Brown To Talk
On Churchill

Tomorrow Dr. Michael J. Brown, a C. H. history professor, will present an outline into some of the recent events of the life of the late Winston Churchill.

Though much of the material will be drawn from biographical works, Brown will supplement that source with a personal knowledge of the great statesman gained during his wartime hopd-land.

Professor Brown, who holds the position of the only British citizen on L. C.'s faculty, came to LaGrange through a student in 1952. Leaving because he had recorded for president of many campus organizations and a member of the college’s board of Fama), he went to Emory for graduate study where he received his Ph.D this past June.

Prior to his return to La-Grange as a professor, this outstanding young Danford Fallow served on the faculties of Emory, Davidson, and Agnes Scott. Dr. Brown is a past President of La. Alumnae Alumni association, and continues to hold many important positions within the college community.

Johnny Glisson and Judy McKoon were elected May King and May Queen last Thursday.

Handfull Hears Nominees

By TOM CASTON

Last night students were given a chance to hear S.G.A. candidates speak out publicly on the issues involved in the current campaign. Nominees for the offices of Vice President and President gave four minutes, prepared talks, which were each followed by a two-minute period of questions from the audience.

According to current S.G.A.
President Lowery Tillison,
one of the S.G.A. members present at the gathering), the about the only common sighted by spokespeople was a "do-nothing legislative committee". Tillison estimated the total turnout, including all candidates and one faculty member, at about 25 or 30 people.

Aside from the mayor turnout, a major disappointment seemed to be the question and answer sessions. Many seemed to feel that the full potential of this vehicle of communication between candidates and the student body was far from being realized. Nearly the entire hour (from 6 to 7 p.m.) was filled with activity, but, in the words of one observer, "It’s a shame that, with grumblings from very outside of the Hill that we don’t give a better chance to know the S.G.A. and its activi-
."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he ser-served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new LC professor has done other graduate study at Columbia Seminary and expects to receive his master of theo-dogy degree there in May.

In West Point, Rev. Mr. Law served as an officer of the following groups: Valley Library Board and West Point Libary Council. He is also a member of the West Point Literacy Council.

Rev. Mrs. Law is married and the father of three children. He and his family live in Fifth Avenue in West Pot. He will continue to comto his ci-

Spring Tour Nears For LC
Chorus; Includes 18 Concerts

One of the South’s most widely acclaimed collegiate groups, the LaGrange College Chorus, will give a total of 25 concerts during its 900 mile, two-state tour. Director of the LaGrange College Chorus is Prof. Paul Doster, associate professor of music at the college.

In addition to one or two concerts in Georgia and Florida, the LC Chorus will proba-ably sing two movements from Schubert’s “Mass in G Major.”
They are “Credo,” which is the longest movement and muically can stand alone better than the other movements; and the “Benedictus,” which is as a chanting trio for soprano, mezzo, and bass. Doster will perform as the mezzo.

In addition to these, LC students regularly enrolled in other colleges, for public school teachers to utilize the and for LC students who wish to accelerate their education, and for LC students whom

Dr. C. Lee Harwell, acade-
ic dean of the college, said
that the first session will be held July 16.

The new LC professor has
done other graduate study at Columbia Seminary and expects to receive his master of theo-
dogy degree there in May.

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

Dr. C. Lee Harwell, acade-
ic dean of the college, said
that the first session will be held July 16.

The new LC professor has
done other graduate study at Columbia Seminary and expects to receive his master of theo-
dogy degree there in May.

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.

"We are very fortunate," Dr. Harwell said, "to have an individual of the caliber of Mr.
Law to join our faculty, even on a part-time basis. He will be an asset to our college."

The new professor of philosophy is pastor of the First
Presbyterian Church of West
Point, a position he has held
since 1962. Previously he served a pastorate in Dallas, Ga.
By CHARLES THOMAS
As one of two people nominated by the S. G. A. Nominating Committee to run for Men's Vice President, and having served as House President in a men's dorm, I feel that I am both experienced and qualified in dealing with students and student affairs. I believe that I can best represent the students' opinions in the governing of themselves. Not only men's vice president, but all other offices in the upcoming election, represent your position, and your suggestions in the refinement of our self-government.

By BUCK THOMAS
I believe that there are very few things that need changing next year insofar as Student Government is concerned. I see nothing but a conscientious effort for a better Student Government.

