SAV Vote Set For Thursday

The Hilltop News

"Representing Georgia's Oldest Independent Institution of Higher Learning"

Volume VIII, No. 20

LaGrange College, LaGrange Georgia

March 8, 1984

---

Mission Expert Will Work On Work Opportunities

John Clay, campus travel staff member, for the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, will visit the LC campus Wednesday and Thursday, March 8th. He will be the guest speaker for the Wednesday Wesley Fellowship Meeting.

He will be on campus all day Wednesday and Thursday to talk with students. Appointments may be made by contacting Mr. Jolly.

Clay is to be Interpreter for Christian missions—sharing insights and experiences and presenting the challenge of the world missions of the Church and the student’s involvement and commitment to mission activities.

It was also announced that the Rev. Stuart Irwin McRae of College Park, Georgia, also majoring in history and current problems of America, "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance" is the next feature to be presented by the Pre Minis-terial Association on Friday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in the Balley Room. The price is $5.

The stars are James Stewart, a lawyer, and 32-year-old Robert Ryan (Lee Marvin) terrorizes a small western town of Shinbone there are two men who oppose him. The first is big John Wayne, quiet and tough, the only man capable of stopping him. The second is James Stewart, a fast-talking lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

LC Graduates Are Honored

Three more of LaGrange’s outstanding young men - 98 graduates of LaGrange College - are included in the 1984 edition of Conquering Young Men of America.

A LaGrange native to be fea-tured is William Douglas Co-field of Duncan, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Coleman of 701 South Greenwood, Er-ving Williams of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Williams of Augusta, also were honored.

It was also announced that the Rev. Stuart Irwin McRae of College Park, Georgia, also majoring in his- tory and current problems of America, "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance" is the next feature to be presented by the Pre Minis-terial Association on Friday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in the Balley Room. The price is $5.

The stars are James Stewart, a lawyer, and 32-year-old Robert Ryan (Lee Marvin) terrorizes a small western town of Shinbone there are two men who oppose him. The first is big John Wayne, quiet and tough, the only man capable of stopping him. The second is James Stewart, a fast-talking lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

Parking Spaces Accomodate Three Fourthrs

Information from the Busi-ness Office indicates that the total parking space on campus is now 76.5 percent of the total available.

The cast is star-studd-ed a western as one could wish. The cast is star-studd-ed a western as one could wish. The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

It is as exciting and action-packed a western as one could wish. The cast is star-studd-ed a western as one could wish. The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

SGA Vote Set For Thursday

By CASSIE HERNDON

Election of the Executive Council of the Student Government Association is scheduled Thursday, Balloting for the con-tested student offices will be in the Student Center beginning at 9 a.m. During the lunch period the polls will be moved to the residence halls and all SGA voting will resume in the stu-dent Center. The polls are sched-uled to close at 2 p.m.

Results of the election will be announced at supper Thurs-day night. If there is to be a run-off on Friday night, those run-off voting will resume in the stu-dent Center. The polls are sched-uled to close at 2 p.m.

Campaign speeches by the candidates for executive offices are set for assembly Wednes-day morning. It is expected that at least fifteen weeks will be spent on the qualifications for office and ex-plain what their policies will be.

The class-elected members of the Legislative Council of the campus government will be chosen Friday morning at 10 a.m. in the classes meetings. Only the freshmen, sophomores and juniors will vote legis-la tively.

---

SAMPLE BALLOT

PREZIDENT:

NICK FLEAKAY

HILLY CAMELIE

BILLY GAMBILL

MENS VICE PREIDENT:

DAN ATKINSON

TOM DUCKETT

ELIET MILLAY

WOMENS VICE PREIDENT:

KAY KERR

RAY HAY

SECRETARY:

JANE JENNIK

CERR MCALOOG

TREASURER:

JERRY TRACKETT

RONNIE WILLIS

---

Student Of The Week

Sports Lover Wants To Write About It

By KAY HICKS

"Sports lover" John B. Edge IH, a sophomore at LC, is a member of the Legislative Council of the Student Government Association.

A LaGrange native to be fea-tured is William Douglas Co-field of Duncan, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Coleman of 701 South Greenwood, Er-ving Williams of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Williams of Augusta, also were honored.

A LaGrange native to be fea-tured is William Douglas Co-field of Duncan, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Coleman of 701 South Greenwood, Er-ving Williams of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Williams of Augusta, also were honored.

-----

Dog Blankenship, past United States Representative to the United Nations, will be featured also in the annual biographical compi-lation published by the Jay-cia (Junior Chamber of Com-merce).

