Registration Proves New System A Great Success

Registration for Winter Quarter was on Jan. 4. About five hundred students, including 36 new students and returnees from previous quarters picked up their class cards and schedules in the gymnasium. For musical and drama recordings by the Academ-ica Dean's office and the busitness office was completed by 1:30 p.m.

The procedure was divided this time into three sections according to how much pre-registration each student had completed. The first group consisted of those who had no changes in schedule to make, students who were required to make changes followed, and those who were not satisfied with original schedules were allowed to change them when they arrived. The registration procedure ran smoothly and met with everyone's approval.

Dr. Lee Harrison, Academic Dean, gave an emphasis, "Everything went on very smoothly." He said, "I think we had a good registration, and many of our problems were ironed out. There was less confusion than we anticipated. There were a few students who showed up late, but I am trying to feel that it is in pretty good shape."

Mrs. Martha Whatley, secretary to the Dean, said, "All the students seemed to be in pretty good humor in the line. I was surprised at how well it went."

Dr. Harrell also mentioned that pre-registration with the new McRae System helped facilitate the process tremendously.

Alpha Psi Omega Names Students

Six students have been named for Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic society. According to Dr. Max Estes, chairman of the Department of Speech, Drama and Music, Dr. W. E. Pafford, a widely known Georgia educator has been appointed director of the dramatics at LaGrange College.

Pafford's appointment was announced by Dr. W. G. Hurry Jr., LaGrange College president. In this newly created position, his major responsibility will be the administration of a program of financial support through gifts, grants, and scholarships.

Of the appointment, Pafford said, "Most of my professional career has been concerned with public education. I am accepting this position because of my concern for the well-being of the church college."

Pafford had previously established an endowment at La-Grange College. Dr. Hurry said.

In addition to his position in the department of education, Pafford has served as executive secretary of the Georgia Accrediting Commission which sets academic standards within the state.

Pafford is assuming the development position at La-Grange College upon his retirement from the department of education. He joined the department in 1937.

A native of Macon, Paff-
ford holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Emory

University. He has also done post-graduate work at the University of Chicago and Georgia and at Peabody College. He has received articles in a number of educational and accreditation publications and has contributed articles to bulletin-time to the state department of education.

As an active Methodist layman, Pafford has served as member of the machinery Committee Board, superintendent of church school, and chairman of the Commission on Education.

He is a member of Atlanta's Druid Hills Methodist Church.

CHAPMAN REPRESENTS LC

At Dec. Meeting Of MSM

December 17, 1964

By KEN CHAPMAN

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 30—\The capital city of that western state has been invaded by approximately thirty-five hundred students and alumni of the Methodist Student Movement, representing nearly all states and many foreign countries.

The group is meeting for a week of activities centered on the theme, "The Church in the World."

The Georgia delegation arrived by chartered pi-lane from Atlanta. After registering early and resting from the three-and-a-half-hour fl-igh, they met at the first ses-tion last Monday night.

Dr. Warren Morris, President of Raymond College in Stockton, California, is serving as preceptor for the week. He said that the winds of revolution are blowing so fast, "What trees are worth saving?"

LaGrange College
December 7, 1964

Dear Editor:

The first of the fall quarter overheard a high official of the college talking with a member of the faculty about a new student transferring to La-Grange College. This official considered us very fortunate to have a student of his (or her) background, capabilities, and excellent family.

Today I overheard a high official of the college telling a visitor about a student who

Was in the Student Union yesterday evening. I think it advisable to let everyone know about this.

Very disappointedly,

Ken Chapman

Another speaker was Dr. Paul Lehman, a president at Union Theological Seminary. Dr. Lehman said that Christians are supposed to be Chrisrians. They are to be involved in the very center of the revolution, and the revolutionary spirit is the natural environment for the Christian faith. But, he added, the Christian faith is a catalyst of revolutions. In this changing world, the Christian faith must change too, or else it will not be relevant in the revolutionary age.

Tuesday night, a folk-singing festival, "A Hoot for the Hip," was presented. It sang out against the conformity that exists today, and the program slapped the faces of those who are afraid to take a stand, especially in the racial revolution.

In the end "We Shall Overcome" was sung by all in the auditorium. The program concluded with a great hymn of another revolutionary period, Martin Luther's "A Mighty Fortress is our God."

Tonight the winner of the Naional March of Dimes, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., speaks to the conference. An article in tomorrow's hilltop will present this important speech and will also deal with other activities of the conference.

Cats Lead Opponents

BY HAROLD TARPLEY
Sports Editor

After a few happy holidays the tiny team of LaGrange College got back to work a week before the rest of us returned to campus. The team looks good in all respects and is ready for a busy schedule.

Coach Mariotti said that workouts have been "long and tough, although on the whole the squad returned in rather good shape."

The only exception to the team's good reporting condition is 6-3 forward Earl Morton. The Alberville, Ala., player injured his left hand, and this is expected to slow him a bit for approximately a week.

A bright addition to the playing squad is sophomore Alberville player guard Jimmy Dray, a transfer from North Alabama College, a tiny defensive player, Dray was not eligible according to school regulations before the end of the fall quarter, Mariotti also reported that Brain Gotchard, a 6-6 freshman center from North Charleston, S. C., will not report to the team for the remainder of the season.

"Several involved problems, mostly of a personal nature, are responsible, Brian told me in a recent letter," Mariotti said.

LaGrange leads opponents in at least four major areas. The Panthers have an average of 88 points per game, which leads the team. LaGrange's All Conference forward, HughCorless, has a 12.6 point average. This is above the old record which was set at 80 points as the average for a season.

In rebounds the Panthers lead again. They have 41 per cent of the rebounds and opponents have 38 percent. However, I believe this could be improved.

Joe Phillips, in my opinion, is the most improved player. He is the youngest starter and has an average of 10 rebounds per game, which leads the team. He also leads the team in field goal percentage with 58 per cent.

Phillips has a 16.5 point average which is second only to Hugh Corless, LaGrange's All Conference forward. Hugh Corless has a brilliant 21.6 point average. He leads the conference with this fine performance.

He also leads with a free throw percentage of 96.

All five of the "starting team" have point averages in double figures. T. J. Thompson has 39 per cent of the rebounds and opponents have 38 percent. However, I believe this could be improved.

A phenominal shooting percentage enabled LaGrange College's cagers to defeat State. Saturday's game produced the Panthers' first three-digit score of the season, and was, therefore, the team's offensive high mark to date. Georgia State's half hundred points was a season low mark by opponents.
