Students To Work On Faculty Committees?

A recommendation of the advisory council and approved by the faculty has brought under consideration the allowing of students to serve on certain committees. This has been approved and the details are now being worked out. This is the motion which was brought up:

There may be student representation on faculty committees. The student representatives must be seniors in good standing as certified by the Registrar and selected by the Student Government Association. The number of student representatives shall be limited to one student for each sub-committee. This will not apply to the Student Conduct sub-committee. A recommendation of the Student Affairs Committee will be submitted.

Woodrow Wilson Nominees Announced

The Woodrow Wilson nominees from LaGrange College for 1968-69 are John Henry Collings, Jr. (mathematics) and Philip Gerald Thacker (English).

The purpose of this award is to place the names of those selected on a list sent to graduate schools throughout the U.S. The graduate schools pick from this list those whom they feel would benefit from scholarships and grants.

Religious Emphasis Week

Dr. Richard E. Blanchard will be featured at this year's religious emphasis week Nov. 18-20. There will be required attendance during some days at 10:00 A.M. in the Gym.

Dr. Richard E. Blanchard was born of missionary parents in China. He was educated at Davidson College, Mercer University and Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Aside from many former pastorates throughout Florida, he has had articles published in several Methodist journals.

Dr. Blanchard is currently pastor of the First Methodist Church in LaGrange, Florida. His major hobby is water skiing, together he and Mrs. Blanchard have taught over 250 young persons to water ski.

LC Students Plan Inner-City Program

A group of students from this college is working with the Reverend Kent of the Dixie Methodist Church to form an Inter-City Program for LaGrange. The group plans primarily for grammar school and junior high school children. They plan to open a recreation center in a few blocks from the Pepperell mill, at the beginning of Winter Quarter. Eventually it is planned for this building to have a television, facilities for teaching elementary home economics, a small library of children's books, various games, and an area for meeting.

The group has an executive committee with Frank Key, chairman; Susan Montgomery, co-chairman; Claudia Brown, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the group are Emily Hitchcock, Donna Jones, Linda Ann Short, Bob Timmali, Arthur Clayton, Joyce Pournaris, Mary Ann Miley, Patricia Turnam, Frankie Culpepper, Annette Palmer, Beth Kopenky, Sandra Bath, Sonia Robinson, Greg Clapper, Van Youngliner, Jullian Nesbit, Barbara Laughman, Melissa Elm, Judi Holt, Baba Church, James Lee Garvey and Philip Gerald Daniel. This group will have its next meeting Tuesday night at nine o'clock in room 109 in Massey.

Eight Inducted Into Circle K

Eight LaGrange College men have been tapped for membership in the Circle K Club, a service-oriented campus group sponsored by Kiwanis International. At a college-wide assembly, local chapter president John Watson announced the new members.

They are Bill Blake, George Arthur Courtright, Jr., Denzil Cravon, Irwin Franklin Key, Mike Savage, George Stover, David Lewis Williams and Gabriel Yanni.

The college catalog describes Circle K as a "K''sponsored fellowship of college men organized into service clubs. Guiding principles of Circle K are the daily living of the Golden Rule and service to college and community.

Locally, Circle K is sponsored by the LaGrange Kiwanis Club. Other Circle K officers at LaGrange are Kim Scroggs, vice president Jeff Williams, secretary, and Roger Frenn, treasurer.

Additional members of Circle K are Roger Adams, Tom Baynard, Steven Thomas Bunch, Jim Daniel, Art Dewar, Billliter, Samuel Lanier, Bud Logan, Dick Lowrey, Marion McEachern, Butch Miller, Charles Price and Robert Stevens.

Susan Kaysen is 1968-69 "Sweetheart of Circle K." LaGrange College Chapter No. 102.

Campus advisors are John R. Love, dean of students, Dr. John L. Shibley, professor of biology, and Richard T. Walters, director of development.

Kit Whitmer is 1968 Homecoming Queen

Despite rain, cold, and lack of sleep, this past Homecoming Weekend was a big success. Many hours of work in the rain last night went into the floats, so it is hoped that everyone saw the floats even without a parade. Congratulations are due to the Gamma Phi Alpha fraternity for winning first prize with Donald Duck, to Sigma Nu Pi for winning second prize with a steamboat, and to Pi Delta Kappa for winning first prize for the best car.

