the four classes. Each class will hold a separate election to choose their representatives. These elections will have been held by Monday, February 24. The names of those selected will then be turned in to Jane Johnson, president of the WAA Council.

Miss and Mr. LaGrange College will not be eligible for election to May Court.

Bears Face Berry Tonight
In Final Home Stand; Valdosta State There Friday

By CLARK STONE

LaGrange College completed its schedule of GIC games this week, the first game tonight against Berry College on the local court and the last in Valdosta Friday against the Valdosta State Rebels.

The Panthers have won both these teams and need victories now to keep in the running for conference honors.

Berry College has been a "spoiler" to West Georgia and Valdosta State, taking wins over both these conference opponents. They beat West Georgia 73-72 in overtime and Valdosta took an easy 80-58 win.

Lots of Potential

Berry is a team with lots of potential, based mainly on the fact that they have two former All-GIAC stars in the lineup in Benny Byrnes and Jerry Gatlin. Friday night's game in Valdosta is a fitting conclusion for the best Panther season in years.

Berry could be Roy Awbrey with scoring 44 points in the last 20 minutes, 5 less than Ga. State scored all night.

Leading the way for the LC Panthers were Roy Awbrey with 17 points and Hugh Corless with 16. Awbrey also pulled in 11 rebounds to lead in that department.

Shorter doubled the Panther rebounds, pulling down 36 to LC's 16. Jimmy Chastain got 13 for Shorter, while no Panther got more than six.

The Panthers then round out the season with two out of town games at Valdosta and Troy, Ala.

LC Beats Ga. State In Fired-up 2nd Half

By CLARK STONE

LaGrange College had to overcome a slim half-time lead held by Georgia State last week before routing the Panthers from Atlanta 68-49.

Behind 25-24 at the half, LaGrange rally put the host on Georgia State in the second half, scoring 44 points in the last 20 minutes. 6 less than Ga. State scored all night.

The next scheduled game will be played by Alpha Kappa Theta and Kappa Phi Delta Wednesday, February 17, at 5:00 p.m.

Goldwave Turns Tide On LC Title Hopes

Shorter College defeated LaGrange College 61-54 last week in Rome, in a game that eliminates the Panthers from any chance at the GIC crown unless LC can win over Berry and Valdosta State.

Even then, the Panthers would have only a tie for first place, and would have to go into a playoff with the other first team either West Georgia, Shorter, or Valdosta.

In the Shorter game the Panthers suffered lapses of scoreless play with 630 left in the first half, with the score tied at 14-18. LC went cold and did not score again in the half.

Meanwhile Shorter had built a 25-18 half-time lead.

Starting the second half, Hugh Corless dropped in a field goal to pull the Panthers to within five points, 25-20. But that was as close as they got.

For the next nine minutes the Panthers could not score and Shorter began to stretch its lead.

When Lew Halter finally scored for LC, Shorter had a 33-22 advantage.

Shorter led in every statistical department. They hit 39 of 49 field goal attempts for 79 percent. LC hit only 15 of 30 attempts for 50 percent.

Shorter also had a 36-24 rebounding edge, pulling down 36 to LC's 16. Johnny Chastain got 13 for Shorter, while no Panther got more than six.

LaGrange's Roy Awbrey scored 16 points, the only Panther to hit in double figures. Shorter had three men in double figures with Earl Driggers leading with 19, followed by David Simpson with 17 and Wayne Huntley with 14.
