Enrollment going up

LC's enrollment continues to grow. According to a recent survey, 569 students were enrolled for the spring quarter, and Dean C. Lee Harwell says, "It is the highest qualified student body in the history of the college."

Mrs. Juanita Overcash of the Registrar's Office said the total figure represents a 15 per cent increase in the last five years. In the spring of 1961, there were 389 students enrolled here.

A year ago the LC enrollment stood at 487. The total for the fall quarter, traditionally the largest enrollment of the year, was 552.

Dr. Harwell said, "It's pleased as we are with the constant increase in students, we are even more excited about the improved quality of our student body."

Many of the students enrolled here five years ago could not qualify for admission today," Dr. Harwell added.

Mrs. Overcash said that the reported fall-time enrollment for the spring quarter is 533. That figure represents the number of hours enrolled divided by the normal student load of 15 hours.

In a further breakdown of the fall enrollment, the Registrar's Office said that 283 students are living on campus while 156 are local and non-

Army at assembly

"Our program in assembly should be most interesting," according to Ted Hitchcock, past HQA president.

Captain Young Van Chi, later entering the Infantry School at Fort Benning from the Republic of Viet Nam, and Major Richard James, an intelligence corps officer, who is serving in the U.S. with a pilot who has flown over 1,000 combat missions will address us tomorrow morning.

Hitchcock said that after the assembly two speakers make a preliminary address, they will answer questions from the audience.

"If a group of questions to ask before hand so the program will be as informative and interesting as possible," said Hitchcock.

Mr. Henderson Taylor, one of our contacts, will introduce the speaker.

Upper classes get jump at pre-registration again

BY ALAN HANBY

Advanced registration for both summer and fall quarters will begin on Monday, May 5, from 9:30 to 4:30 in the Smith Field Building for Seniors, and students who are classified "special." Tuesday, May 5, in the Simpson Room. Everyone will also register in the gymnasium beginning with Juniors from 8:00 to 9:00, Sophomores from 9:00 to 11:00 and Freshmen from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Due to legal changes have been cancelled on May 3. A list of students and class standings and also their advisors will be placed in the Smith Building.

Advisors may meet with their faculty advisors prior to advanced registration at a time to be determined by their individual advisors. Students must see their advisors before noon, May 8 for registration. Failure to meet this deadline will result in a ten dollar fine.

The procedure for advanced registration will be the same as Seniors and special students to bring their registration cards and will require forms to the Smith Building on May 3, to be processed by the registrar's of-file.

All other students will present the registration cards and fall requrequests forms to faculty advisors at a time and place designated by their faculty advisors.

On May 3, students will bring the cards for summer sessions and forms for fall to the college to be held in the Smith Building.

In case of emergency, the faculty advisor may process the registration cards of the individual during the regular hours of registration.

EDITOR:

We were never more shocked than when we had to come to the abrupt realization of how the administration is really running this school. LaGrange College is supposed to be a “Christian School” but past and present experiences have shown us differently. A college should aid in developing a person’s abilities, but when a person with true leadership ability and above average capabilities begins to be recognized by the students and faculty, he is crushed by the administration if he fails to adhere to their specific viewpoint. Is this school so narrow-minded that everyone here must conform to the administration’s way of thinking?

On a small campus, rules must be obeyed, but since when is freedom of speech, thought, and the press against the rules. We would advise every person who wishes to remain here to remember the following:

1. Never question anything— even in your own mind.
2. Never sneak, think, or write, anything that is not the truth.

NEVER SPEAK, THINK, OR WRITE, ANYTHING THAT IS NOT THE TRUTH.

Campus elections

By Nick Flaskay

Campus-wide elections on the LC campus have nearly all the features any other elections have except one—they are not by a student (not likely because of the crowd hugging around) it’s a clutch that he will not know who is running against who, or what particular organization is having elections, what for, etc. This situation could be corrected by a minimum of effort if, for example the SGA were to coordinate all elections. This way, all elections in a quarter could be held in the same manner. To insure that all students know about the elections, they could be announced ahead of time, including a list of candidates and offices they are running for. The polls could be held in the same place. The student body ballots could be given out before chapel, marked and returned after chapel, together with the chapel cards. Better elections would certainly lead to good representation and eliminate a lot of grumbling and complaining.

Smoking rule needs change

By John Clarke

The time has come when we should take a close look at those rules which daily influence our actions and the actions of our good students. In this column I will discuss the rule concerning where our female students may smoke. It is a well known fact that a majority, or at least a very large minority, of the girls on this campus smoke. I feel that these girls have changed the rule concerning where girls can smoke. This change has been kept in step with the changed campus atmosphere. It is my recommendation that girls be permitted to smoke in the student center if they so desire. The purpose of the student center should be a place for student relaxation and pleasure. I cannot see how these ends can be fully accomplished if our ladies must retire to their rooms to enjoy a common pleasure as if we were something to be ashamed of. This is not to say that the rule should be liberalized to the point of opening up the whole campus for smoking, for this would be as big a mistake as the present rule.

