The Gamma Phi Alpha Sweetheart Dance will be held Saturday, April 10th, at the Brogue. Couples are strongly invited. Admission will be two dollars per couple. Tickets available at the door.

Contributions are now being accepted for the spring issue of the Flair. Subscription for the winter edition will be announced in next week's paper. Anyone who wishes to work on the "scroll" staff should contact Amelia McKay.

The NCC to encourage legislation.

Tom Hughes, a freshman from Brownsville, New York, has been appointed associate editor of the Hilltop News.

A pre-law major, Hughes has previously served as a columnist on the staff. He recently was seen on the LeGrange College stage in "No Time For Sentiments," and was elected treasurer of Delta Zeta Kappa fraternity two weeks ago.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 President Dr. Emerson Colaw will play out-of-state students in a game of football.

The game will be held on the athletic field, and regular LC rules will apply to play.

Oxfords to highlight LC May day program

By Nick Flakay

April 5th, May Day, promises to be a red letter day this year, judging from the preparations for the traditional event. Activities start in the morning and go on, almost uninterrupted until midnight.

The SGA will sponsor Oxfords Day activities in the morning. On this occasion special recognition is given to individuals and groups for achievements in various fields. The E, A, Bailey award will be presented to the fraternity most outstanding in the areas of scholarship, leadership and sportsmanship. Individuals or organizations will be given to persons outstanding in scholarship and leadership. Mr. Don Brewer, executive director of the commission on Higher Education will be this year's speaker.

May Day festivities will be followed by a buffet style lunch in the cafeteria for parents and visitors. Immediately afterwards the sororities and fraternities will present their tribute to May and King (Gary Brown) and Queen (Ann Herren) by singing various selections, sacred and secular.

Gary Brown

For the nightcap there will be action in the LC gym in the war of dancing.

The Oxfords, a rhythm and blues group, will provide music for the moving hips. They will be playing here fresh from an engagement in Columbus, D.C., where they will back Billy Banks too.

The Oxfords were formerly with Ronnie Milsap, a well known entertainer around the LC campus. Judging from past performances and reputation, they will provide the LC gym with great music.

As in previous years, May Day should be of great interest and provide a variety of entertainment.

Passion play presented by students

By Alan Hamby

To observe Good Friday a group of students performed in a Passion Play here on the LC campus.

Allison Grace, director of the play, was also in the cast. Barkers were portrayed by John Anderson, and Jesus was played by Florida Colaw. Barkers were carried in a crew headed by Tom Hughes. Hughes' other students had roles as members of the pilgrimage.

The group began its march up the hill about 1:40. Jesus, bearing a life-size cross, headed the group. Campus nurses acted as Roman soldiers marched along with the King of the Jews whom Jesus was carrying.

Barbas was leading the crowd of onlookers, as chants and shows were directed toward the cross. However, it was at this time that Jesus said, "Forgive them, Father, for they know not what they do."

As the group neared Manget Hall, it was carried by a voice coming from the direction of Manget which said, "Shut up, Barbas! You're making too much noise and disturbing my class."

In answer to this question, Dr. Colaw said, "The American Church today stands on the periphery of the main issues that are being decided by our nation. The church in an important place in American life, but not influencing. The church maintains too much reflects the opinions of its leading members. I see, however, some real signs of hope for our future. The ecumenical thrust, and a revitalized taste. As to the direction I would like to see it take, I would like for our members to feel that their responsibility is to know the issues, and then to become involved in secular society. However, their involvement should be based upon a Christian viewpoint. The church is to have a voice in the activities of the board of trustees.

The LC trustee is also a member of the Subcommittee on Appropriations for the Department of Commerce, and the federal government.

HAPPINESS IS...

By Hugh Duskin, Allison Grace, Tom Hughes

Happiness is your last class on Thursday. Happiness is someone you don't like not liking you. Happiness is doing nothing and not feeling guilty. Happiness is finding one more cigarette in your pack.

Happiness is a cold beer on a warm afternoon. Happiness is playing tennis on a cool afternoon. Happiness is being asked to "Play the Fugue." Happiness is passing math III. Happiness is unlimited dates. Happiness is getting to bed at midnight and thinking of something you can eat. Happiness is being remembered on your birthday. Happiness is a gas credit card. Happiness is being told by your brother getting you out of a jam. Happiness is having no homework. Happiness is a head-ache. Happiness is Monday morning without a headache. Happiness is studying for a test and doing well. Happiness is the cop who just gave you a warning. Happiness is being warned of a parking ticket. Happiness is not being mired in apathy. The fraternities and sonorities are strong enough to acknowledge the fine job done by the outgoing officers in holding the students in line. (HMD).

Happiness is Hugh Duskin, Alison Grace, Tom Hughes, and the other students who have failed to win a single contest. This poor showing adds nothing to our academic standing but even the SGA.

Happiness is a new officer who has not mired in apathy. The fraternities and sonorities are strong enough to acknowledge the fine job done by the outgoing officers in holding the students in line. (HMD).

It's rumored that the Business Office was too busy leasing student parking spaces to make time to tell us that the cast of "Porgy and Bess" requires more than twenty "students." It is said that their experimentation and a part of the play will not be acceptable for independent study in the science department but full attendance. Students desirous of a "trip" should contact someone other than a member of the science department.

Happiness is a new net on the ping-pong table. Happiness is the house mother in the girl's dorm. Happiness is not getting called "my little brother." Happiness is finally having a good chapel speaker. Happiness is someone who speaks to you across the room. Happiness is a fire drill in the girl's dorm. Happiness is a fraternity house.

Happiness is that the rumor that a student has been robbed in his car stripped while hiding Easter eggs for a Negro nursery school last Thursday.

