1966-67 PANTHERS HAVE MORE POTENTIAL THAN ANY OTHER TEAM IN THE SOUTHEAST

CHORUS TO GO ON BEACH TOUR

The LaGrange College Chorus has undergone various organizational changes this year, according to Mr. Paul Doster, head of the music department and chorus director.

The chorus has been reorganized after the initiation of a club, "so that the students themselves have more voice in the doing of the chorus," according to Mr. Doster. Members now elect their own officers and section leaders.

When asked about how to attract more members to the chorus, the students have "as much as possible we let the students themselves have the final word on what to sing and wear." Officers of the newly-formed club are: President, Mike Baker; Vice-President, Brenda Barlow; Secretary, Mary Broughton.

Section leaders are: soprano, Pam McPerlton; alto, Susan Bailey; tenor, Ronnie McVey; bass, Larry Barefield.

This year's edition of the chorus has an extensive schedule and plans a long tour in the spring quarter. Full concerts will be given in Macon, Savannah, St. Augustine and Daytona Beach. Aside from these cities, they will sing in most cities along the way.

Future performances of the chorus include appearances at Callaway College on November 13, for the omission of the Governor's commission on education, and a December 1st Christmas appearance in Dobbs Auditorium.

All interested students are invited to attend the meetings of the newly-formed club.

STUNT NIGHT PROMISES FUN

By Linda Lyle and Elizabeth Kendall

Traditionally, each class is annually given a chance to see which is the most talented. This year promises to be no exception. The competition will consist of games being set for Jan. 9 and Feb. 13. Duckett and the Flyers will be the classes that will allow the students freedom to let their outside interests shine through.

Judging will be based on originality, participation, and entertainment. A panel of judges consisting of Mr. Burgess, Miss Stahley, Dr. Price from the Philosophy department, and one more unannounced faculty member will decide the winning stunt.

All people not coming in a stunt a twenty-five cent admission will be charged at the door of Dobbs Auditorium.

A trophy will be awarded the winning class. For the past two years the seniors have won this prize. Last year, they presented a skit on "Movie Magic." This year's stunt is a surprise.

The winning stunt will be announced on page 2.

ONE-MAN ART SHOW IS SET

From November to December 9, LaGrange College will be the scene of a one-man show by James A. Herbert, Associate Professor of Fine Arts at the University of Georgia. He was graduated Magna Cum Laude with a B.A. degree in Fine Arts (History of Art) from Dartmouth College. At Dartmouth, he was a Horace Chafee Scholar, an Honors Scholar in Fine Arts, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, a Senior Fellow, and a recipient of the Marcus Heiman Award for contributions in the arts. He received the M.A., Ph.D. from the University of Georgia in 1955 and also was elected as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow there.

Mr. Herbert has exhibited in a number of group shows including: Sixth Annual Water Print and Drawing Show; Southern Water Print and Drawing Show; May Painting Show, Denver, Colorado; Louisiana Traveling Exhibitions, Kansas State Annual; Scott-Richards Gallery, Chicago; Denver Art Museum, Schiller Gallery.

He has last one-man shows at Carpenter Galleries, Dartmouth College; The New Gallery, Iowa; Massachusetts Harkness Galleries; Providence, Rhode Island; Harkness Gallery, University of Colorado; College; Babcock Galleries, New York City; George; Museum, George; Center of Continuing Education.

Mr. Herbert has paintings in the Mead Corporation Collection and a painting selected for "Art in the Emmasates" (a program of the State Department), in the summer of 1965, he was artist-in-residence at Yale University.

In the following words Herbert expressed himself: "If I do not have the art of painting, it is not bad, but getting a good painting is a joy that keeps me going."

"I am not interested in stories in the art or pictures of things that were beautiful anyway and did not have to be painted. I am interested in occurrences down Memory Lane."

COACH AL MARIOTTI

It has been announced by Coach Al Mariotti that the LC Panthers will play Austin in a practice game next Monday.

The LC Coach is quoted as saying, "I want this to be an exciting, thrilling game. However, this year promises some exciting competition. All classes have been working on their skills and each team that they have the winning stunt, each class will be provided with a specified time and place to practice. COACH AL MARIOTTI"

INTERVIEWS TO BE HELD

Juniors and Seniors will have an opportunity for career interviews in Atlanta with upward of 100 Georgia employers during the Christmas holidays. Through arrangements made by the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce, students will assemble at the Marriott Motor Hotel on December 28 and 29 for interviews with personnel of the participating companies. Charles R. Yates, state Chamber President, said the program is designed for the convenience of students and employers, adding that the Chamber's interest lies in retention of Georgia-well-qualified young people who might otherwise secure employment in other states. "We don't want to lose this talent," he said. All a junior or senior has to do at this time is send his/her name, home address, name of college and academic degree pursued to: "Careers in Georgia Placement Committee, Georgia State Chamber of Commerce, 100 Commerce Building, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303."
Hortense Helps

Dear Hortense,

I'm a sophomore boy and am in love with a junior girl. I was recently reclassified 1-A and Uncle Sam is after me. I was afraid to get too serious with this girl because there is a chance I'll go to Viet Nam. What should I do?

A curious freshman

Dear Freshman,

Nice try, but intellect can't fight prejudice.

Dear Hortense,

It has come to our attention that the dating activities of Turner have increased tremendously while those of Smith have slackened off to a minimum. It seems that an astronomy craze has swept Third Floor Broad and drink it on campus? Army beer is 3.2 per cent alcohol while an alcoholic beverage in Georgia must have 5 per cent. If it isn't a state law, why should it be a school rule?

A serious freshman

Dear Censorship,

Marry her and go to Canada.

Dear Cassandra,

Cassandra,

You will come to love him and let him replace your stuffed animals. Should the horse show any sign of reciprocating love, write me immediately.

Dear Cassandra,

Your horse has increased tremendously while those of Smith have stayed flat. We fear that the LC Greeks may have learned something from the story of the Trojan Horse.

Cassandra

Dear Cassandra,

In the end, the means to be employed on an examination always wrong? Is there anything that is always wrong?

The "new morality" say, and when that person makes a plaything of the opposite sex. But unfortunately, the new morality is too often associated with today's preoccupation with sex. It speaks, however, as to much of our business conduct, associations in class or campus, and civil rights, economies-in every person-oriented situation.

The new morality, if properly understood, is not a loose morality-it is nevertheless a liberating morality that places knowledge and responsibility in a Christian ethic ahead of a list of "Thou shalt note."

Dr. Walter D. Jones

He has taught at Auburn, the University of Alabama, and LaGrange College. When asked why he chose to teach in a small private school he replied that he preferred working with students as individuals, rather than "by the herd."

As an undergraduate and a graduate student, Dr. Jones says he "had a continuing obssion with Melville."

He did both his Master's thesis and his doctoral dissertation on works of Melville. His main field is therefore 19th century American literature. His second areas of interest are Shakespeare and lyric poetry. Dr. Jones came to LaGrange as the head of the English Department. After one year, he then began also the chairman of the English major. Since coming to LaGrange College four years ago, he has taught many students to be both literate and articulate.

A native Alabaman, Dr. Jones took all of his degrees from Alabama colleges. He received his bachelor's from Hunington, his M. A., from Al-

Bibury, his Ph. D. from the University of Alabama, and studied one summer at the Shakespeare Institute in Stratford, England.
