Callaway Foundation Gives $10,000 Grant

William and Evelyn Banks

Callaway Foundation

William and Evelyn Banks Library has received a $50,000 grant from the Fuller E. Callaway Foundation of LaGrange which will increase both the quality and quantity of the library's book collection.

That was the comment of Dr. Gayle Whitaker, assistant to the third grant from the foundation to the library since 1956.

The latest grant has been established by the foundation as a reserve fund to cover the actual cost of purchasing new books for the library, Dr. Henry said.

The LC president said that only books recommended in one or more specifications for college libraries will be purchased through the fund. Many of the books are the same as those included in Harvard University's Lamont Library.

Dr. Henry reported that the college now has a strong, working library of 33,376 volumes, following the careful elimination of a number of outdated books. The present holdings almost double the 17,000 books in the library in 1956.

The most recent grant from the Fuller E. Callaway Foundation, according to Mrs. Davis Mitchell, college librarian, will aid in adding another 13,000 volumes. The funds will improve the quality of our holdings and provide better coverage in all relevant subject areas.

Dr. G. Henry Jr., LC president, in announcing the gift, said that the Fuller E. Callaway Foundation, according to Mrs. Davis Mitchell, college librarian, will aid in adding another 13,000 volumes. The funds will improve the quality of our holdings and provide better coverage in all relevant subject areas.

DNA Is Topic At Sigma Meet

DNA "is a topic," said Ed "Trip" McCord recently, "I've been working on it from Atlanta, and I've moved around quite a bit."

He graduated from high school in Corpus Christi, Texas, where he was a member of the Drama Club and the National Honor Society.

"Trip" McCord is a speech and drama major who hopes to specialize in film. He is completing his education at LaGrange College, where he has moved around quite a bit.

He said, "It's especially important that we know approximately how many students and cars will be involved so that parking spaces and seating can be reserved.

Those who attended last Sunday's service to the panel discussion of "A Christmas Visit, "Dr. Maxie McLean, Head of the Speech and Drama Department, the assistant director and stage manager to Mr. Anna Daniel.

Several Roses Moving Along Very Swiftly

BY TRIP MCCORD

Rehearsals are well under way for LaGrange College's upcoming production of the celebrated Broadway hit, "No Time for Sergeants." Some of the scenery is being painted on both sides.

Miss Marilyn McKay, costume designer and technical director, plans for this production to be professional in every aspect. The story of a hillbilly and his wife whose son fairly revives the Air Force simply by being friendly and willing calls for settings in the imaginative, exotic style of Al Capone, adding to the hilarity by making all the characters seem larger than life. Behind the scenes at Dobbs, the crew are hard at work to make sure that this comedy is every bit as funny at LC as it is on Broadway.

"No Time for Sergeants" calls for several innovations in the technical department, extra space was needed for all the sets, the feetbridge which is covered by removable wooden fillers, two wagons, large moving platforms which will be rolled on and off stage as needed, are necessary to create the many scenes during the acts.

Two other important additions are the new 30-foot wide scene drops, floor-to-ceiling curtains which are lowered or raised by ropes. These drops will have scenes painted on them and will hide scene changes during the acts.

"No Time for Sergeants," being directed by Dr. Maxie McLean, Head of the Speech and Drama Department, is to be presented by the Fuller E. Callaway Foundation of LaGrange, according to Mrs. Davis Mitchell, college librarian. The cost of purchasing new books for the library is doubled, minus the actual cost of purchasing new books.

Due to several difficulties, the costume painters have been unable to complete the grand-Panhellenic Ball have been canceled. NO COSTUMES are to be worn. The grand-Panhellenic Ball paint colors are to be worn. The grand-Panhellenic Ball is yet to be determined.
Apathy Shelved For Viet Nam Journey

BY ANN HERRING

The campus grapevine as usual is running in full force concerning Saturday's assembly in the Atlanta Stadium for "Affirmation VietNam." Many students have different reasons for going.

John Carter said, "I am in favor of the U.S. policy in Viet Nam. I think Dean Russ will give a good talk, and I hope to talk to some of the celebrities." Gene Frame commented, "I would like to have the opportunity of hearing Dean Russ, as well as Anita Bryant." "I want to go to get away from the monotony of LaGrange College. I also feel it would be an interesting experience," said Brooke Brown.

Rosemary Neely answered the questionnaires way, "If I were a boy, I would want to stay as far from the women's front lines as possible, but since I am a girl and don't have to go, I am more than willing to give my life for my country."

Elaine Latham commented, "It's very seldom that we have the opportunity to hear persons of the caliber of Dean Rusk. Why not take advantage of it?"

All the reasons are sound. They are certainly worthy goals, but the overruling point is that LaGrange College students are aware and ready to move as a unit.

The Hilltop News staff will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the newsroom.

Dr. Sheppard stated that personal support of war is something which a Christian must decide for himself in individual situations. He said that no Christian should participate in a war when he believes that he is on the wrong side.

Dr. Taylor believes that a Christian has to accept necessarily that he must participate in a war which is a necessity stemming from the imperfection of man.

Mr. Sheppard expressed a negative attitude toward war. He believes that Christians, as members of the spiritual community, cannot admonish themselves from any non-towards he cannot fight against his brother. He stated that, as Christians, we cannot support or participate in any war that man’s only commitment is to God, not to any war against our fellow man.

Panthers Can Avenge Valdosta Loss

BY T.J. THOMSON

The LaGrange Panthers found the Rebels of Valdosta State to be a rude host Saturday night in Valdosta.

The Rebels, using a tight man-to-man defense, and a devastating last burst, housed the Panthers, 60-56. The win vaulted Coach Gary Collier's Rebels into sole possession of first place in the G.I.A.C. race. Bob Ritch, hitting mostly on fast-break lay-ups, led the Rebel cause with 19 points. This was still seven points behind his 26 per game average.

The Panthers were led by Ronnie Myers with 20 points. Center Joe Phillips led the game rebounders by pulling down 14.

The Rebels hit a very respectable 51 per cent from the field, whereas the Panthers hit only 30 per cent of their field tries.

The Panthers will try to turn the tables on the Rebels when the two teams meet in LaGrange this Saturday night. A win would put the Panthers back in a tie for first place in the conference.

Games Away

Before Rebels

The Panthers must face Mercer University's Bears tonight in Macon and Georgia State's Eagles Thursday in Atlanta before hosting Valdosta State's Rebels Saturday on friendly hardwood.

The Bears edged LaGrange, 69-67, in December behind a balanced attack which had five MU players scoring in double figures. LaGrange defeated Georgia's second largest educational institution, 85-55, in the earlier meeting.

Hawks Soar Past LC, Southern Meets Defeat

The Huntington Hawks played their usual role as a tough foe last Monday night in Montgomery.

Using the deadly outside shooting of guards John Bricken and Slim Bell, and the strong inside work of Jim Childers, the Hawks roared by the Panthers, 94-74.

LaGrange was paced by Glenn Lord with 18 points, Joe Phillips scored 13 before fouling out early in the second half. Huntington only outscored the Panthers by two field goals, but the Hawks hit a brilliant 22 of 36 free throws in notch- ing their seventh consecutive win.

TWIN TERROR — Senior David Corless has been starting for his injured twin in recent games, keeping intact the four-year record of a Corless starting every game.

DAUNTLESS DUCKETT — Sophomore forward Tom Duckett, "the Ringgold Kid," has started almost every Panther game this season. He is the team's second highest rebounder and has been credited with many scoring assists.