Although the rain caused much disorganization and confusion the dance was held as scheduled. Everyone there enjoyed the music by Tommy James and the Shondells, when they got around to playing. At the dance the Homecoming Queen and her court were presented for those who had not previously seen them. Congratulations to Jeanie Maurice Blackburn, third runner-up; Sandy Shields, second runner-up; Debbie Mayes, first runner-up; Nancy Kight, Maid of Honor; and the 1968 Homecoming Queen, Kit Whitmer.

LOVELY KIT WHITNER, a 5'9" blonde from LaGrange, was named Homecoming Queen at LaGrange College Saturday and reigns over the day's traditional activities and festivities. A graduate of LaGrange High School, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitmer of 312 Broad Street is majoring in elementary education at the college. She is currently student teaching at Dawson School and is scheduled to receive her degree in June.
The Hilltop News

Editorial

The hassle over the new student center has been brought up again and again so the Hilltop News has decided to clarify its standing on the matter. The facts are the following:

The entire problem should have been completed by the beginning of this current quarter. Thus far work is still being done on it. The entire problem seems to lie with the architect who designed the student center. The item listed as custom door jams seems to be what the hold up has occurred over. Custom door jams have to be custom made thus making for higher cost and excessive time.

The SOA BOX

Have Facts, Will Slander

A most necessary part of student education is to be up to date on the times and events of the community of the college. LaGrange College has failed miserably in their attempt to keep up with the times. Let's face it, the administration is composed of various minds with many different views. This is only natural and healthy. But, why can they not for once bring their superior heads together and get the clocks in this school up to date with the rest of the nation. The town goes by one time, the cafeteria by another, Manget by another. Then all three Roosters in Manget have their own ideas as to what the correct time should be. Is it a space age world and a time of much confusion, I ask you the administration, should we the students of today and the leaders of tomorrow, have to put up with your apparent lack of interest in us? Please get the clocks right with the times before it is too late.

Signed,
One Blind Mouse

The HTN Editorial Staff

An Editor's Job

GETTING OUT A PAPER IS NO PICNIC.

If we print jokes people say we’re silly. If we don’t, they say we’re too serious.

If we use stories from other publications, we’re too lazy to write ‘em ourselves. If we don’t we’re stuck on our own stuff.

If we make changes in the other fellow’s write-up, we’re too critical.

If we don’t, we’re blamed for poor editing.

Now, likely as not, some guy will say we swiped this from another paper.

We did! If we make changes in the other fellow’s write-up, we’re too critical. If we don’t, we’re blamed for poor editing.

We did! If we don’t, we’re stuck on our own stuff.

If we print jokes people say we’re silly. If we don’t, they say we’re too serious.

An Editor’s Job

November Special

5¢ Off

On all items 30¢ and over

The Villager

The Villager's Collector goes back to school gladly. And she wears all of the warm-hearted Villager things that make people glad she came.

The Hilltop News, November 15, 1968
Cheerleaders Elected

LaGrange College Cheerleaders for 1968-69 were elected on Nov. 1st under the supervision of Miss Virginia Canady, assistant professor of health and physical education. Selecting the group was a committee composed of faculty members and student organization presidents. Co-captains of the squad are Peggy Cobh and Sandy Shields.

Peggy, a junior and a Physical Education major from Daytona Beach, Florida, enjoys all sports, playing the harmonica and ukulele, and back dancing. Recently coming to LC from Forest Park, Ga., A freshman, planning to major in psychology or math, she loves horses, sports, and boys. (In that order?)

Other freshmen cheerleaders are Amber Cunningham, Barbara Wallace, and Pat Coker (alternate). Ann, a blonde from St. Petersburg, is considering a major in psychology. Her hobbies include swimming, traveling and wrestling (?).

Barbara, whose major is secondary education, loves football and skiing. Her home is in Dearan, Ga.

Pat is a LaGrange girl. Undecided about her major, her hobbies include boxing and square dancing, and cheerleading (obviously).

Returning from last year's squad are sophomore Janet Habel, Delores Crue and Brenda Holland. Janet lists as hobbies sewing, water skiing, and Randy Roy. She is from Miami, Florida.

Delores, whose home is in Matron, Ga., plans a major in Mathematics. She spends most of her time talking or wondering where her date is.

Brenda, a physical education major from Marietta, Ga., loves dancing as her main hobby — especially the Charleston!