A LaGrange native to be fea-tured is William Douglas Co-field of Duncan, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Coleman of 701 South Greenwood, Er-ving Williams of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Williams of Augusta, also were honored.

A LaGrange native to be fea-tured is William Douglas Co-field of Duncan, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Coleman of 701 South Greenwood, Er-ving Williams of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Loy Williams of Augusta, also were honored.

-----

LC Graduates Are Honored

Three more of LaGrange’s outstanding young men - 98 graduates of LaGrange College - are included in the 1984 edition of Conquering Young Men of America.

The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

Parking Spaces Accomodate Three Fourthrs

Information from the Busi-ness Office indicates that the total parking space on campus is now 76.5 percent of the total available.

The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

Students’ Warning To Teachers:

"Don’t give up the exam we have just begun to cram!"

---

JUST WONDERING WHO LET THE LAY IN THE STUDENT CENTER?

---

Volume VIII, No. 20

LaGrange College, LaGrange Georgia

March 8, 1984

---

LC Graduates Are Honored

Three more of LaGrange’s outstanding young men - 98 graduates of LaGrange College - are included in the 1984 edition of Conquering Young Men of America.

The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

Parking Spaces Accomodate Three Fourthrs

Information from the Busi-ness Office indicates that the total parking space on campus is now 76.5 percent of the total available.

The stars are James Stewart, a tenderfoot lawyer. When Valance and the lawyer have a gunfight, John Wayne kills Valance but the lawyer accepts the credit and is given a job for the U.S. Senate, leaving Wayne, the real hero, for- gotten.

---

Students’ Warning To Teachers:

"Don’t give up the exam we have just begun to cram!"

---

JUST WONDERING WHO LET THE LAY IN THE STUDENT CENTER?

---

Volume VIII, No. 20

LaGrange College, LaGrange Georgia

March 8, 1984

---

Mission Expert Will Work On Work Opportunities

John Clay, campus travel staff member, for the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, will visit the LC campus Wednesday and Thursday, March 8th. He will be the guest speaker for the Wednesday Wesley Fellowship Meet-

He will be on campus all day Wednesday and Thursday to talk with students. Appointments may be made by contacting Mr. Jolly.

Clay is to be Interpreter for Christian missions—sharing insights and experiences and presenting the challenge of the world missions of the Church and the student’s involvement and commitment to mission activities.

It was also announced that the Rev. Stuart Irwin McRae of College Park, Georgia, also majoring in his-

---

Parking Spaces Accomodate Three Fourthrs

Information from the Busi-

---

Students’ Warning To Teachers:

"Don’t give up the exam we have just begun to cram!"

---

JUST WONDERING WHO LET THE LAY IN THE STUDENT CENTER?
The Other Girls Speak Up, Urge ‘Sister’ To Grow Up

Dear Editor,

This letter is in answer to the old saw that we say hidden who wrote in the name of us girls at Hawkins last week. We feel that such a letter was unfounded and we certainly don’t appreciate your using our names to make a gibe at our fellow students. The writer obviously hadn’t had a date to her name since she came here and is taking out her wrath instead of remedying her situation. We get sick of hearing some of our dorm-mates complain of their dainty situation. The fault lies on their own shoulders, for casual observation will show that they rarely even speak to any boy on campus and freeze when one even looks at them. They run in herds with their comrades and one can see a “no-trespassing” sign on their backs a mile away. Yet, they wonder why the telephone doesn’t ring for them. They try to make up for their situation by attracting attention to themselves by employing such means as dressing provocatively in the cafeteria and running in herds like a bunch of gossiping old hens. (Some of us girls too have incurred their wrath.)

For the most part, we think the boys on this campus are pretty nice boys (with a few exceptions) and the only feature which they exhibit that isn’t appreciated is giggling foolishly in the cafeteria. We don’t need girls like them. If we did, we would be ashamed of our ridi- culous display of themselves. However, most of the de- sirable boys on campus don’t engage in such activity (around us girls anyway) and it certainly is appreciated. Don’t worry fellows, we girls in Hawks who have been and hope to continue dating don’t share thesentiments of our so-called freshman sisters and we’re ashamed of their ridiculous display of themselves.

From now on girls, don’t use our name to exhibit your amourdous. We don’t appreciate it in the least. In other words “grow up.”

