TO: READERS, SUBSCRIBERS, ADVERTISERS AND ALL THOSE WHO SUPPORT THE HILLTOP NEWS.

THE STAFF OF THE HTN WISHES TO SINCERELY APOLOGIZE FOR THE NEWSPAPER
WE ARE GIVING YOU THIS WEEK. THE FAULT IS IN PART OUR OWN FOR NOT HAVING SEEN THE PAPER AND THE INCOMPETENT PRINTING FIRM WITH WHOM WE HAVE BEEN ASSOCIATING BEFORE THIS PAPER WENT TO PRESS. THE ONLY REASON
WE ARE DISTRIBUTING THESE PAPERS IS TO SHOW YOU THAT WE HAVE BEEN WORKING THESE PAST TWO WEEKS. LET US EXPLAIN WHAT HAS HAPPENED. IN ORDER TO BREAK EVEN ON THE COST OF PRINTING A FOUR PAGE NEWSPAPER, THAT PAPER MUST HAVE TWO PAGES OF ADVERTISEMENTS. AND, WHEN THE LAYOUT IS DONE CORRECTLY THE REMAINING TWO PAGES OF COPY ARE INDEED
ATTRACTIVE AND NOTEWORTHY. IN THE PAPER YOU NOW HAVE, DATED NOVEMBER
FIRST, THERE WERE CONTRACTED EXACTLY TWO PAGES OF ADS. HOWEVER, UPON
INSPECTION YOU WILL FIND THAT THERE ARE ALMOST THREE PAGES OF ADS.
THE SIMPLE REASON BEING THAT THE PRINTERS DID NOT FOLLOW OUR INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING THE DESIRED SIZE OF THE ADS, AND TOOK UPON THEMSELVES THE TASK OF GIVING TO THE STUDENTS OF LC ONE OF THE WORST EXCUSES FOR A NEWSPAPER ANY OF US HAVE EVER SEEN. NEVER AGAIN WILL THIS HAPPEN.
A NEW HTN WILL BE OUT ON NOVEMBER 15, WITH A BRAND NEW FACE. WE WISH TO THANK ALL THE SUPPORTERS OF THE HTN, AND HOPE THEY CONTINUE TO STAY WITH US DESPITE THIS UNSATISFACTORY EDITION.

SINCERELY,

THE HILLTOP NEWS.
"Tartuffe" to Premiere

LaGRANGE, GA.—The Georgia premiere of an American adaptation of Moliere's classical drama, "Tartuffe," will be the opening production of LaGrange College's 1968-69 theater season.

Presented previously only at the Asolo Theater in Sarasota, Fla., the translated "Tartuffe" will be staged in the college's Dobbs Theater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7, 8 and 9. Performances are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. The Saturday performance will be at 2 p.m., as a part of traditional Homecoming festivities on the campus.

Directed by Elmore Thomas and Robert Albritton, co-directors of the Asolo Theater, "Tartuffe" will be directed at LaGrange by Thomas Jeffery, Thomas and Albritton moved and updated the Moliere masterpiece from the French seventeenth century to the United States shortly after the Civil War. In explaining their adaptation of "Tartuffe," the translators said, "The central issues of "Tartuffe"—hypocrisy, gullibility, exploitation and cheapening of things we hold sacred—are universal. Yet the original context of these issues, the original "world" of the play no longer serves as an adequate base for the F.E.L. experience that makes for enjoyment in the theater."

"Too many rich details relating to the moment-to-moment living experiences of the family unit in this play are universal. Yet the original context of these issues, the original "world" of the play no longer serves as an adequate base for the F.E.L. experience that makes for enjoyment in the theater.

"Homecoming Nears"

Preparations for Homecoming Weekend, Nov. 8 and 9, are well underway. Heading the weekend up is Gene Greene as the Student Homecoming Chairman.

Saturday, the ninth of November, will officially begin at ten o'clock with registration, coffee, and campus tours for the alumni. At eleven o'clock Rocky Patzox, class of 1960, of L. C. Gymnasium, will preside at a business meeting of the National Alumni Association. Scheduled class reunion will be from eleven until the Alumni luncheon at twelve-thirty. The luncheon speaker will be Marshall Harrison Davidson, chairman of the Art Department at Mercer University, Macon, Georgia. During the luncheon, Dr. Henry will accept a statue of John Wesley from Mr. A. C. Hunter, Sr., of Crawfordsville, Fla., given in honor of Harrison and Susan Daugherty.

The presentation of Homecoming Queen, the crowning of the 1968 Homecoming Queen will be after selections by the LaGrange College Choralaires at two o'clock. The senior contestants are Betty Alicia Wagner sponsored by the Wesley Fellowship, Nancy Elizabeth James, sponsored by the SNEA, sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Phi Sorority, Catherine Cordelia Martin sponsored by the Sigma Nu Pi Fraternity and Nina Elizabeth Field sponsored by the SNBA, Rebecca Ann Martin sponsored by the Inter-Faith Council, Carol Ann Vaughn sponsored by the Sophists, and Patricia Ann Drennan sponsored by the Alpha Phi Beta Sorority, Constance Faith Lytle sponsored by the Kappa Delta Phi Sorority, Marilyn E. Brooks sponsored by the Student Government Association and Nancy Jane Kight sponsored by the Sigma Phi Epsilon and the Choralaires are the sophomores entered. The freshmen participating are: Nancy Ann DiBone sponsored by the Choralaires at two o'clock. Just Grazing

Well, here we are with another issue, so open up the pasture gate and let's go. After a couple of weeks of watching the intramural football action things have opened up somewhat. As of right now Gamma Phi is on top with a 3 and 0 record followed by Pi Delt with 2 and 1, the Indies 1 and 2 and Sigma Nu 0 and 3. It looks like its going to be a battle royal between the Goldenites and the Panthers. Pi Delt has the upper hand as far as statistics go with a total of 60 points scored to 38 scored by their opponents. However, Gamma Phi got the edge when the two met and came out on top by a score of 14-6. These two teams will meet again this week in a game that should spell the title for the remainder of the season. It should be an even more exciting game than their first meeting. On the other hand, the Independents, while having a hard time winning are giving everybody trouble. Their weight and depth advantage is making the mark on their opponents and they can't be crossed out of the picture yet. With 6 games left to play for all teams anything could happen before it's all over and it probably will.

Looking back to what's going on in the L. C. Gymnasium, the momentum that the Panthers started last season seems to be even stronger now. In workouts so far this year the Panthers show the characteristics of what should lead to a very successful season for '69. The season opener with Columbus College here on Wed., Nov. 10 show the city of LaGrange and LaGrange College along with the G.O.C., what is in store for the season. What the Panthers need now is moral support. Combining that with the strength and spirit they already have, things will really be popping in Coach Marliott's Panther Pit at the bottom of the Hill.