Charles Thomas

By TED HITCHCOCK
First of all, I want to be your next S.G.A. President. I pledge to uphold the best of all LC traditions and to do my part in making our school a better place for all. As Men's Vice-President this year I feel I have obtained the experience necessary to fulfill the Presidency. If elected I propose a thorough evaluation of the S.G.A.; the Judicial Council, the Dormitory Councils, the poster and decimeter system, closed study hall, the system of punishment, the effective use of legislative committees, and the lack of student responsibility as a whole. It is my responsibility to learn can get a good education here. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.

By AMELIA MEKOV
After being away from LaGrange for awhile, I'd like to state some opinions molded in the interim. (1) LaGrange is a good school. It could be better. (2) Students with the desire to learn can get a good education here. (3) LaGrange students are often事发 and sometimes irresponsible. How do these statements apply to the upcoming election? The Executive Council of the S.G.A. is responsible for coordinating and regulating all student activities on campus. Naturally everyone wants improvements made; a cleaner student center, better chapel speakers, more cultural programs, and less rain on weekends. But the most important change this campus needs is a new attitude among its students.

By JUDI HITCHCOCK
Walter Hines Page, American journalist and diplomat, said, “there is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part.”

This is the primary factor lacking in the student government of LaGrange College—the participation of the student body, the student government should not be regarded as an organization ruling over the students, but as an effective, functioning body of the students.

Judith Hitchcock

By GARY BROWN
On Thursday of this week, you'll have a chance to vote for your new Student Government Association Executive Council. I urge you not to vote without having seriously considered the duties of each office and the qualifications of each candidate for that office.

Gary Brown

By MIKE McAFFEE
As a candidate for the office of Vice-President of your student government, I'm interested in what you want for a representative. I'd like you to think of the issues at hand from the standpoint of a student virtually involved with the problems of your school government. You should, and will, be given a chance in the future to take a voice in the S.G.A.
Confetti

MIKE CHRISTENSEN

The best was unbelievable in the hall and I got the feeling of what it must have been like in one of those crowded subway tunnels during the London blitz. An air raid! We were crammed in a unoccupied space in the basement of the gym. The reason? Way tunnels during the London blitz? An air raid? No, just the screams of bereavement such as: "Five lousy days!”, "What's classes?" and of course, "Those dirty rats! They can't pare for the year ahead. See ya next quarter!

Bowling To Rival Basketball

BY CAROLI HENDRICK

Basketball and tennis provide excellent opportunities for G.L.A.C. competition, and the LaGrange teams are consistently among the top conference contenders. Now bowling has been added to the list of intercollegiate sports. This season only three colleges are participating in what could grow into a sharp conference competition. LaGrange, West Georgia, and Shorter teams boast such week and forward their scores to Coach Howard Coerder, the Conference president, at West Georgia.

Several LC lanemen have the ability to roll 297 for the conference high game in the same week. All team members' scores are sent in for tabulation, but for conference scoring only the top five series scores of each team are counted. The first week's tally put West Georgia on top with 2718. Shorter totalled up 2570, and LaGrange is in the middle with 2411. Tentative dates for a face-to-face roll-off are April 9 and 10. The conference champion will be determined by total pins lost. The six individual bowlers with the highest averages will receive All-Conference honors. Several LC lanemen have the potential to be All-Conference. Each has his own individual bowling style, but most of the time the differences bring the same results for all—consistently good scores. Outstanding in the first two weeks of play are Joe Nalley, Don Cherry, Larry Kinsley, Jim Knight, and Mike Christensen, who led a 597 series this week, aided considerably by a double hundred (six strikes in a row) in one game.

Other team members, who are improving with each game, are Chuck Skow, Mike star-letty, and Larry Kinsley. They will be eligible for Officer training school selection on the 9th of March 1965. They will be in the student center between the hours of 3:30 and 3:30.

The Officer Training Program is a three-month co-ed, cultural course designed to equip college graduates for positions of leadership in the Airforce. Trainees may apply for pilot, navigator or serve in an executive position in personnel, communications, education, engineering, weather, administration, mathematics, weapons director or chemistry. To be eligible for Officer Training School, applicants must be citizens of the U. S. between the ages of 20% and 25% and possess a college degree or be within 210 days of graduation.
Sports Editor

HAROLD TARPLEY

Corless, Hugh
Thompson, T. J.
Lord, Glenn
Kirks, Ronny
Phillips, Joe
Corless, David
Draill Jimmy
Jackson, Jim
Duckett, Tom
Horton, Earl
Baughton, James
Fike, Johnny
Others on team

LaGrange Totals
Opponents Totals

Along with spring quarter comes a change in sports. The attention of the sportsman will be directed toward tennis, softball, fishing, and maybe some camping. Some of these warm days that we have seen have put the camping fever in a few of our experts. I know.