The “other” girls in Hawks

For That
Special Girl
At Home Or
At School

PHONE: TU 2-3531
JUST CHARGE IT
FLINK’S FLOWERS

Also A
Complete Line Of
Artists Supplies
At
807 Hamilton Rd.
Phone 882-1466

LaGrange Builders Supply Co.
They'd Rather Have A Paper Doll To Call Their Own

March 1, 1966

Dear Editor:

Dear Oversexed (an arbitrary title based on two facts: 1. the writer of last week's letter is obviously a little starved, if she stocks to solicit publicity, and 2. the writer (not writers) refused to identify her letter, which is perfectly permissible except that she was a little presumptuous, most of the girls in Hawkes didn't even know the letter was written) "Understanding" is hardly a good word to describe the boys on campus. In any case, it presents a question concerning the writer's sexual experiences. To what extent have you examined "the boys" on campus? Equal urge? Are you well qualified to speak on the subject, or do you just have an insatiable need?

It is understandable that a girl feels "left out" when the boys pay little attention to her. This is not doubt due to the incapability of the male sex to distinguish between girl and boy. Now is a boy supposed to know a girl when he sees one? By the texture of her dungarees? By the polish of her loafers? By the brand name of her shirt? No, by her one hair long hair. And by the time a boy notices this, his taste is already soured by the predominant masculine nature of his attire.

Obviously, you girls can't ask boys for dates. Is that any reason to dress like boys? To satisfy your inner needs as well as your sociological needs?

Okay, the girls in Hawkes "worship adult-masculine men." Is that any reason why we masculine women should worship masculine men? Our playboy pin-up girls don't wear dungarees and sit on men and leaders. They are feminine, paper or not, and we must keep them as a constant reminder that the word "girl" still applies (in some cases). You don't see a few aprons of the feminine nature and sex if even the most perverted eye doesn't blink your way (once or twice).

Otherwise, you'll have to continue loving your stuffed animals. By the way, how do they dress? Not what gender are they, but how do they dress? Well, read this, burn a little inside, pour yourselves into your pants, and go to supper. Yours unqualifiedly, [Signature]

Dear Oversexed: In general, we must keep them. This is not due to the incapability of the male sex to distinguish between girl and boy. Now is a boy supposed to know a girl when he sees one? By the texture of her dungarees? By the polish of her loafers? By the brand name of her shirt? No, by her one hair long hair. And by the time a boy notices this, his taste is already soured by the predominant masculine nature of his attire.

Obviously, you girls can't ask boys for dates. Is that any reason to dress like boys? To satisfy your inner needs as well as your sociological needs?

Okay, the girls in Hawkes "worship adult-masculine men." Is that any reason why we masculine women should worship masculine men? Our playboy pin-up girls don't wear dungarees and sit on men and leaders. They are feminine, paper or not, and we must keep them as a constant reminder that the word "girl" still applies (in some cases). You don't see a few aprons of the feminine nature and sex if even the most perverted eye doesn't blink your way (once or twice).

Otherwise, you'll have to continue loving your stuffed animals. By the way, how do they dress? Not what gender are they, but how do they dress? Well, read this, burn a little inside, pour yourselves into your pants, and go to supper. Yours unqualifiedly, [Signature]
Mrs. Nixon

Compositions by Bach and Franck will highlight a senior organ recital by Mrs. O. F. Nixon Jr., Sunday at 3 p.m. in Dobbs Auditorium.

Mrs. Nixon is a student of Miss Kathryn T. Climo, associate professor of piano and organ. The recital is in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of bachelor of arts with a major in music.

A graduate of Holton-Arms Junior College, Washington, D.C., Mrs. Nixon has also studied music at the National Conservatory in Washington, the Atlanta Conservatory, and Agnes Scott College.

Mrs. Nixon received a certificate in service playing from the American Guild of Organists in 1962.

Games Tied

As a result of the Independent win over Pi Delt Saturday the intramural league was knotted in a four way tie for first place.

Pi Delt played Gamma Phi Monday, and the Independents will play Sigma Nu on Wednesday of this week. Regardless of the results there will be a run-way tie for first place after Wednesday’s action.

A play-off date has not yet been established to determine the over-all first place team.

THE CITIZENS & SOUTHERN BANK
OF LaGRANGE
135 Main Street

CASH FOR BOOKS

Bring Your Books To The Bookstore
On Wednesday, March 16th

A Wholesale Book Buyer Representing
Johnston & Malone Book Store, Auburn, Ala.

Will Be There to Buy All Books of Value
Sell The Books You No Longer Need

THACKER for TREAS. FLASKAY for PRES.