I feel that how this change would in any way hurt the college. Rather, I feel this would aid in keeping up the whole campus for smoking, for this would be as big a mistake as the present rule. This is not to say that the rule should be liberalized to the point of opening up the whole campus for smoking, for this would be as big a mistake as the present rule.
Happiness is an electric blanket on a cold afternoon. Happiness is gratitude. Happiness is forgiveness of the faults of everyone else. Happiness is doing more than is required of us, rather than being content with less. Happiness is being careful not to lose our lives on the highways because of the carelessness of those who try in vain to find happiness at the "cunny line", Happiness is preserving the few hidden bits of decency left in the "New" Hilltop News. Happiness is discarding the rest of the filthy sacrilegious (sin) trash found in this so-called school publication.

Editor Are you for real, New Yorker?"

The Editor: Happiness is trying to make everyone like you. Happiness is knowing your many faults. Happiness is forgiveness of the faults of everyone else. Happiness is being more than you are supposed to be. Happiness is not caring what other people think, and feeling proud. Happiness is finding the thirty-five cents not needed to go to Buy-Wise. Happiness be with those who have needlessly lost their lives on the highways because of the carelessness of those who try in vain to find happiness at the "cunny line". Happiness is preserving the few hidden bits of decency left in the "New" Hilltop News. Edt Are you for real, New Yorker?"

It was my duty to stand up for them, as well as for myself. More than a majority of the student body is finding the "new" Hilltop News a much needed improvement. It has changed from an all-serious, dry, and dull publication, to an excellently written paper which combines news with humor.

Since you obviously have so much of your own humor, I suggest that you stop reading the Hilltop News.

USCG offers grants OCS

College seniors or graduates can fulfill their military obli- gations as officers in the U. S. Coast Guard. Qualified appli- cants are screened and selected for Officer Candidate School before they enlist. OCS classes commence in Sept- ember and February at the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in historic Yorktown, Virginia. Those carefully selected college graduates receive 17 weeks of intensive, highly specialized training.

Upon graduation they are commissioned as ensigns in the Coast Guard Reserve and serve on active duty for three years. Those qualified may be offered flight training.

Coast Guard officers receive the same pay and benefits as officers of other Armed Forces. Included are 30 days of annual leave and free medical and dental care.

Peacekeeping duties of the Coast Guard include search and rescue, meteorologi- cal research, marine safety, and the maintenance of aids to navigation.

Information on the Coast Guard and Officer Candidate School may be obtained from the Commandant (FFP-2), U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D. C., 20226, or the nearest Coast Guard rec- ruiting station.

BACKFIELD IN MOTION—Sigma Nu's scramble for loose ball in outfield during battle with Goblins.

PI DELTS AHEAD 3-0 SEASON

Last week, Pi Delt Kappa won three consecutive games to bring their season record to 3-0.

The Delt posted their second victory in a row over Gamma Phi Alpha, both teams having won three of four games, but Pi Delta's defense was the deciding factor. The Goblins only traded .63 going into the seventh inning, but in the seventh, Pi Delt exploded for four runs on three hits.

Braves scalp tennis team

The West Georgia tennis team traveled to the LaGrange courts on Vernon Street last Tuesday afternoon.

The Carrolton team had previously defeated the Pinners by scores of 7-3, in West Georgia on Thursday, March 31st.

Despite the absence of the Pinners' number one player, Neal "The Rock" Morrow who was involved in a minor car accident, the Pinners played well, but unfortunately the Pinners still are not having some difficulty in finding a winning combination as once again they did not defeat, 8-1.

Buddy McTureous was the Pinners' high spot as he won in the number four position, by defeating Jon Steenwyker in straight sets, 6-4, 6-6.

Enrollment up

Students will no longer be enrolled in student teaching for spring quarter, so students who are planning to enter the teacher certification program must plan their schedules very carefully with their advisors.

Advisors and students should be very cautious for those students who are potential August and December graduates. At the time of advance registration for summer and fall quarters, faculty advisors should submit in writing on forms provided by the Academic Dean's Office a statement that each potential graduate has met the major requirements, provided the work for the quarter is satisfactory.

Students must file an application for a degree in the Academic Dean's Office on dates designated in the school calendar. Failure to apply for graduation will result in a quarter's delay in graduation.

Bridge pros wanted at town club

LaGrange College students and professors who have tiles using their skill instead of their luck have been invited to the weekly meetings of the LaGrange Duplicate Bridge Club.

The club, which plays the kind of bridge found in tournament competition, meets each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Callaway Educational Building, Mrs. C. J. Miller, leader of the American Contract Bridge League and national tournament participant, directs the local bridge play.

She said that duplicate bridge is very popular with students and other college people throughout the country.

Competition in the local Duplicate Bridge Club is sanctioned by the league, LC participants are invited to bring their own partners or to come individually, Mrs. Miller said.