Also returning from last year's squad is junior, Judi Holz. Judi recently moved to LaGrange from Carrollton, Ga. Her major is elementary education and she enjoys talking and coloring in a coloring book on snowy days. The second alternate is Cathy Martin. A junior from Jacksonville, Fla., majoring in elementary education, she enjoys dancing, reading, sewing and hog-calling.

The cheerleaders will be introduced at a pep rally before the first basketball game (Nov. 20).

“Reincarnations”

Various students got together and compiled this list of students and faculty and their reincarnated look-alikes. Needless to say the authors are anonymous.

Karen Bone — Weasel
Joan Watson — Rodent
Peggy Cobh — Squirrel
Larry Fox — Teddy Bear
Gordon Maner — Penguin
Ken Keller — Louisiana Pink-nosed
.
Bill Fox — Stop Sign
KM Rosserman — Koala Bear
Roy Wade — Giraffe
Elizabeth Kendall — Woody
Woodpecker
Chris Smith — Beaver
Bill Kiser — Mite
Gene France — Cherub
LeRoy Dickson — Hyena
John Ackerman — unidentified
Pug Hitt — Spider Monkey
Downan Wilson — Otter
Col. Hornsby — Bulldog
Dr. Taylor — Tapeworm
Dunn Harwell — Owl
Mr. Blankers — Wild Boar
Dr. Slackford — S-s-s-squirrel
Deer Love — Phe
Mr. Horasby — Turle without a shell
Dr. McCook — Frog
More damage will be done at a later date.

AN INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS AND HOME OWNERS
LaGrange, Georgia
Member F. D. I. C.
“Tartuffe” Caugh With Pants Down

The dramatic production “Tartuffe,” by Moliere, was presented in Dobbs Auditorium at LaGrange College on November 7-9, 1968. This is a play dealing with the religious hypocrite and impostor, Tartuffe, who uses his “religion” as the means of gaining money, covering deceit, and promoting self-indulgence. He is taken up by one Orgon, a man of property, who promises him his daughter in marriage, but when his character is exposed, he is not only turned out of the house but is lodged in jail for felony. It is thought that “Tartuffe” is a caricature of Pere La Chaie, the confessor of Louis XIV. Isaac Bickessraft first adapted Moliere’s comedy to the English stage under the title of “The Hypocrit.”

Moliere was a French playwright, famous for his satirical comedies holding up for ridicule the follies and pretenses of social types and individuals of his day, and for his studies of character. He was influenced by the Roman comedies of Terence and Plautus, as well as the Italian Comedy of Mores.

Moliere’s works include “L’Ecole Des Femmes”; “Le Festin De Peste”; “Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme”; “Tartuffe,” which was forbidden after its first performance and, revised, was finally permitted to be acted again in 1669. Moliere also wrote many other plays too numerous to be listed herein.

The object of the play “Tartuffe” is to satirize the religious hypocrites and social illnesses of all times. This theme is implicit throughout the play and familiar to everyone who is in any degree schooled in the theater.

The production that was seen on November 8, was one which gave the audience no credit whatsoever for having any knowledge of drama or the theater. Surely the portrayal of Tartuffe could have been no less effective had neon lights been installed on the stage to accentuate the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered.

The recorded sound effects would have sounded better coming from a $1.98 Sears Roebuck stereo system. Not only was the music at the beginning too loud, but added no effect to the production as a whole. Major roles were portrayed by Butch Miller, Alice Brooks, Louise Marlow, Mary Clark, Joe Hubbard, Lucien Carr, Robert Hand, Margaret Lunsford, and Wally Staff.

The production that was seen on November 8, was one which gave the audience no credit whatsoever for having any knowledge of drama or the theater. Surely the portrayal of Tartuffe could have been no less effective had neon lights been installed on the stage to accentuate the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered.

The recorded sound effects would have sounded better coming from a $1.98 Sears Roebuck stereo system. Not only was the music at the beginning too loud, but added no effect to the production as a whole. Major roles were portrayed by Butch Miller, Alice Brooks, Louise Marlow, Mary Clark, Joe Hubbard, Lucien Carr, Robert Hand, Margaret Lunsford, and Wally Staff.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed.

On numerous occasions the actors broke character. In fact, one character actually did one recognition anyone to be in character. Whether this too was planned or not is unknown, but surely it was inevitable when the nature of the audience is considered. From the opening moments of the play it became obvious that this was not the case. The production began after the audience had been let in on the fact that the play was being performed. 