Happiness is that Campus Chefs, Inc., has not been sending food packages to needy families in the Appalachian Mountains. It was a good idea. We will continue in our attempt to find out just where the food is going.

Happiness is the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., being asked to supervise advanced registration for the fall quarter. I hope he is paid for his time.

Happiness is the day the workmen leave Manhattan Plantation.

Happiness is anyone who will cash one of your checks. Happiness is a roommate who doesn't sneeze. Happiness is completing Pre-registration in less than four hours. Happiness is going into the bookstore.

we asked Elaine what her reaction was to the decision: "I enjoyed Dr. Colaw's addresses, but I thought the musical portions were somewhat amateur. Dr. Colaw is my opinion is the best speaker to address us this school year."

When question about the quality of the cafeteria food she remarked, "Everyday it seems to get worse and worse." Elaine was asked to explain why she considered English a worthwhile major, and if she would recommend it to other students. She replied, "Literature reflects the ideas and attitudes of people throughout time—not only one phase of life, but in all phases. Through literature we see mankind in peace and war, during times of plenty and times of not so much. We learn through studying what he has written. Man reveals his innermost thoughts through the written word. Unlike history where, I think, we see the event and try and understand it through what was written, in literature we see the event and the why of it in the writer's own opinion. A writer will depict an event and then try to explain it in the light of his own words. I think English would be a difficult major for any student who considers himself insensitive or unable to respond to the written word, be it poetry or prose."

'Americanization of Emily'

By ALICE TURNER

Julie Andrews in the next PFA Campus Movie on Friday night, April 15. "The Americanization of Emily" is the story of a British widow who falls in love with a practicing coward who wants to all out the war in London. He then becomes a "dead" hero in a stunt to get more money for the Navy.

Based on the novel by William Bradford Huie, this film depicts the heroism and nobility of war in a unique way, with romance, satire, sophisticated dialogue and a top notch cast which consists of Julie Andrews, James Garner, Malvyn Douglas, James Coburn (Our Man Flint) and Keenan Wynn.

Student poll

By BOBBY PAYNE

Now that the admission of Negroes to LC is inevitable the staff felt that the students should be able to voice their personal opinions toward the matter. As a result, Friday's student poll question was, "How do you feel about a Negro being a fellow student?" The reactions are as follows:

MARY ANNA DANIEL: "While I think it is fine, and I wouldn't mind if they lived next door to me."

TOM CONWAY: "I feel that the students should be able to voice their personal opinions toward the matter. As a result, Friday's student poll question was, "How do you feel about a Negro being a fellow student?" The reactions are as follows:

JIM JACKSON: "I honestly believe the right thing to do is to integrate. If a Negro was on the basketball team, I would work with him. As long as he is nice to me I would be nice to him."

BUCK THOMAS: "I was inevitable, so we should accept it with good grace."

NAME WITHHELD: "I think that the Negro citizen of our nation has the same right to higher education that white citizens do. As long as they have the money and intelligence to come here it's just fine with me."

MARY ANN DANIEL: "While going to Huron, there were two Negroes living down the hall from me. We were aware of

...in one generation ago. Inter- ested men in community serv- ice are an endangered species.

The next question posed to Dr. Colaw was: "Do you agree with our committed在那里?" He said, "I agree with it. It is so new, and Dr. Colaw's philosophy is no more than a generation ago. And I don't think there are any more illiterate births than there were a generation ago."

"When asked his opinion concerning Hugh Hefner's Playboy philosophy, he said, "Hugh Hefner's philosophy is not anything new. It is as old as time and is fundamentally absurd. You sacrifice the interest of men in community service to an exaggerated concern for the personal interest and for the sex appetite of another person as a thing. This violates a fundamental prin- ciple of life and is the great impetus behind the race riots, the fact that you can't treat another person as a thing. You must regard his personality as sacred."

Pi Delt take lead in volleyball action

By KNOX FERRIS

Last Tuesday evening the gym was the scene for the first of the inter-fraternity volleyball games.

Although this particular sport is short-lived, and not as well supported as the major three (football, basketball, and softball), the competition is none the less fierce. This proved to be ever so true with the three teams listed and won a game respectively.

Pi Delt won over Gamma Phi, only to lose to Sigma Nu. Then Gamma Phi bounced back to defeat Sigma Nu.

After Tuesday afternoon's encounter the three franchises stood all tied at one and one. This tie way, however, not long lived as the three teams met again on Thursday evening.

Pi Delt won over Gamma Phi at the good of Sigma Nu team. The Deltas were sparked in this two game series with the sorority of Terry Peterson (nine points) and Mike McAffee (nine points).

The final score was 15-3, 15-6. Pi Delt's "Golden Tide" then took to the floor to play a series with both Gamma Phi and Sigma Nu.

The Deltas and the Knights clashed first, the Deltas coming out on top. Then Pi Delt's, both the Deltas and the Deltas were out to win, and both fought hard right down to the wire. Pi Delt took the first game by one point, 14-13, as time was called, Gamma Phi bounced back to stymie the Deltas in the second game 11-8. Then Pi Delt gather- ed its forces and came back to defeat the Knights 15-6 in the last game. High point men for these last two games were Terry Pe- tersson, Gamma Phi (seven points) and Joe Nalley, Pi Delt (seven points). Students

Ready to declare your major or want to change your major or your faculty advisor? Simply call Mr. Susan Butler, 29 South Court Square one week before the deadline on Tuesday, April 8, according to Mrs. Jeannette Overcash, associate regis- trar.

Forms for making the changes are available in the Office of Admissions and Registrar in the Goldfinch Building.

Pi Delt Loses Again
